COFFEE. - By reason of extensive speculation in the article, coffee has advanced so rapidly in price and deteriorated so wretchedly in quality latterly, that a good article at present is a "luxury" indeed -a luxury in which very many find themselves unable longer to indulge. It has ceased in a great measure to be the like the family silver set, is allowed to circulate only on state occasions. In short, it has riz to the matter of near three shillings per pound, with flattering prospects of a further advancement. Under the circumstances, what are we all to do? lot of ground, with two story frame house We can't quit the Rio, and we mustn't take to Old Rye. Tea, like the thermometer in January, is also high up in the figures, and, besides, is used only by old women and gorillas.
