A WOUNDED SOLDIER .- Mr. John Lister, of Jackson township, this county, who was wounded at the battle of Shiloh and has been at home on furlough since, we are happy to say is rapidly recovering from his injuries. He visited town on Saturday, and was gladly received by his many friends and sympathizers. He gives a most interesting account of the great battle, and speaks in glowing terms of the noble bearing of his company-Co. C, Capt. Williams, 19th U. S. infantry, composed almost exclusively of Cambriansthroughout the fight. Mr. L. was wounded in the leg by a musket-ball during the thickest of the fight, but was wholly unconscious of having received any hurt at the time being. He says he experienced a peculiar sensation merely, as if he had sustained a kick on the leg from a soldier in the ranks behind him, and thought nothing more of the matter. He fought on, firing some seven or eight rounds thereafter, when he discovered, by the trickling blood, that he was wounded. He immediately grew weak and faint, and sinking to the ground, remained in a state of insensibility for several hours. He was afterwards removed from the field, his wound cared for, and he released on furlough. With proper attention, he will probably experience no serious results trom his injury. We wish him a speedy

MARRIED-At the residence of the bride's parents, in Wilmore, this county, on Thursday, 5th inst., by the Rev. S. T. Show, Mr. SAMUEL C. GOODWIN, of Cambria Township, to Miss SALLIE RANDOLPH.

We congratulate our friends, the bride and groom, on the happy termination of this little enterprise in the line matrimonial, and offer the hope that they may never have occasion to regret the step which indissolubly linked their future destinies together. On the contrary, may their married life prove happy and auspicious-an extended honey-moon, luscious, creamy, delightful, piquant, exquisite and amaranthine-and they ever cherish the act aforesaid as the sensiblessedest of their whole existence.

"What is life when wanting Love? Night without a morning : Love's the cloudless summer sun, Nature gay adorning.'

And is not participation in the rites of Hymen, and that sort of thing, the true and accepted mode by which to secure the very concentrated essence of Love !

FLATTERING INDICATION .- We clip to a more successful termination than did the following paragraph from last week's Gen. Banks. Lieut. Wehn, of Capt. Lin-Johnstown Tribune :- The Cambria Iron Company have made a general advance in | furlough. the wages of their employees-the second for the season-to take effect on the first of June, and especially among the miners, who, we understand, now receive as much for their labor as they ever did in the most prosperous times in these works .--Thus the company are redeeming their promise made to their operatives some | required number. two months ago, that they should share liberally in whatever increased prosperity

JOHNSTOWN SCHOOLS .- The public schools of Johnstown borough opened for an eight months' session on Monday of last week. The following are the names of the Teachers, selected from some forty applicants :--- Superintendent, J. Frank Condon; Mr. Samuel Singleton, Miss Annie Oglevec, Miss Lizzie Strubel, Miss Mary M. Swank, Mr. J. P. Andrews, Miss Sallie A. Druitt, Mr. S. B. M'Cormick, Miss Mary E. M'Clure, Miss Sidney A. Postlethwaite, Miss Mary J. Morgan .--Their salaries range from $30 to $40.

Letter from Johnstown.

JOHNSTOWN, June 9, 1862. To"the Editor of The Alleghanian:

The past week has been a most delightful one, and the young folks hereabout GREAT appeared determined to make the most of Hyatt Prost, Manager. t while it lasted. A fishing party, paricipated in by several young friends of mine, was gotten up, and quite a delightful time was had. The fish, however, it appears were not very plenty, but a brisk shower coming up about the time the party were starting homeward, they were drenched completely. Thus : if they did not catch any fish, they certainly succeeded in catching lots of "duck."

A Pic-Nic is to come off on Wednesday at Nineveh, a few miles below town. It promises to be a large affair.

I am inclined to the belief that Johnstown is becoming an exceedingly moral the company might meet with upon the place of late. Take for illustration, that at our recent Quarter Sessions we only succeeded in "sending up" one candidate for criminal honors, whereas at terms prior we generally supplied that commodious institution yclept jail with the major proportion of its inmates. # Colossal Golden Chariot. Van Amburgh & Co. take both pride and pleasure in calling the attention of a discrimin-ating public to the fact that they (with a determination to cast aside every opposition of whatsoever kind or nature,) have expended on this Establishment the enormous sum of $105,000! to make it surpass anything the world ever before have seen. It now rises pre-eminent over every competitor. All the advantages that wealth talent and experience could command, have been brought nto requisition in starting his gigantic enterprise. Re-ently, while Mr. Van Amburgh was in foreign coun-tries, collecting Animals for this Menagerie, reports of his death were circulated, but

INDIANA AND EBENSBURG TURNPIKE. -We learn from the Indiana Messenger that the Managers of the Indiana and Ebensburg Turnpike still persist in unlawfully collecting tolls on said road, notwithstanding the fact that an act was passed by the State Legislature last session repealing an act authorizing said company to collect tolls for certain purposes. The Managers have no longer any right to demand tolls, and if demanded people may justly refuse to psy them, as also cause the refunding of any tolls unlawfully collected. Herewith is a certified copy of the act to such effect :

Speaker of the Senate. Approved the Eighth day of April, Anno Domini One Thousand Eight Hundred and attend. A. G. CURTIN. Sixty-Two.

A RUMOR CONTRADICTED .- We last week gave publicity through these columns to a current report that Mr. Robert Davis, of the 12th regular infantry, and formerly of this place, had been killed in a recent skirmish with the Rebels in Virginia. Since then, the friends of the supposed deceased have made inquiry at the proper quarter, and ascertained that the rumor is unfounded. An officer of the regiment writes that a report was in circulation over a month ago to the effect as above, but that it had been disproved .--Another link in the chain of rebutting evidence is this-that the friends of Mr. Davis have received letters from him written since the period of his supposed detion, and hope that the subject of this about 15 years. notice may live long enough at least to return home at the end of the war and give us ocular demonstration of his sublunary existence.

PERSONAL .- Our friends, Messrs. H. J. Humphrey and P. L. Linton, both attaches of Adams & Co.'s Express on the Pennsylvania Railroad, were in town and paid us a visit during the present week. They look well, and also wear very good clothes-sure indication that railroading is an excellent investment. Long may they wave !

Dirp-At his residence, in Carroll township, this county, on Saturday evening, 7th instant, Mr. GORDON SINCLAIR, aged about 60

The deceased was well known throughout the county, and highly esteemed for his many good qualities of head and heart. He was a kind husband, an indulgent parent, an obliging neighbor-quiet and unostentatious, yet God's noblest work, a good, true man. He lived and died a sincere Christian. Green be his memory!

EXHIBITION .- The Annual Exhibition of the St. Francis College takes place at Loretto, this county, on Thursday, the 26th of the present month. Notwithstanding the many disadvantages collegiate institutions have had to undergo, during the past year, this one, we are informed, has enjoyed a fair share of patronage, and the coming exhibition bids fair to surpass those of former years. All should Courr .-- In consequence of a paucity of business, both criminal and civil-an unusual state of affairs for this county-Court adjourned last week on Tuesday afternoon. Very few persons were in attendance, and nothing interest transpired either in or out of the Court House. The second week's term commenced on Monday of this week, with a good show of strangers in attendance.

HIS NAME .- The name of the young man we mentioned last week as having been killed by the cars near Blairsville Intersection was John M'Ginley. His father resided in Johnstown, whither his remains were taken on Saturday following the accident, and on Sunday interred in mise. We are happy to make the correc- the Catholic Cemetery.
