

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

EBENSBURG AND CRESSON RAILROAD. On and after Monday, May 5, 1862, trains on this road will run as follows:

LEAVE EBENSBURG—At 5.30 A. M. connecting with Fast Mail East and Express West. At 6.25 P. M. connecting with Mail Train West and Express East.

LOCAL ETCHINGS.—Went off calmly: the election. Rather juicy: the streets at present. Suggestive of two in a bed, etc.: the atmosphere lately.

Doing a good business: our next-door neighbor, Kratzer, in the picture-taking line.

The Teachers' Institute for this county convenes at Johnstown to-day, (Wednesday,) to continue in session three days.

Capt. William Linton, of the 12th Pa. cavalry, formerly of this place, is now in town on a visit. He looks as though sojourning agreed with him. Success!

Reuben H. Wilt, son of Mr. Michael Wilt, near Johnstown, died in hospital at York on the 1st inst., of wounds received in the battle of Antietam. He was 20 years of age.

Among the names of a lot of wounded who arrived at New York on the 9th inst. from Washington city, we notice that of George W. Books, Co. A, 11th Penna. Reserves, wounded at Antietam.

A. Ferdinand Jeffries, son of Rev. Cyrus Jeffries, of White township, this county, was killed in the battle of Antietam. He was a worthy young man, beloved and respected by all who knew him.

The company of the 54th Pennsylvania regiment recently captured by the Rebels at Paw Paw, Va., belonged to Somerset county. No further particulars concerning them have transpired.

Adam Burge, an old citizen of White township, this county, was wounded in the foot in the battle of Antietam, from the effects of which he died in hospital at Philadelphia a few days ago. He belonged to the 125th Pa. Vols.

On our outside to-day will be found a very readable war-epistle from "Waltham," of the "Mountain Guards," Capt. Jones, 133d Penna. Vols. We hope our friend will not tarry in well doing, but will continue to post us from week to week as regards the welfare of "the boys."

A freight train, while under full headway, ran into the Ebensburg & Cresson passenger train on the main line at Cresson, one day last week, almost totally demolishing both the locomotive and passenger car of the latter. No one was hurt.

Francis W. Hughes, Esq., Ch. D. S. C. C., Prince of Fools, &c., issued a proclamation, a day or two ago, "in advance of all competitors," stating that two hundred thousand Democrats were required to meet the invaders of our State and beat them back. Notwithstanding this, we noticed that the polls in this neck o' woods, and we presume it was pretty generally the case throughout the State, were as liberally patronized by the members of that ancient organization on the morning of the election as though we were enjoying the palmiest kind of peace and the country was still safe. From this we infer that Francis' "Democrats" didn't start for the field of glory—if start they did, at all—until after they had voted!

Messrs. Thomas M. Jones, William D. Pryce, Richard Bennett and William Shenafelt, all of this vicinity, who, with the editor of this paper, last week made a visit to the battle-ground of Antietam, had the misfortune to be in Chambersburg, on their return trip, on the occasion of the recent raid of the Rebels thither. A trunk belonging to the party, containing over a hundred letters from the soldiers to friends at home, together with other valuables, was destroyed by the burning of the Cumberland Valley Railroad depot building. Owing to the interruption of communication, the party were obliged to foot it from there to Shippensburg, at which point they took the cars, arriving here on Sunday. Their impression concerning the "graybacks" is, that they are an uncouth, ragged, but bold set of villains, as a general thing very hungry, and always dirty and filthy in the extreme. They were possessed of no compunctions whatever against appropriating anything that might happen to be "lying around loose," and did pretty much as they pleased generally. Chivalry—to what base use, &c.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 1, 1862.

To the Editor of The Alleghenian: The undersigned, a committee appointed by the Penna. Relief Association to visit Cliffburne Hospital, acknowledge the receipt of six boxes of hospital stores, contributed by the citizens of Ebensburg and vicinity, containing the following articles:

- 27 bottles wine, 1 package Paper & Envelopes, 2 " Cordial, 2 " Catsup, 139 cans Jellies and Fruit, 6 jars Jellies and Preserves, 8 packages & 2 boxes soap, 11 Pillows, 1 ball Twine, 6 rolls Muslin, 2 " Linen, 1 Picnicbin, 5 papers Corn Starch, 1 jar Prunes, 2 boxes Mustard, 3 sacks Dried Fruit, 15 Fans, 12 Thumbstalls, 68 Towels, 16 pair drawers, 20 Pillow Cases, 34 Handkerchiefs, 27 pair stockings, 14 Muslin Shirts, 6 Linen, 2 " Tablecloths, 1 package Nutmegs, 1 " Prunes, 15 Wrappers, 1 lb. Loaf Sugar, 1 roll Calico, 15 paper Pins, 1 Lot of Thread, Buttons and Tape.

Fervent and heartfelt were the thanks bestowed on the generous donors by the six hundred sick and wounded soldiers in the hospital, who had so nobly sacrificed all the emblems of home and friends to go forth and battle in defence of the outraged honor of the best government on earth, and for the integrity and preservation of the union of these States.

They desire us to express their lasting gratitude to the ladies and gentlemen contributing so munificent a gift—exceeding in amount that contributed by any other village or town in the State.

We have to report that, with but slight exceptions, the articles were received in good order, and that they have been applied solely to relieve the wants of the suffering soldiers.

The sum of $18.71 in money was also received, $9.00 of which was applied to pay freight from Harrisburg here. When the balance of $9.71 has been expended, a statement will be published showing the manner in which it was disbursed.

We desire to tender to the contributors our special thanks for the articles sent, knowing that many a poor fellow's heart was made light and happy through your generosity.

Very respectfully, H. J. BRADY, A. J. RHIEY, Committee.

AN HONEST NEWSPAPER.—As part of the history of the campaign we have just passed through, we must not forget to chronicle that the Democrat & Beobachter, a German paper published in Johnstown, which had always theretofore supported Democratic measures and men, made its appearance the week before the election flying the People's Union State, District and County tickets! The editor was impelled to this move by several motives, the chief of which was that he had come to the firm conclusion that the leaders of the Democratic party were knaves, and that the Republican party was the only thoroughly loyal party in the country.—The world does move!

ASSISTANT ASSESSORS.—Thomas P. Campbell, Assessor for the 17th Assessment District of Pennsylvania, comprising the counties of Cambria, Blair, Huntingdon and Mifflin, gives notice that he has appointed his Assistants for Cambria county, as follows:
