CHRISTMAS IS COMING!—Bright hopes are gleaming in the eyes of the "little ones"—the rosy cheeks are becoming rosier day by day! There are signs about—gathering and increasing—that the season of gifts and evergreen garlands is at hand.

Christmas is coming! Click! click! goes the pendulum of the clock, and as the moments fly onward, bright festive scenes arise in the distance, and the happy forms in their midst cheer the winter solitude as "anticipation forward points the way."

Christmas is coming! Good things, pretty, bright and pleasant, and too numerous to mention, are coming! The season of joy and high spirits is coming!

E. & C. RR.—Still another schedule sent into effect on our Branch Railroad on Monday. By the new arrangement, the evening train is thrown off altogether—only two trains being now run per diem, one connecting with the Baltimore and Philadelphia Express trains west and the Mail Train east in the morning, and the other with the Emigrant Train west after dinner.

WOOD AND COAL.—The Commissioners of Cambria county advertise that proposals will be received, at the Court House, until the 19th inst., for the delivery at the public buildings of 1,000 bushels of coal and 20 cords of wood.
