

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

EBENSBURG AND CRESSON RAILROAD. On and after Monday, November 17, 1862, trains on this road will run as follows:

LEAVE EBENSBURG—At 7.15 A. M., connecting with Mail East and Phil. and Balt. Express West. At 3.00 P. M., connecting with Way Freight West.

LEAVE CRESSON—At 10.35 A. M., or on departure of Mail Train East. At 4.20 P. M., or on departure of Local Freight West. At 9.25 P. M., or on departure of Fast Line West.

TOBACCO—Last week we had something to offer concerning the unprecedented advance in the price of Coffee; this week we clip the following exhibit of a corresponding elevation in the "costivity" of Tobacco from the Hollidaysburg Standard—merely premising the same with the remark that what is true of that locality is true also of this. To wit: "Dealers in Tobacco are about as independent as dealers in cotton goods. Their prices are as stiff as ramrods. Manufacturers of 'fine cut' have put up the price about forty per cent. and cut down the quality of the article in like proportion. This makes an increase of eighty per cent. in the wholesale price of a bad breath and discolored teeth. What is true of tobacco also holds good with cigars. 'Grabs' have disappeared from the market, and 'York county regalias,' that sold for a stilling a dozen, are now worth double that amount. The pleasant fictions sold under fancy names as genuine Havanas make serious holes in the smoker's pocket book. Pulling costs something now, if it never did before."

THANKSGIVING.—To-day, Thursday, 27th, is the day appointed by Governor Curtin as a season of Prayer and Thanksgiving. The various places of business throughout town, we believe, will remain closed throughout the day, and public services be held in the several Churches. Albeit dark days seem to have fallen upon us as a Nation, we still have ample cause for gratitude to the Great All-Giver for His manifold blessings and mercies vouchsafed unto us. In this spirit, and praying that His countenance may be and abide with us, let the day be observed.

COURT.—The December term of our county Courts convenes here on next Monday, 1st proximo. This will afford a charming opportunity for many of our friends to call around and "See the Printer." We will be happy—very happy—to take each of them by the hand, especially if they come prepared to indicate their appreciation of The Alleghenian by paying their subscription thereto. Come one—come all!

CLERK OF THE HOUSE REPS.—We notice that the name of our townsman, M. Hasson, Esq., is being mentioned in connection with the Clerkship of the next Pennsylvania House of Representatives. The "Colonel" is a gentleman of fine attainments—a "talented bugger"—and a good fellow generally, and would make an excellent official. We hope he may make the landing.

DIED: At the residence of Dr. Lowman, in Johnstown, on Monday, 17th inst., of inflammation of the brain, WALTER OGLE HEYER, son of the late Charles Heyer, Esq., deceased, aged 10 years, 2 months and 14 days.

KILLED.—John S. Good, of the 11th Penna. Vols., and formerly of Johnstown, was so seriously wounded in the battle of Antietam that he died shortly thereafter. He was aged about 25 years.

A FACT.—That Dr. Thompson's is the place at which to buy your cigars, tobacco, stationery, notions, etc. Call at the Post Office.

LIST OF LETTERS.—Following is the list of uncalled for letters remaining in the Post Office, at Ebensburg, up to 13th November, 1862:

THE HERO-ENGINEER.—The Cambria Tribune states that Mr. Powell Sharp, the intrepid engineer who, a week since, successfully risked his life to save a train full of passengers from destruction, is a native of this county, and was born and reared in the immediate vicinity of the scene of his exploit. Although his engine was completely demolished in the collision with the descending freight train, we are pleased to say he escaped from the frightful wreck with but a few scratches and a slight injury to one of his arms.

SAD ACCIDENT.—Mr. John C. Ivory, a resident of Clearfield township, this county, was almost instantly killed one day last week by the upsetting upon him of a wagon load of lumber which he was transporting to market.

IMPORTANT QUERE.—What has become of all our local correspondents, who, in times agone, were so assiduous in sending us interesting items of information from their respective neighborhoods? We have failed to hear from the first one of them in this long time. It is our aim to make the Local Department of the paper as reliable and interesting as possible—a department in which the news transpiring throughout the county may be truthfully reflected from week to week; but to do this requires some little assistance from others. We are not exactly ubiquitous, you know—can't be here there and everywhere at one and the same time.—Locals, furthermore, cannot be manufactured out of nothing, and prove "all very good," as our patrons would desire. In view of these and other facts, we would request our friends to continue their favors as of yore. We ought to have at least one correspondent from each and every town and township in the county—should we get more than that number, we hereby pledge ourselves not to grumble. Show your hands, gentlemen, and oblige us accordingly.
