ponents, and new men for expounders. This Continent has lately been convulsed Ly an upheaving so suchen and terrible, that the relations of all men and all classes to each other are violently disturbed, and people look : bout for the elements with which to sway the storm and direct the whirlwind. Just at present we do not know what all this is to bring forth; but we do know that great results MUST flow from such extraordinary com-

At a juncture so solemn and so important, there is a special need that the intellectual force of the country should be active and efficient. It is a time for great minds to speak their thoughts boldly, and to take possitio as the advance guard. To this end, there is a special want unsupplied. It is that of an Independent Magazine, which shall be open to the first intellects of the land, and which shall treat the issues presented, and to be presented to the country, in a tone no way tempered by partizanship, or influenced by fear, favor, or the hope of reward; which shall seize and grapple with the momentous subjects that the present disturbed state of affairs heave to the surface, and which can NOT be laid aside or neglected.

To meet this want, the undersigned have commenced, under the editorial charge of CHARLES GODFREY LELAND, the publication of a new Magazine, devoted to Literature and National Policy.

In Politics, it will advocate, with all the force at its command, measures best adapted to preserve the oneness and integrity of these United States. It will never yield to the idea of any disruption of this Republic, peaceably or otherwise; and it will discuss, with honesty and impartiality, what must be done to save it. In this department, some of the most eminent statesmen of the time will contribute regularly to its pages.

In LITERATURE, it will be sustained by the best writers and ablest thinkers of this coun-

Among its attractions will be presented, in an early number, a New Serial of American Life, by RICHARD B. KIMBALL, Esq., the very popular author of "The Revelations of Wall Street," "St. Leger," &c. A series of papers by Hox. Horace Greeky, embodying the distinguished author's observations on the growth and development of the Great West. A series of articles by the author of "Through the Cotton States," containing the result of an extended tour through the seaboard Slave States, just prior to the breaking out of the ding, but shall be enhanced by important and war, and presenting a startling and truthful picture of the real condition of that region. No pains will be spared to render the literary attractions of the Continental both brilliant and substantial. The lyrical or descriptive talents of the most eminent literati have been promised to its pages; and nothing will be admitted which will not be distinguished by marked energy, originality, and solid strength. Avoiding every influence or asso-ciation partaking of clique or coterie, it will be open to all contributions of real merit, even from writers differing materially in their views; the only limitation required being that of devotion to the Union, and the only standard of acceptance that of intrinsic ex-

The EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT will embrace, in addition to vigorous and fearless comments on the events of the times, general gossip with the reader on all current topics, and also devote abundant space to those racy specimens of American wit and humor, without which there can be no perfect exposition of our national character. Among these who will contribute regularly to this department, may be mentioned the name of CHARLES F. Brown (Artemas Ward), from whom we have promised an entirely new and original series of Sketches of Western Life.

The CONTINENTAL will be liberal and pro gressive, without yielding to chimeras and hopes beyond the grasp of the age; and it will endeavor to reflect the feelings and interests of the American people, and to illustrate both their serious and humorous peculiarities. In short, no pains will be spared to make it the Representative Magazine of

HEWEEKLY PRESS.

THE WEEKLY PRESS has been established on a secure and permanent foundation; but it is, in reality, a marvellovs example of the degree of favor which a rightly-conducted LIT-ERARY, POLITICAL AND NEWS JOURNAL can receive at the hands of a liberal and enlightened Public.

The general features of the Paper, in addition to its POLITICAL AND NEWS DEPART-METS, will be POETRY, SKETCHES, BIOG-RAPHY and Original and Selected TALES, chosen for their lessons of Life, illustrations of History, depicture of Manners, and general merit, and adapted, in their variety, to the tastes of both sexes and all ages.

THE LITERARY CHARACTER Of THE WEEKLY PRESS, now universally acknowledged to be of an elevated stamp, shall not only maintain its present high stan valuable contributions from able Writers.

THE POLITICAL COURSE Of THE WEEKLY PRESS need not be enlarged upon here. Independent, steady and fearless, it has battled unwaveringly and zealously in defence of THE RIGHTS OF THE PEOPLE against Executive Usurpation and Unfair and Tyrannical Legislation; ever declaring and adhering to the doctrine that POPULAR SOVEREIGNTY constitutes the fundamental basis of our free institutions, and that the intelligence and patriotism of our Citizens will always be preservative of a just, wise and salutary Government. These are the principles to which THE WEEKLY PRESS has been committed, and to these it will ad-

CARD.—

WITMER'S BRIDGE, Lancaster Tp. July 30, 1860. MESSRS. EVANS AND WATSON: GENTLEMEN-The small size No. 1 Salamander safe which I purchased from your agent, Mr. Adam R. Bacr, in Lancaster City, on July 20th, 1858 has been subjected to a very severe test which it withstood in a most satisfactory manner. This Safe, containing all my books together with valuable papers belonging to myself and some to my neighbors and friends. and represeting a value of over Twenty Thousand Dollars, ($20,009) was in my Mill which was destroyed on the night of the 27th of July, 1860, and passed through the fiery ordeal unscathed. The Safe was on the second floor and fell to the basement of the Mill, and was subjected for six hours to an intense heat among the ruins, which was greatly increased by the combustion of a large quantity of grain confined within the brick walls. After the fire the safe was opened and the books and papers taken out in a state of perfect preservation, the paper not even being discolored. This fact was, however, to many bystanders a better recommendation of your Safes than could be expressed in any other words from Yours Respectfully,
