

ODDS & ENDS.

SINGULAR YOUNG REBEL WOMAN.
It appears that Prentice's denunciations of secession and its leaders has so provoked the aiders and abettors, that even the rebel girls are snubbing him in the public thoroughfare. He tries to turn the table upon one of his fair persecutors in the following manner:
As we were passing along the street two days ago in our usual quiet way, musing upon "the storms of the State" and pondering upon our solemn responsibility in this great crisis of the affairs of the nation and of mankind, a very pretty young woman, whom we had understood to be a fiery young rebel, and even a terrible villifier of the Louisville Journal, was about meeting us, when, turning off from the sidewalk, she proffered her red and tempting lips at us boldly and defiantly. "Oh, certainly we will, if you want us to very bad, though indeed this is rather too public a place," said we with our accustomed civility, advancing toward her with our lips correspondingly protruded, when to our little disappointment and surprise, she started and ran away from us as if we had been some ugly old fellow of forty.
Now, if that coquettish young creature really presumed that we, occupying the position we do, would consent for the sake of a kiss, to pursue her at full speed through the streets of a large city like this in broad daylight, she was never more mistaken in her life. We as keenly appreciate a kiss, that neared sweetness, that double mouthed rapture, that seal of ecstasy, that blazing contact of mated hearts meeting upon the lips, that sudden bursting forth of two souls into a single blossom, as any other enthusiastic young man on earth, but at the same time, we have a pride, a dignity, a self-respect, and even a regard for the world's "conventionalities," that we would not sacrifice for all the kisses that ever thrilled and bewitched the sleeping visions and waking dreams of youth and beauty and loveliness and love.
Now we tell that young rebel that she asks for a kiss in the wrong way, that she asks for it at the wrong place and time, and that she doesn't seem to know how to behave after she has asked it. We have no disposition to say more, and even our high regard for almighty crinoline could not induce us to say less.
ALWAYS TAKE GOOD ADVICE.— Counsel is always granted to criminals for their defence. A robber being surprised in picking a pocket in the Grand Chamber of Justice, it was resolved to proceed against him in a summary way, for so daring an offence. An advocate was however allotted to the prisoner for counsel; who asking him aside said: "Is it true that you picked this pocket?"
"It is true, sir," said the culprit; "but indeed—"
"Hush!" said the counsel, "the very best counsel I can give you is to run away as fast as you can."
The robber profited by this advice, and ran off by the back stairs. The counsel returned to the bar, and was asked by the first president what he had to say in behalf of his party.
"Gentlemen," answered the advocate, "the wretch confessed to me his crime, and as he was not guarded, and I was named to give him my best advice, I have advised him to run away. He has followed my advice."
Much laughter arose; for nothing could be said against the advocate. It belonged to the court to give orders; and to the officers to take care that the prisoner should not escape.
A man who wanted to buy a horse asked a friend how he could tell the animal's age.
"By his teeth," was the reply.
The next day the man went to a horse dealer, who showed him a splendid animal. The horse hunter opened the pony's mouth, gave one glance, and turned on his heel.
"I don't want him," he said; "he's thirty-two years old."
He had counted the teeth!

NOTICE.
Having associated with Hugh Jones in the Grocery business, I hereby give notice to all those having standing accounts with me, to come forward and settle the same. Feeling thankful to the citizens of Ebensburg and vicinity for their former patronage, I would respectfully solicit a continuance of the same,
under the firm of Tudor and Jones.

