WANTED IMMEDIATELY!—A good journeyman TINNER, by GEO. HUNTLEY. Ebensburg, May 29, 1862.

Letter from Johnstown. JOHNSTOWN, June 2, 1862. To the Editor of The Alleghanian:

A robbery of a rather serious character occurred here a few nights since. A young man named Baker, while standing on the porch in the rear of the Scott House, was astonished at receiving a severe thump on the back, and considerably more so on finding his watch abstracted from his pocket at the same moment.

The past week has been a quite brisk one, owing to the employees of the mill being paid one-half their wages in cash. "Scrip" has been a great drawback to the prosperity of our city, but better times are now anticipated.

James Sweeny, who enlisted from this place in the Sickles' Brigade, but was subsequently transferred to Bates' Flying Artillery, is home on parole. He was taken prisoner at the battle of Williamsburg, and sent to Richmond, where he remained four days, being then released on condition that he would not bear arms until exchanged.
