

ODDS & ENDS.

To My Mother. Mother, dear mother, I'm thinking of thee, I am thinking of days that are gone...

Orpheus C. Kerr has just issued the following eminently excellent general order, for the purpose of simplifying national strategy to those conservative women of America who, while engaged in the pursuit of happiness as guaranteed by the Constitution...

IX. Did you ever stoop to folly? or is it folly alone that stoops to you? X. Did you ever eat as much as you wanted at dinner, when members of the opposite sex were sitting opposite?

It is also ordered that no female visitor to the celebrated Southern Confederacy shall carry more than eight large trunks and a bonnet-box for each month in the year; and that no female shall pass the line whose dimensions in full dress exceed the ordinary space between two pickets...

A long time ago, in our native county, Elihu B. was detected by his teacher to overlook a class reading a portion of scripture, in a common school.

A little fellow, weeping most piteously, was suddenly interrupted by some amusing occurrence. He hushed his cries for a moment—the train of thought was broken. "Ma," said he, renewing his snuffle, and wishing to have his cry out, "Ma, what was I crying about just now?"

Works, and not words, are the proof of love.

A CARD.—Women's Bazaar. Lancaster Tp, July 30, 1860. MESSRS. EVANS AND WATSON: GENTLEMEN—The small size No. 1 Salamander safe which I purchased from your agent, Mr. Adam R. Barr, in Lancaster City, on July 20th, 1859, has been subjected to a very severe test, which it withstood in a most satisfactory manner. This safe, containing all my books together with valuable papers belonging to myself and some to my neighbors and friends, and representing a value of over Twenty Thousand Dollars, ($20,000) was in my Mill which was destroyed on the night of the 27th of July, 1860, and passed through the fiery ordeal unscathed. The safe was on the second floor and fell to the basement of the Mill, and was subjected for six hours to an intense heat among the ruins, which was greatly increased by the combustion of a large quantity of grain confined within the brick walls. After the fire the safe was opened and the books and papers taken out in a state of perfect preservation, the paper not even being discolored. This fact was, however, to many bystanders a better recommendation of your safe than any other could be. I would therefore respectfully recommend your safe to all those who are in need of one. Yours respectfully, SAMUEL HANCK.

A large assortment of the above quality of Fire and Thief Proof Safes always on hand and for sale at as low rates as any other firm, at EVANS & WATSON'S, No. 15 South Fourth st., Philadelphia.

Law of Newspapers. 1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary, are considered as wishing to continue their subscription. 2. If subscribers order the discontinuance of their periodicals, the Publisher may continue to send them until all arrearages are paid. 3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their periodicals from the offices to which they are directed, they are held responsible until they are settled the bill and ordered them discontinued. 4. If subscribers remove to other places without informing the publishers, and their papers are sent to the former direction, they are held responsible. 5. The Courts have decided, that sending to take periodicals from the office or repository and leaving them uncalled for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

THE WEEKLY PRESS. THE WEEKLY PRESS has been established on a secure and permanent foundation; but it is, in reality, a marvellous example of the force of favor which a rightly-conducted LIBERAL, POLITICAL AND NEWS JOURNAL can receive at the hands of a liberal and enlightened Public.

The general features of the Paper, in addition to its POLITICAL AND NEWS DEPARTMENT, will be PORTENTOUS SKETCHES, HUMOROUS AND ORIGINAL AND SELECTED TALES chosen for their lessons of Life, illustrations of History, depiction of Manners, and general merit, and adapted, in their variety, to the tastes of both sexes and all ages.

THE LITERARY CHARACTER OF THE WEEKLY PRESS, now universally acknowledged to be of an elevated stamp, shall not only maintain its present high position, but shall be enhanced by important and valuable contributions from able writers.

THE POLITICAL COURSE OF THE WEEKLY PRESS need not be enlarged upon here. Independent, steady and fearless, it has battled unwaveringly and successfully in defence of THE RIGHTS OF THE PEOPLE, and in opposition to Executive usurpation and their and Parliamentary legislation; ever declaring and adhering to the doctrine of POPULAR SOVEREIGNTY, and its fundamental basis of our free institutions; and that the intelligence and patriotism of our Citizens will always be preservative of a just, wise and salutary Government. These are the principles to which THE WEEKLY PRESS has been committed, and to these it will adhere.
