OUR CAMBRIA COUNTY MILITIA.—Their Campaign on the Frontier, and Return Hither.—The two companies we mentioned last week as having departed from our midst in response to Governor Curtin's call for 50,000 troops to repel invasion—Capt. Litzinger's Ebensburg company and Capt. Cole's Carrolltown company—have returned home, the exigency that demanded their services having happily been dispelled by the great loyal uprising of the people of the State, and by the overwhelming victory achieved by our forces on the Antietam.

Rebels—and with splendid army pressing on his rear, no wonder that the foe shrank back affrighted at the prospect of invasion under the circumstances! We firmly believe that the moral effect on the enemy of the presence of this fresh column was worth a victory to us in itself.

Gen. McClellan himself has paid the militia a handsome compliment, thanking them officially for the valuable service they rendered in expelling the enemy from Northern soil. Governor Curtin also tenders the following graceful recognition of their patriotism:—

"Whereas, The threatened invasion of Pennsylvania by the rebel army has been arrested by the prompt and patriotic response of loyal men of the State, and the signal victory achieved by Gen. McClellan's army on the Antietam.

"And whereas, The alacrity with which the people in every section of the Commonwealth rushed to the rescue of their brethren on the Cumberland Valley border, is worthy of the highest measure of praise. Although not required by the terms of the call to pass the borders of the State, our brave men, unused to the rigors of war and untrained in military movements, not only entered Maryland, but held Hagerstown against an advancing foe, pressed forward to the Potomac, and resisted the threatened movement of the rebels upon Williamsport: until troops in the United States service arrived and relieved them. Their timely and heroic action has saved the State from the tread of an invading enemy, whose necessities made even military strategy subordinate to plunder.

"Now Therefore, I, ANDREW G. CURTIN, Governor of the Commonwealth, do hereby order that the troops called into the service of the State by General Order No. 36, be discharged, and that they be sent to their homes as rapidly as transportation can be furnished, and in the name of our mighty State, and in behalf of our threatened people on the border, I tender them the grateful acknowledgments of a rescued Commonwealth."

The following is the muster roll of Company E—otherwise known as the "Barker Guards":

Captain: Daniel O. Evans. Lieutenant: 1st Evan D. Evans, 2d C. T. Roberts.

Sergeants: 1st Wm M Jones, 3d John W Roberts, 2d Jeremiah Fagan, 4th Daniel J Davis, 5th J Todd Hutchinson.

Corporals: 1st George Gurley, 5th Hugh Jones, 2d G A Kinkead, 6th Edward Owens, 3d Joseph Conaway, 7th Richard R Tibbot, 4th James J Thomas, 8th Evan Griffith.

We did not get the roll of Company K, or we would have published it also.

THE DRAFT.—The following is a list of the several districts in Cambria county that are behind in the matter of furnishing soldiers, together with the number of men required from each:

Allegheny, 13 Loretto, 3; Blacklick, 6 Munster, 11; Carroll, 29 Richland, 37; Croyle, 22 Summerhill, 15; Chest, 16 Susquehanna, 8; Conemaugh Tp., 20 Taylor, 28; Conemaugh Bor., 15 Washington, 8; Cambria Bor., 6 Yoder, 5; Jackson, 13.

By order of the Governor, the draft has been postponed in this State until the 16th of October. Each district or township is allowed to offer to the Commissioner, on or before that day, its quota of volunteers, and thus obviate the necessity for a draft entirely.

FRUIT.—The yield of apples, peaches, &c., this fall will be unparalleled. They sell at a lower price now than they have for years.

BURGLARY.—A couple of weeks since, the jewelry store of C. T. Roberts & Co., this place, was burglariously entered by some villain, and two silver watches carried off. Subsequent to that time Mr. Roberts departed for the frontier of the State, as a soldier, leaving the establishment locked up. Upon his return, during the present week, he found that an attempt had been made to force another entrance into the store, the window giving unmistakable evidence of having been tampered with. Fortunately, however, the strength of the fastenings was such as to resist all attempts at entrance, and the burglar had only his labor for his pains. Our conclusions in the premises are these: First, he that would steal at all is a villain; second, he that would steal, or attempt to steal, from a man who had nobly responded to the dictates of duty, is a doubly-distilled, despicable villain; and, third, that such an individual should be hanged by the eyelashes to the nearest sign-post, without benefit of judge, jury or clergy.

OUR SOLDIERS.—The 11th Penna. Reserves did good service in the recent bloody battles in Western Maryland. We have as yet had no report of the casualties in company A—if any such there be.

Capt. Jones' company—company F, 133d Penna.—were not in the fight, they only arriving on the field shortly after the enemy had been driven therefrom.

In company F, 28th Penna., Watkins Jones is reported killed, and Sergeant Peter Kaylor wounded. They are both from this county.

NOTICE.—A meeting of Company E, Capt. Daniel O. Evans, will be held on Monday evening next, 29th inst., at the Court House, Ebensburg, to take measures to keep up the organization of the company, in conformity to Gov. Curtin's proclamation, as also to procure arms for the same.

By order of the Captain, Wm. M. Jones, O. S.
