

The Alleghanian. THURSDAY, OCTOBER 9

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

EBENSBURG AND CRESSON RAILROAD. On and after Monday, May 5, 1862, trains on this road will run as follows:

LEAVE EBENSBURG.—At 5.30 A. M., connecting with East Mail East and Express West. At 6.25 P. M., connecting with Mail Train West and Express East.

LEAVE CRESSON.—At 8.55 A. M., on departure of Fast Mail East and Express West. At 7.45 P. M., on departure of Mail Train West and Express East. ENOCH LEWIS, Gen. Supt.

COL. CAMPBELL'S 54TH PENNA. VOLS.—We clip the annexed complimentary mention of this regiment—better known as the "Cambria County Regiment"—from the Wheeling Daily Press of a recent date. Is it a graceful recognition of the eminent services performed by this splendid body of men, and will serve as an incentive to spur them on to renewed exertions. Their friends in this section will be glad to hear that they are properly appreciated in their present field of operations:

While the newspaper press is enumerating the gallant deeds of our army, and giving just praise to the different Divisions, Brigades and Regiments comprising it, there are many equally meritorious who are omitted, and who are equally entitled to the gratitude of their fellow-citizens. Among this class I would name the 54th Pa. Vols., Col. J. M. Campbell. This Regiment has been stationed along the line of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad since last April. A better disciplined set of men, or a more vigilant set of officers are not to be found in the service. Col. Campbell, by his gentlemanly and unassuming deportment, his vigilance and fine administrative abilities, has endeared himself to the citizens of Berkeley, Morgan and Hampshire counties, and his military qualifications are of the highest order. He is emphatically the right man in the right place, a fact of which the government appears to be well aware, as they have turned a deaf ear to all his numerous applications to be removed to other fields of service. Col. Campbell's position may be better understood when I say that his Regiment is spread along the railroad for a distance of 66 miles, and that since the surrender of Harper's Ferry he is cut off from all communication with the main army. During the severe fighting in Maryland, his was the only Regiment in Virginia on the upper Potomac, east of Cumberland, the whole length of his line being open to the enemy and harassed by guerrillas. Instead of evacuating his positions along the road, as he had discretionary orders to do, when the rebels were crossing to attack Harper's Ferry, Col. Campbell, with but 66 men, (all he had at the post) boldly attacked the rear guard of the invincible rebel Jackson's army at North Mountain, killing and wounding a great many, taking 19 prisoners, 30 stand of arms and one artillery caisson, and putting the whole rebel rear guard to flight. Since then, the 54th has had several skirmishes with the enemy, in all of which they have had the best of them, taking prisoners in every skirmish, and in the face of all difficulties maintaining their position, keeping their pickets in full sight of the pickets of the rebel army now encamped at North Mountain. Thus Col. Campbell's firmness alone has saved the railroad from destruction, and afforded protection to our citizens, who would otherwise have been compelled to fly from their homes, and leave their families and property to the tender mercies of the rebels. Our citizens owe him a debt of gratitude, and the R. & O. R. Co. I have no doubt, will fully appreciate his firmness and fidelity to his trust. Had a man of Col. Campbell's tenacity commanded at Harper's Ferry, it would not have fallen so easily.

—Since the above was in type, we have received, per telegraph, the following bad news concerning a portion of this regiment: "M. Clellan's Headquarters, Oct. 5. A company of the 54th Penna. regiment, who were guarding the B. & O. R. R. bridge at Paw Paw, about half way between Hancock and Cumberland, were yesterday attacked by a rebel force and taken prisoners. At the same time, a cavalry force under Col. M' Reynolds captured the encampment of the rebels, bringing away two pieces of artillery, ten wagons, and sixty horses and mules. A strong cavalry force, under Gen. Averill, has been sent after them."

THE 125TH PENNA. VOLS.—We have received, from a friend in camp, a detailed account of the part sustained by this regiment in the great battle of Antietam. We are sorry we have not room for it this week, it being even at present a little old, but will publish it in our next. The 125th is composed of four companies from Huntington and six from Blair, one-half of one of these latter hailing from the north-western section of this county. We append the list of casualties in the company spoken of—Co. K, Capt. Gardner:

Wounded: Corporal John Comerford, Wm. S. Jones, Charles Dillon Robert Smith, M. M'Dermott, P. F. Carney, L. C. M'Dermott, Simon Benden, A. H. Boazman, Hiram Mearns, Samuel M'Creary. Meeting: Wm. Myers.

TO TEACHERS AND FRIENDS OF EDUCATION.—The Teachers, School Directors and friends of education, of Ebensburg and Cambria School districts, are requested to meet on next Saturday, the 11th inst., at one o'clock, P. M., in School-room No. 1, Union building, Ebensburg, for the purpose of organizing a District Institute. D. W. EVANS.

