LETTER FROM CO. F, 133D PENNA. VOLS.—VARIOUS ITEMS OF INTEREST.

NEAR STONEMAN'S SWITCH, VA., February 22, 1863.

Correspondence of The Alleghanian.

A great many items worthy of note have transpired since I wrote you last, prominent among which I may mention Burnside's defeat by the elements, our removal to a new camp, etc., etc. We were participants in the former grand fizzle. They marched us about eight miles up the Rappahannock, when the flood-gates of heaven were opened and the rain commenced to pour down upon us. I went to bed that night, as usual, and next morning on awakening I could have almost sworn it had been raining mud all night! It was an utter impossibility to proceed further, consequently preparations were at once made for a retrograde movement. We were all obliged to fall to and construct a corduroy road, so as to enable the artillery and transportation wagons to return, in which work we were engaged for two days. We then returned to our old camp.

Ten days ago we received orders to pack knapsacks and proceed to our new camp, two miles nearer Falmouth. The whole regiment have built comfortable quarters, and are now receiving better attentions than ever since "Fighting Joe Hooker" has assumed command. We have fresh bread three times a week—a luxury greatly needed by the boys.

Our paymaster, Major Taylor, paid us a welcome visit the other day, distributing to each member $36.40. He promised to call again in a few days, to settle two months further of our pay, which operation will square our account with Uncle Samuel up to the 31st December.

Our Colonel, F. B. Speakman, has left camp on account of sickness. Lieut.-Col. McCartney commands in his stead. The latter has been with us only a short time, but I assure you the brief acquaintance existing has already developed itself in a flame of never-dying friendship on both sides.

The Quartermaster of the regiment, J. B. Castner, has resigned on account of ill health. He was a good man and kind friend, and we were loth to lose him. O. N. Ramsey, formerly Quartermaster's Sergeant, has been appointed to succeed him.

An election was held in our company last week for commissioned officers, to fill the vacancies caused by the ravages of war. The result was as follows: Captain, Francis M. Flanagan, elected without opposition; First Lieutenant, Samuel W. Davis; Second Lieutenant, John O. Evans. They will all prove worthy and efficient officers.

During a recent visit to Washington, I called to see my friends in Co. A, 11th Reserves, encamped at present on Minor's Hill, four miles above Georgetown. Their measure of fame is full; their deeds will live upon the pages of history when the tombs that mark their last resting places shall be moth-grown and obliterated by the hand of time. The general health of the company was good.

In this connection, I deem it a mere act of justice to return my thanks to A. J. Rhey, Esq., of Washington city, but formerly of Ebensburg, for the many little kindnesses he has showered upon our company since our debut on the "sacred soil." Cambria has given birth to many excellent sons, but none better than Jack Rhey. Kind, courteous, generous and chivalric—a true and tried friend of the soldier—a man in every attribute of the word—may he live forever!

Our company enjoys excellent health and spirits. E. R. W.

—See fourth page of this paper for the list of Grand and Traverse Jurors drawn to serve at March term of our county Courts, 1863, for the copy of which we are indebted to the courtesy of our friend, Mr. John H. Evans.

—In Wilmore borough, the late municipal canvass resulted in the triumphant election of the entire Republican ticket save one candidate.

PERSONAL.—Lieut. R. M. Jones, of Co. A, 11th Penna. Reserves, is here at home on furlough. He was wounded at the second battle of Bull Run, last August, since which time he has languished in a hospital at Washington. We are rejoiced to learn that he is recovering, slowly but surely, and will doubtless ultimately be enabled to regain his wonted health and strength. Success to him.

Sergt. John N. Evans, of Co. F, 133d Penna. Vols., has arrived home, he having been honorably discharged from the service by reason of physical disability. He was slightly wounded at the battle of Fredericksburg, since which time he has been suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism. He looks somewhat bleached as to personal appearance, but in other respects is as "good as new."

Robert E. and David Jones, resident in Cambria township, the former a member of the 12th U. S. Infantry and the latter of the 145th Penna. Vols., have each received an honorable discharge and come home. Robert was wounded in the hand at the battle of Malvern Hill, from the effects of which he was so unfortunate as to lose his right index finger. They look as if soldiering had agreed with them.

Capt. James C. Burke, of Co. A, 11th Reserves, is now in town on brief leave of absence from his command. He looks "fine as silk," and appears to bear the burdens of military life bravely. There are few better men in this world than the Captain.

