

ODDS & ENDS.

A Pen and Ink portrait was never more graphically executed, than the following, from one of the correspondents of the New York Herald.

Andrew G. Curtin, Governor of Pennsylvania, is nearly six feet in stature tolerably well proportioned, very easy and somewhat careless in his manner, every motion denoting energy, and yet, at the same time, one who would like to take the world easy.

THE TAX ON TOBACCO.—The heavy tax on tobacco imposed under the internal revenue law, is already beginning to be felt here, and a considerable falling off in the demand for the article is experienced.

A country school teacher, preparing for an exhibition of his school, selected a class of pupils, and wrote down the questions, which he would put to them on examination day.

The following ringing sentence is from the conclusion of a late sermon of Henry Ward Beecher:

"I am not a prophet. I am not sanguine, though hopeful. I think victory awaits us at every step, but if God thinks victory too dear to be purchased so cheaply we can give everything, but this country shall be one, and one individual. The Atlantic and the Pacific shall say it, deep answering deep."

"Hear it, England, one people, one Constitution, and one Government. One God, one country, one flag and one destiny—cost what it may we will have it. Let God name the price and it shall be paid."

A young fellow of our acquaintance, whose better half had just presented him with a pair of bouncing twins, attended Rev. Mr. ...'s church on last Sunday evening.

The new fledged dad dah supposing that the preacher alluded to his peculiar home event, considerably startled the audience by replying: "Yes, I have two of them."

THE WEEKLY PRESS. THE WEEKLY PRESS has been established on a secure and permanent foundation; but it is, in reality, a marvellous example of the degree of favor which a rightly-conducted LITERARY, POLITICAL AND NEWS JOURNAL can receive at the hands of a liberal and enlightened Public.

The general features of the Paper, in addition to its POLITICAL AND NEWS DEPARTMENTS, will be POETRY, SKETCHES, HUMOROUS AND ORIGINAL AND SELECTED TALES, chosen for their beauty of Life, Illustrations of History, depicture of Manners, and general merit, and adapted, in their variety, to the tastes of both sexes and all ages.

THE LITERARY CHARACTER OF THE WEEKLY PRESS, now universally acknowledged to be of an elevated standing, shall not only maintain its present high standing, but shall be enhanced by important and valuable contributions from able Writers.

THE POLITICAL COURSE OF THE WEEKLY PRESS need not be enlarged upon here. Independent, steady and able, it has battled unwaveringly and zealously in defence of THE RIGHTS OF THE PEOPLE against Executive Usurpation and Unfair and tyrannical Legislation; ever declaring and adhering to the doctrine that the POPULAR SOVEREIGNTY constitutes the fundamental basis of our free institutions, and that the intelligence and patriotism of our Citizens will always be preservative of a just, wise and salutary Government. These are the principles to which THE WEEKLY PRESS has been committed, and to these it will adhere.
