

The Alleghanian.

THURSDAY DECEMBER 11

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

EBENSBURG AND CRESSON RAILROAD. On and after Monday, November 17, 1862, trains on this road will run as follows:

LEAVE EBENSBURG—At 7.15 A. M., connecting with Mail East and Phil. and Balt. Express West. At 1.00 P. M., connecting with Emigrant Train West. At 7.35 P. M., connecting with Express East and Fast Line West.

LEAVE CRESSON—At 10.35 A. M., or on departure of Mail Train East. At 2.15 P. M., or on departure of Emigrant Train West. At 8.45 P. M., or on departure of Express East.

LOCAL ETCHINGS.—Up in the figures: fresh butter. All the go again: briar-wood pipes. E. J. Mills & Co., High street, sell all manner of goods "cheaper than the cheapest." Call on them.

Intensely cold: the weather Saturday and Sunday. The figures on the thermometer would hardly do justice to the occasion.

Governor Curtin has appointed a Provost Marshal for every county in the Commonwealth, among the rest Abraham Kopelin, Esq., of Johnstown, for Cambria county.

Our friend, Thomas D. Litzinger, of Co. A, 11th Penna. Reserves, who has been at home for some six weeks past, left to rejoin his regiment last Saturday. Luck go with him!

Corporal Elisha Fultz, Sergt. William A. Leavy and Francis A. Leavy, all of Co. A, 11th Penna. Reserves, have been discharged from service and arrived home. Sergt. Leavy was disabled by a wound received at the battle of Gaines' Hill, while the two others are incapacitated for service by reason of sickness.

A boy named Howarth, of Cherryhill township, Indiana county, was so severely injured a week or so since by a stone being hurled against him by another boy, that he died the following day. This should be a warning to all youngsters who engage in the despicable practice of throwing stones at one another.

We send The Alleghanian gratis to Ministers of the Gospel throughout the county. All the return we ask therefor is, that they furnish us announcements of any marriages at which they may officiate, or of any deaths of which they may have knowledge. Such information may prove of interest to our readers.

Joseph Shoemaker, of Johnstown, who was convicted at the late session of the United States Court, at Pittsburg, for making and passing counterfeit coin, has been sentenced to pay a fine of $100, and undergo an imprisonment of five years in the Western Penitentiary. It is reported that an attempt will be made to procure a pardon for him from the President.

We were favored with a visit on Tuesday from Lieut. John Porter, of Co. A, 55th Pa. Vols., Col. Dick White, stationed near Port Royal, S. C. Lieut. P. has just arrived North from his command, and reports the Cambria boys, as a general thing, in excellent health and spirits when he left. Owing to indisposition, he has been obliged to resign his commission.

Godey's Lady's Book for January is to hand. It is a splendid number—superior, in fact, to anything of the kind we have yet seen. Did it ever occur to our readers that a year's subscription to the Book would be a most excellent and appropriate investment for a gift for a friend or loved one? If not, be convinced of the fact by acting on the suggestion during the coming holidays.

A grey eagle, measuring six feet six inches from tip to tip, and three feet two inches from beak to end of tail, was shot in Frankstown township, Blair county, one day recently. It was in the act of devouring a turkey when shot. So says the Standard. Which leads us to remark, friend Traugh, that this may possibly have been the identical turkey which was to, but didn't, come to hand for your Thanksgiving dinner. Eh?

ON ICE.—Owing to the intense frigidty of the past week, the surface of the various ponds of water in this neighborhood has become pretty effectually solidified, and the boys, per sequence, are having a gay old time of it all to themselves cutting fantastic capers thereupon with their "high" and "low dutchies," etc. Well, it is a healthful, invigorating exercise, is skating, and, taken moderately, will do no one harm. This, of course, is not taking into account the few outrageous thumps and knocks incident to the incipient efforts of "new beginners" and the reckless derring of would-be experts.—Appropos: Why don't the ladies enter more largely into this exhilarating pastime? Skating is all the rage in the cities, and the roseate hues which it imparts to the cheeks of the fair ones, together with the general condition of healthfulness in which it leaves the participants, is more than a recompense for all the efforts required to learn. We vote that they show their agility, &c., in this manner whenever opportunity presents. It would be just the thing—"big thing on ice," in fact—for these dull days.

