

ODDS & ENDS.

In a small church at a little village near Brighton, where the congregation could not afford to pay an organist, they recently bought a self-acting organ, a compact instrument well suited to the purpose, and constructed to play forty different tunes. The sexton had instructions how to set it going, and how to stop it; but unfortunately, he forgot the latter part of his business, and after singing the first four verses of a hymn before the sermon, the organ could not be stopped, and it continued playing two verses more; and then just as the clergyman completed the words "let us pray," the organ clicked and started a fresh tune. The minister sat it out patiently, and then renewed his introductory words, "let us pray" when click went the organ again, and started on another tune. The sexton and others continued their exertions to find out the spring, but no man could put a stop to it; so they got four of the stoutest men in the church to shoulder the perverse instrument, and they carried it down the centre aisle of the church, playing away, into the Church-yard, where it continued clicking and playing away until the whole forty tunes were finished.

The general orders respecting guerrillas are very pointed. We quote a few of them: Secretary Stanton says—"Let them swing."

Gen. Dix advises to "shoot them on the spot."

Gen. Schofield says—"Execute them immediately."

Gen. Blunt says—"Give them no quarter."

Gen. Loan says—"Shoot them when found."

Gen. Halleck's orders are—"Let them be tried immediately by a drumhead court, and punished with death."

Puffs most in vogue at present—powder-puffs.

State of the weather, at present—no small change.

Why would General McClellan make a No. 1 boxer? Because he has just shown that he is a splendid maneuverer with his "left."

In view of the facility with which the famous Rebel, Stonewall Jackson, moves himself from field to field, it is suggested that his sobriquet be changed from "Stonewall" to "Portable-Fence" Jackson.—Vanity Fair.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF PARSON BROWNLOW'S BOOK.

The subscriber is about publishing a narrative of the perils, adventures, and sufferings of the Rev. W. G. Brownlow among the secessionists of Tennessee. The manuscript is nearly completed, and will be put to press forthwith. The appearance and typography of the work will be of the first class; and it will be fully and handsomely illustrated with sketches of the scenes referred to and a finely engraved steel portrait of the author.

As to its contents, we have no hesitation in saying that the public will be startled at this narrative of facts. It will lay bare the persecutions and cruelty which marked the development of the secession conspiracy in Tennessee, the disasters and the ruin which it devastated communities, the prosperities and sundered families once happy; more than all, it will expose the bad and reckless ambition, and the relentless bloodthirstiness, by which the ringleaders of the conspiracy were stimulated to their work of crime and treason.

The narrative is one of personal experience. The author vouches for the accuracy of its statements. The public may therefore accept it as not only a reliable but a peculiar chapter in the general history of the times; and we are confident that no more significant starting, or instructive memorial of the rebellion, in its minute personal and social bearings, is now accessible.

The public are well aware that Mr. Brownlow is a bold speaking man. In this narrative of his sufferings, composed mostly while confined in the jail at Knoxville, he has uttered his thoughts in language of extraordinary force and fearlessness, scattering his adversaries even while in their power, and appealing to his countrymen even from his cell with the urgency of a martyr.

It will be published in one volume, 12mo, fully illustrated, at about 40 pages, at $1.25. GEORGE W. CHILDS, Publisher, 628 and 630 Chestnut Street, Phila.

PRISON LIFE IN THE TOBACCO WAREHOUSE AT RICHMOND.

By a Ball's Bluff Prisoner, Lieut. Wm. C. Harris, of Col. Baker's California Regiment.

- CONTENTS. Chap. I. From Ball's Bluff to Richmond. Chap. II. Our Prison. Chap. III. A Day in the Officers' Prison. Chap. IV. A Day in the Privates' Prison. Chap. V. Pursuits and Pastimes. Chap. VI. Prison Incidents. Chap. VII. Sunday in Prison. Chap. VIII. Our Jailor. Chap. IX. Our Visitors. Chap. X. Richmond Prison Association. Chap. XI. Prison Companions. Chap. XII. Homeward Bound.

These sketches were written to lessen the tedium of my lengthy imprisonment; and if they serve to recall to my prison-companions the scenes enacted in the Old Warehouse, and to enlist the interest and sympathies of the reader, they will have accomplished all that is desired by the publication of them. With the exception of "Homeward Bound," they were all written within prison walls, and brought to the North seven securely in the lining of an overcoat.

I confidently trust to my brother-officers for their testimony as to the fidelity of the description of our "domestic economy," and the accuracy of detail in the varied incidents in our prison life in the Tobacco Warehouse, Philadelphia, March 25, 1862. W. C. H.

A CARD.—Witmer's Bridge, Lancaster Tp. J. M. 30, 1859. Messrs. EVANS AND WATSON, GEORGETOWN.—The small size No. 1 Salamander safe which I purchased from your agent, Mr. Adam R. Barr, in Lancaster City, on July 20th, 1858, has been subjected to a very severe test, which it withstood in a most satisfactory manner. This safe, containing all my books together with valuable papers belonging to myself and some of my neighbors and friends, and representing a value of over Twenty Thousand Dollars, ($20,000) was in my Mill which was destroyed on the night of the 27th of July, 1860, and passed through the fiery ordeal unscathed. The safe was on the second floor and fell to the basement of the Mill, and was subjected for six hours to an intense heat among the ruins, which was greatly increased by the combustion of a large quantity of grain confined within the brick walls. After the fire the safe was opened and the books and papers taken out in a state of perfect preservation, the paper not even being discolored. This fact was, however, to many bystanders a better recommendation of your safe than could be expressed in any other words from me. Yours Respectfully, SAMUEL BLANK.

THE WEEKLY PRESS.

THE WEEKLY PRESS has been established on a secure and permanent foundation; but it is, in reality, a marvelous example of the degree of favor which a right-conducted LIBERAL, POLITICAL AND NEWS JOURNAL can receive at the hands of a liberal and enlightened Public.

The general features of the Paper, in addition to its POLITICAL AND NEWS DEPARTMENTS, will be POETRY, SKETCHES, BIOGRAPHY and Original and Selected TALES, chosen in defence of THE RIGHTS OF LIBERTY, and the principles of Justice, and general merit, and adapted, in their variety, to the tastes of both sexes and all ages.

THE LITERARY CHARACTER OF THE WEEKLY PRESS, now universally acknowledged to be of an elevated stamp, shall not only maintain its present high standing, but shall be enhanced by important and valuable contributions from able Writers.

THE POLITICAL COURSE OF THE WEEKLY PRESS need not be enlarged upon here. Independent, steady and fearless, it has battled unwaveringly and zealously in defence of THE RIGHTS OF THE PEOPLE against Executive Usurpation and Unfair and Tyrannical Legislation; ever declaring and adhering to the doctrine that POPULAR SOVEREIGNTY constitutes the fundamental basis of our free institutions, and that the intelligence and patriotism of our Citizens will always be preservative of a just, wise and salutary Government. These are the principles to which THE WEEKLY PRESS has been committed, and to these it will adhere.
