

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

EBENSBURG AND CRESSON RAILROAD. On and after Monday, November 17, 1862, trains on this road will run as follows:

LEAVE EBENSBURG— At 7.15 A. M., connecting with Mail East and Phil. and Balt. Express West. At 3.00 P. M., connecting with Way Freight West. At 7.35 P. M., connecting with Express East and Fast Line West.

THE ADVANCE IN COAL OIL.—The sudden rise in coal oil has been so unexpected, and seemingly so unreasonable, the supply of petroleum being inexhaustible, and the cost of production trifling, that an inquiry into the cause possesses some interest at the present time.

IN TOWN.—First Sergt. Thomas Davis, of Co. C, Capt. Williams, 19th U. S. Infantry, arrived here on Thursday, direct from his regiment, stationed near Nashville, Tenn. He is on detached service, and desires to secure a few men to fill up the decimated ranks of the regiment.

With a supply exhausted, and the refineries once more in full operation, it will be next to impossible for either manufacturers or speculators to maintain the present advanced rates for any long period.

THANKSGIVING.—This holiday passed off quietly with us, and was pretty generally observed. Public services were held in the several churches in the morning, and the various places of business, with but few exceptions, remained closed throughout the day.

THANKS.—The editor of The Alleghenian acknowledges the receipt on Thanksgiving Day of a large and luscious cake—a present from a lady friend. May she live forever!

COURT.—The attendance at Court this week is small, owing mainly to the fact that no business of importance is expected to be transacted.

LIST OF LETTERS.—Following is the list of uncalled-for letters remaining in the Post Office, at Ebensburg, up to 13th November, 1862:

Accident.—We are informed by Conductor Scott that an accident occurred on the railroad near Gallitzin, on Tuesday of last week, by which a man, name unknown, was almost instantly killed. He had taken a seat on the bumper of a freight car at the abovementioned station to ride to Altoona, but on descending the grade leading thereto, the car on which he was sitting became uncoupled from the others, thereby precipitating him to the ground. The wheels of the cars passed over his body, mutilating him horribly, and injuring him so seriously that death ensued in a short time.

THE LAST CHANCE.—Kratzer, the picture-man, requests us to say that the present will be the last week he will be with us in a professional capacity. Those who desire to secure excellent pictures of themselves or friends, therefore, should call on him forthwith. His handiwork is not excelled by the best artists of the large cities. "Seeing is believing"—go and see.

OUR SOLDIERS.—We are without our usual correspondence from our soldiers this week, but learn from private sources that Capt. Jones' company is stationed near Falmouth, Va., while Capt. Burk's company is not far off. They will both probably be "in at the death" of Frederick.

DIRECTORY OF HOSPITALS.—That benevolent institution, the Sanitary Commission, has issued the following circular, by which it will be seen they have widely extended their field of usefulness. The information they profess to be able and willing to give concerning patients in the Washington hospitals may possibly be of great value to those having friends in the army:—

The Sanitary commission have established an office of information in regard to patients in the Hospitals of the District of Columbia, and of Frederick City, Maryland. By reference to books, which are corrected daily, an answer can, under ordinary circumstances, be given by return mail to the following questions:— 1st. Is _____ [giving name and regiment] at present in the hospitals of the District of Frederick City? 2d. If so, what is his proper address? 3d. What is the name of the Surgeon or Chaplain of the hospital? 4th. If not in hospital at present, has he recently been in hospital? 5th. If so, did he die in hospital, and at what date? 6th. If recently discharged from hospital, was he discharged from service? 7th. If no, what were his orders on leaving? The Commission is prepared also to furnish more specific information as to the condition of any patient in the District hospitals, within twenty-four hours after a request to do so, from an officer of any of its corresponding societies.