Ellis R. Williams, of Co. F, 133d, was here on brief furlough during the week. Those "boxes" we spoke about last week as having been sent hence to the boys were taken safely to their destination by Ellis. He returned on Tuesday. A good boy is "E. R. W."

Joseph Owens, of Co. A, 11th Reserves, is also at home on furlough. He complains of excellent health, and reports the balance of his comrades, what is left of them, in the same enviable condition.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.—On Friday evening last, at about midnight, the extensive planing mill establishment of Mr. Ben F. Williams, in the western end of town, by some means caught fire, and in a short time was reduced to a smoldering mass of ruins. When discovered, the flames had made such headway that any attempt to stay their ravages would have been utterly futile; so the many spectators were obliged to stand idly by and see the property of an enterprising and respected citizen resolve itself into nothingness. We are assured there had been no fire inside the establishment for one week preceding the casualty. From this, it would be safe to infer that the fire was the work of that vilest of all vile beings, the incendiary.

Besides the planing apparatus, the mill also contained a flouring-mill and corn-cob crusher, rotated by steam, both of which were destroyed. Carpenter tools to the value of about $200, the property of Mr. Thomas Rodgers, also fed the flames. Mr. Williams' loss is estimated at $5,000—insured for $3,000 in the West Branch Insurance Company, of Lock Haven, Penna.

LIEUT. F. M. FLANAGAN.—By reference to the letter of our army correspondent, "E. R. W.," printed on this page, it will be seen that Lieut. Francis M. Flanagan has been elected Captain of Co. F, 133d Penna. Vols., by a unanimous vote. He formerly held the position of Second Lieutenant in this company, with the circumstances attendant upon his resignation of which our readers are familiar. This is a handsome compliment to a deserving man—a compliment that will only be the more appreciated because unasked for. Lieut. F. stands high in the respect and esteem of his comrades, and he has shown himself worthy all the confidence they may repose in him. Co. F has won an enviable name and fame for heroism and endurance, and, under the leadership of Capt. Flanagan, its future history will decorate as bright a page as its past. We congratulate all hands on the happy result of the issue.

—We notice that the borough authorities have had the foot walk from the Academy to the Railroad Depot laid in tan-bark. Inasmuch as this somewhat extensively traveled thoroughfare has hitherto boasted of a surface formation of nothing but mud—deeply, darkly, beautifully muddy mud,—we are at a loss for words to express our gratitude. However, thanks to whom thanks are due, and may the next heavy rain storm fall most effectually in precipitating the entire tan-bark fabric to the bottom of the hill the sides of which it now adorns—as many conversant with the laws of gravitation are of opinion!

BOROUGH ELECTION.—The election of officers for the municipality of Ebensburg came off on Friday last. No excitement whatsoever was manifested in the premises—indeed we do not remember to have ever seen an affair of the kind pass off quieter and with less flow of "spirits."—Following are the names of those who succeeded in making the landing:

- BOROUGH AT LARGE. Burgess—James Myers. School Directors—Abel Lloyd, Phil E. Noon, Joshua D. Parrish. EAST WARD. Constable—Evan E. Evans. Town Council—John J. Evans, Thomas J. Davis, John W. Roberts, John Thompson, D. J. Jones. Inspectors—William D. Davis, L. Rodgers. Judge of Election—Daniel J. Davis. Assessor—Lemuel Davis. WEST WARD. Constable—M. M. O'Neill. Town Council—R. S. Bunn, Edward Glass, John A. Blair, John D. Thomas, George W. Ostman. Inspectors—William Barnes, Jno. H. Evans. Judge of Election—Michael Hasson. Assessor—George Gurley.

TWO MORE CAMBRIA SOLDIERS DEAD.—We are grieved to have to announce the death in Richmond prison of two more of Cambria's brave sons—Sergt. William W. Evans, of Co. A, 11th Pa. Reserves, and Benjamin Davis, of Co. C, 19th Regular Infantry. The former was wounded in the thigh at the battle of Fredericksburg, where he fought long and valiantly; the latter on the hotly contested field of Murfreesboro—both falling into the hands of the enemy. Sergt. Evans was a resident of this place, and leaves a widowed mother and several brothers and sisters to mourn his untimely loss. Young Davis lived in Cambria township.

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT.—On Saturday last, a man named M'Combie, resident in the northern section of this county, met with sudden death under the following circumstances: He was coming to town, with a wagon-load of lumber, by way of the Ebensburg and Susquehanna Plank Road. When some four miles out, near Mr. Morris Jones' farm, the wagon ran over an embankment, precipitating him from the top of the load and overturning the lumber upon him. He was terribly bruised, and survived but a few minutes. The deceased was aged about 19 years.