A TEN CENT STAMP.—Alluding to the decision of Commissioner Boutwell, a contemporary pleasantly observes that it now requires ten cents to legalize the most important contract of a man's life. Without a ten cent stamp affixed, a marriage certificate will be null and void—its recorded vows like ropes of sand. Love hereafter cannot live on the light of Luna. The nectar from roses will not be sufficient for its nourishment. A marriage certificate is no longer a thing divested of the sordid barterings of the merchant. It must have a ten cent stamp pasted in one of its corners, the ten above and the cents below the Hymeneal Altar, where Cupid can make faces as he attempts to decipher and define what to him will be a strange inscription. The marriage certificate and the ten cent stamp are henceforth one and inseparable. To the certificate the stamp must be affixed, when lo! it becomes as binding as adamant, and of a strength which allows no man to put asunder those whom it has bound together. Honor to the ten cent stamp!

NARROW ESCAPE.—One day last week, Mr. Morris Peat, a worthy resident of this place, made a most narrow escape from sudden death. It appears that some butchers were endeavoring to muzzle a huge bull in the outskirts of the town, preparatory to metamorphosing the same into an article of beef, when the animal became maddened at the operation, and "charged" upon Mr. P., who happened to be passing at the moment on horseback. The animal struck the horse full in the side with its horns, inflicting so terrible a wound as to cause the entrails to protrude, and precipitating Mr. P. to the ground. Strange to say, however, it failed to follow up its advantage, and Mr. P. was enabled to get out of the way. He was but slightly bruised, and what might have been a terrible casualty fortunately resulted in something less. The horse, although badly hurt, will probably get well.

A NEEDED IMPROVEMENT.—Our enterprising townsman, Ben F. Williams, we are pleased to notice, has added a Corn Cob Crusher and Flouring Mill to his already extensive Planing Mill, and now holds himself ready to execute at short notice all manner of work pertaining to such an establishment. Like the planer, the new improvements are rotated by steam power, a fact which will in a great measure nullify the difficulty so often experienced here arising from a dearth of water. At the present time, by way of illustration, the mills dependant on our mountain streams for their motive power are doing absolutely nothing. Ben is an energetic, reliable fellow, and we hope to see this new enterprise encouraged by a liberal patronage.

COURT.—The proceedings in the Quarter Sessions last week were mainly of a trivial and uninteresting character.—Young Hartzell, charged with the murder of the Somerset mail-boy near Johnstown, last summer—the particulars of which affair our readers no doubt remember—was acquitted. David Pugh, charged with the larceny of money and papers to the value of some six hundred dollars, the property of Mr. Hugh A. McCoy, was also found "not guilty." The attendance the second week has not been large.

OIL.—Consumers of coal oil will be glad to learn that the article is settling down to a more healthy standard, with flattering prospects of a still further decrease in price. In the language of the Foot—"So mote it be!"

CONEMAUGH, Dec. 9, 1862.

To the Editor of The Alleghanian: I see a request in your paper of a recent date for local correspondents from the different parts of the county, and believing such an arrangement would be of advantage to your excellent sheet, as well as interesting to your numerous readers, I therefore purpose addressing you a few lines occasionally, in order to keep you posted on matters transpiring in this neck of timber. I do this not presuming that you will publish all I may write, but only such extracts therefrom as you may deem sufficiently interesting.

In the first place, I would suggest a slight revision of your Post Office Directory for Cambria county, viz: The Post Office at Benn's Creek has been discontinued. The name of the Post Office at Pershing has been changed to Conemaugh. A. G. Crooks, Esq., appointed P. M. The office is located in Taylor tp.

Local items are unusually scarce just now. More anon. It.