ETCHINGS.—Getting shorter at both ends: the days. Getting longer: our subscription list, and the physiognomies of Loco-Foco politicians. Lt.-Col. Kopelin, of the 133d Penna. Vols., has resigned his position in the army and returned home to Johnstown. Adjourned Court convened here on Tuesday. The principal business attended to seemed to be the filing of naturalization papers and drinking lager. The 133d Penna. Volunteers, at latest accounts, were in camp near Sharpsburg, Maryland, and within gunshot of the camp of the 11th Penna. Reserves. A delegation of some five or six of our citizens started to pay the "boys" a visit on Monday. Our readers are hereby informed that that much-needed institution, an ambrotype gallery, has been opened up in our midst by Mr. John Kratzer, of Johnstown, who holds himself in readiness to execute any number of "picters," on short notice and in the most approved style of art. Give him a call soon, for he "cannot be with you always." Rooms above R. Davis' store, and in close proximity to The Alleghanian office. Sergt. Daniel D. Jones and Thomas Jones, of Co. A, 11th Penna. Reserves, who were both wounded at the second battle of Bull Run, have arrived home on furlough. They are neither dangerously injured, and a short sojourn here on the Mountain will probably set them all right again. We hope so, at least. Frederick Evans, another member of the same company, who has been on the sick list for a considerable time past, is also at home. He is almost recovered. Sergt. J. Nix Kinkead, of the 12th Penna. cavalry, was also with us a few days last week. Success to them all!

MARRIAGE.—On Thursday afternoon, 2d inst., at the residence of the bride's father, near Johnstown, by Rev. D. P. Mitchell, Mr. JOSEPH H. FISHER and Miss MARGARET J., eldest daughter of Geo. W. Osborne, Esq., all of Johnstown. This, for our friend John—who, besides having thus shown himself to be a successful candidate for the honors of matrimony, is also our candidate for the District Attorneyship of the county at the approaching election, (in which latter issue we hope he may be altogether as successful as in 'other,)—is by no means slow. On the contrary, we think it is quite up to the spirit of the times—which is saying a good deal, these latter days, in few words. Fast or slow, however, he has quit being a bachelor, and gone and settled down to the enjoyment of domestic happiness—"The only bliss of paradise that has survived the fall." And we think he has done right. Such being the case, we tender him our sincere congratulations, hoping he and his bride may live long in the enjoyment of each other's love and esteem, and that their ways may be ways of pleasantness and all their paths be peace. Moreover, if, in the wise economy of Providence, a lot of young Fisher-men should chance to spring up as the fruits of this union—which of course would likewise be all right—may they prove to be only so many jewels in the coronet of our friend's career of usefulness. &c. "The treasures of the deep are not so precious as are the concealed comforts of a man locked up in woman's love." Wherefore, go thou and do likewise.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—That benevolent institution, the Sanitary Commission, has issued the following circular, by which it will be seen that dried apples will be taken for the use of our wounded soldiers. The appeal should be liberally responded to:—

A DOLLAR THAT PAYS WELL.—One of the best reasonable enterprises, now before the public, is that of the Publisher of the American Agriculturist. He has secured for his subscribers fine colored editions of two splendid Maps of localities of great interest. One of these, covering a space of more than ten square feet, shows the entire State of Virginia so completely that every county, town, city, village, river, brook, mountain, hill, and principal road, is readily found. It also embraces the principal parts of Maryland and Pennsylvania. The other Map, covering about 15 square feet, gives all the Southern or Slave States, including Missouri, Kentucky, Virginia, Maryland, Delaware, and all south of them. Though not so minute as the Map of Virginia, this shows all the counties, principal towns, rivers, etc., of the Southern States. Any person subscribing now for the Agriculturist is presented with a choice of the above two Maps. In addition to this, every new subscriber for 1863 (Vol. 21) receives the Agriculturist for the rest of this year without charge. We have long received this journal, and can testify to its real merits. Every number is well illustrated, and contains a very large amount of really useful, practical, reliable information for the Farm, the Garden, and the Household, including a very interesting department for the little ones. No one can fail to get many dollars' worth of useful hints from a volume of the Agriculturist, while Maps now are so much extra. We have sent for two copies of the paper, so as to get both Maps. Send for the paper on our recommendation, or, if you prefer, send a dime for a single copy, and I examine it for yourself. The address of the Publisher is Orange Judd, 41 Park Row, New York.

DIED.—In this place, on Tuesday night, 7th inst., of typhoid fever, Mr. DAVID S. JONES, aged about 25 years. The deceased was a member of Co. E, 4th P. M., and participated in the brief campaign of that regiment in Maryland. Returning home, he was attacked by the fell monster, disease, and now, alas! he is no more. Such is life! One day we put forth the tendrils of luxuriant hope and vitality—the next we are cut down as cumberers of the ground. Rest in peace.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.—We are requested to announce that the Teachers' Institute of Cambria county will hold its next semi-annual session at Johnstown, on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, 16th, 17th and 18th October, inst. Members, and friends of Education generally, are invited to attend.