"A LETTER HAS COME!"—On to-day's outside we print a very funny select sketch of a Southwestern Post-Office, bearing the above title, in which, owing to an erroneous "make-up," an unfortunate error occurred. Those who read the story will notice an omission of several words in the fourth column. They are as follows: "Thank God! you've come in time to find them alive to hear you say this—confounded letter is for," etc.

—We have received a lengthy communication concerning an exhibition held by the scholars of a school in Cambria township, taught by Mr. Richard W. Pryce during the past winter, for all of which we cannot find room. The substance of it, however, is, that the exhibition was a very nice thing, and that the scholars, under the admirable tuition of their preceptor, acquitted themselves creditably. We are glad to hear it.

—The eulogy of R. L. Johnston, Esq., delivered on Monday eve, to the memory of Major George W. Todd, Richard M. Jones, and others of Cambria's noble sons who have fallen by the bullets of Traitors, was a glowing tribute to departed worth. He did entire justice to the subject, and was listened to with marked attention by a large audience.

THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE.

---1863.--- The New York Tribune first issued in 1841, now in its twenty-second year, has obtained both a larger and a more widely diffused circulation than any other newspaper ever published in America. Though it has suffered, common with other journals, from the volunteering and departure of tens of thousands of its patrons to serve in the War for the Union, its circulation on this 6th day of December, 1862, is as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Category and Circulation. Daily: 50,125; Semi-Weekly: 17,250; Weekly: 148,000; Aggregate: 215,375.

Pre-eminently a journal of News and of Literature, The Tribune has political convictions which are well characterized by the single word REPUBLICAN. It is Republican in its hearty adhesion to the great truth that "God has made of one blood all nations of men"—Republican in its assertion of the equal and inalienable rights of all men to "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness"—Republican in its steadfast, earnest, defiant hostility to every scheme and effort of the Slave Power, from the Annexation of Texas to the great Rebellion, to grasp the empire of the New World and wield the resources of our country for its own aggrandizement—Republican in its antagonism to the aristocrats and despots of the Old World, who fondly hail in the perils and calamities suddenly thrust upon us by their American counterpart the overthrow and ruin of the Model Republic—Republican in its hope and trust, its faith and effort, that this atrocious Rebellion must result in the signal overthrow of its plotters, and the firm establishment of equal rights and equal laws throughout the whole extent of our country, wherein Liberty and Union shall indeed be "one and inseparable" henceforth and forever.

The Tribune devotes attention in calendar times, and to some extent in these, to Education, Temperance, Agriculture, Invention, and whatever else may minister to the spiritual and material progress and well-being of mankind; but for the present its energies and its columns are mainly devoted to the invigoration and success of the War for the Union. Its special correspondents accompany every considerable army and report every important incident of that great struggle which we trust is soon to result in the signal and conclusive triumph of the National arms and in the restoration of Peace and Thrift to our distracted, bleeding country. We believe that no other-wise can a fuller or more accurate view of the progress and character of this momentous conflict be obtained than through the regular perusal of our columns. And we earnestly solicit the co-operation of all friends of the National cause, which we regard and uphold as that of Universal Humanity, to aid us in extending its circulation.

TERMS.—The enormous increase in the price of printing paper and other materials used in printing newspapers, compels us to increase the price of The Tribune. Our new terms are:

Table with 2 columns: Subscription Type and Price. Single Copy: 8 cents; Mail Subscribers, one year (311 issues): $8; SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE: One Copy, one year (104 issues): $3; Two Copies, one year: $5; Five Copies, one year: $12; Ten Copies, one year: $22 50; WEEKLY TRIBUNE: One Copy, one year (52 issues): $2; Three Copies, one year: $5; Five Copies, one year: $8; Ten Copies, one year: $15; Any larger number, addressed to names of subscribers, $1 50 each. An extra copy will be sent to every club of ten.

Twenty copies, to one address, one year, $15, and any larger number at same price.—An extra copy will be sent to clubs of ten copies. To clubs of thirty, the SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE will be sent. To clubs of fifty, THE DAILY TRIBUNE will be sent gratis.

Address THE TRIBUNE, Tribune Buildings, New York.

When drafts can be procured, it is much safer than to remit Bank Bills. The name of the Post Office and State should in all cases be plainly written.

Subscribers who send money by Express must prepay the Express charges, else it will be deducted from the remittance.