A CARD.
WITMER'S BRIDGE,
LANCASTER Twp. July 30, 1860.
MESSRS. EVANS AND WATSON: GENTLEMEN.—
The small size No. 1 Salamander safe which I purchased from your agent, Mr. Adam B.
Barr, in Lancaster City, on July 20th, 1858,
has been subjected to a very severe test,
which it withstood in a most satisfactory
manner. This safe, containing all my books together with valuable papers belonging to
myself and some to my neighbors and friends, and representing a value of over Twenty Thousand Dollars, ($20,000) was in my Mill which was destroyed on the night of the 27th of July, 1860, and passed through the fiery ordeal
unscathed. The safe was on the second floor and fell to the basement of the Mill, and was subjected for six hours to an intense heat
among the ruins, which was greatly increased
by the combustion of a large quantity of grain confined within the brick walls. After the fire was taken out in a state of perfect preservation, the paper not even being discolored.
This fact was, however, to many bystanders,
a better recommendation of your Safes than
could be expressed in any other words from
me.
Yours Respectfully,
SAMUEL RANCK.
A large assortment of the above quality of Fire and Thief Proof Safes always on hand and for sale at as low rates as any other firm, at

3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their periodicals from the offices to which they are directed, they are held responsible till they have settled the bill and ordered them discontinued.
4. If subscribers remove to other places without informing the publishers, and the papers are sent to the former direction, they are held responsible.
5. The Courts have decided, that refusing to take periodicals from the office or removing and leaving them uncollected for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.
THE WEEKLY PRESS.
THE WEEKLY PRESS has been established on a secure and permanent foundation; but it is, in reality, a manly example of the degree of favor which a rightly-conducted LITERARY, POLITICAL AND NEWS JOURNAL can receive at the hands of a liberal and enlightened Public.
The general features of the Paper, in addition to its POLITICAL AND NEWS DEPARTMENTS, will be POETRY, SKETCHES, BIOGRAPHY and Original and Selected TALES, chosen for their lessons of life, illustrations of History, depicture of Manners, and general merit, and adapted, in their variety, to the tastes of both sexes and all ages.
THE LITERARY CHARACTER
OF THE WEEKLY PRESS, now universally acknowledged to be of an elevated stamp, shall not only maintain its present high standing, but shall be enhanced by important and valuable contributions from able Writers.
THE POLITICAL COURSE
OF THE WEEKLY PRESS need not be enlarged upon here. Independent, steady and fearless, it has battled unwaveringly and zealously in defence of THE RIGHTS OF THE PEOPLE against Executive Usurpation and Unfair and Tyrannical Legislation; ever declaring and adhering to the doctrine that POPULAR SOVEREIGNTY constitutes the fundamental basis of our free Institutions, and that the intelligence and patriotism of our Citizens will always be preservative of a just and salutary Government. These are the principles to which THE WEEKLY PRESS has been committed, and to these it will adhere.

DENTISTRY.
The undersigned, Graduate of the Baltimore College of Dental Surgery, respectfully offers his professional services to the citizens of Ebensburg. He has secured no means to thoroughly acquaint himself with every improvement in his art. To many years of personal experience, he has sought to add the imparted experience of the highest authorities in Dental Science. He simply asks that an opportunity may be given for his work to speak its own praise.

WITMER'S BRIDGE,
LANCASTER Twp. July 30, 1860.
MESSRS. EVANS AND WATSON: GENTLEMEN.—
The small size No. 1 Salamander safe which I purchased from your agent, Mr. Adam B.
Barr, in Lancaster City, on July 20th, 1858,
has been subjected to a very severe test,
which it withstood in a most satisfactory
manner. This safe, containing all my books
together with valuable papers belonging to
myself and some to my neighbors and friends,
and representing a value of over Twenty Thousand Dollars, ($20,000) was in my Mill which was destroyed on the night of the 27th of July, 1860, and passed through the fiery ordeal
unscathed. The safe was on the second floor
and fell to the basement of the Mill, and was
subjected for six hours to an intense heat
among the ruins, which was greatly increased
by the combustion of a large quantity of grain
confined within the brick walls. After the fire was taken out in a state of perfect preservation, the paper not even being discolored.
This fact was, however, to many bystanders,
a better recommendation of your Safes than
could be expressed in any other words from
me.
Yours Respectfully,
SAMUEL RANCK.
