LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

EBENSBURG AND CRESSON RAILROAD. -On and after Monday, December 22, 1862, trains on this road will run as follows : LEAVE EBENSBURG-

At 7.00 A. M., connecting with Mail East and Phil. and Balt. Express West. At 7.30 P. M., connecting with Express East and Fast Line West. LEAVE CRESSON-

At 10.35 A. M., or on departure of Mail Train East. At 9.35 P. M., or on departure of Fast Line

ENOCH LEWIS, Gen. Supt.

From Our Volunteers. LETTER FROM CO. F. 133D PENNA. VOLS .- THE APPOINTMENT OF OFFICERS, &c., &c.

NEAR STONEMAN'S SWITCH, VA., March 7, 1863. Correspondence of The Alleghanian.

Nothing worthy of record has transpired since my last letter. The dull routine to vary the monotony and cause a little last for all coming time. pleasurable excitement. The past few done before a great while.

heart, of Co. B. He did his duty by us faithfully.

was also promulgated at the same time, now in possession of the troops. Does this mean a forward movement?

by Lemuel Davis and David N. Evans, of Ebensburg. They were welcome as the early flowers of spring.

The boys are all well.

Snow .- During the present week, we have been enjoying most excellent sleighthe present winter, probably. The snow indications as we write of speedy departure. Farmers with lumber to "get out," those who have been awaiting a favorable opportunity to fill their ice-houses, gay and festive youth and beauty, and possessors of specimens of the equine genus generally, are going it extravagantly and to the best of their ability. In as much as this will most likely be the last wag of the hammer considered in reference to sleighing,-for the matter of a twelvemonth, we mean,-all we have to say is, "Go it!" With or without gloves, in How now we glide o'er the whitening crest, care flitting far from our blest, etc. And enough said.

P. S.: Should any of our readers become impressed with the opinion that it devolves upon him, as a whole souled, good fellow, to tender us an invitation to occupy a seat in his sleigh some of these first fine evenings, we pledge ourself to receive his proposal kindly. Office hours from 8 A. M. to 6 P. M. Call earlyand often!

attendance throughout.

is light, and it is supposed Court will ad- - Holl. Register. journ sine die to-day. But few strangers are in town.

ones store.

OBITUARY. - In the list of jewels which offer up during the present war as a sacri- of Richard M. Jones, a member of Co. F, fice to our outraged nationality, the name of Sergt. WILLIAM W. Evans occupies a | battle of Fredericksburg : conspicuous and brilliant position. Edu cated and intelligent-with a mind well and chivalrie-his future was seemingly bright and glowing. No braver or better spirit ever buckled on the panoply of justice and went forth to dare Traitors to the issue than he; none nobler died in defence of the principles he had esponsed. In the early morning of life, ere his manly aspirations and dreams of worldly greatness had been nearly achieved, out from this tempestuous world of turmoil and trouble, he is gone! It were useless to attempt to draw a parallel of his beautiful life, for his history is already written in the hearts of those who knew him but to love him. He is gone !- and we drop a silent tear to his memory, and encircle of camp life still continues, with nothing his name with a halo of glory which will

Sergt. Evans was born in Ebensburg, days of good weather, however, have told and was about 22 years of age at the peconsiderably on the muddy roads, and this riod of his death. His widowed mother, is a sure indication that something will be brothers and sisters still reside here. On the breaking out of the Rebellion, he was The election held by the members of among the first to enrol his name in the our company for commissioned officers, of "Cambria Guards" for three years or duwhich I made mention in a former letter, ring the war. He went out as a common will not amount to anything. Col. Speak- | soldier, but such was his worth and persoman has since made other appointments nal popularity that he was speedily pro--Sergt. John O. Evans for Captain, and moted to a Corporalship, and, subsequent-Orderly Sergeant James J. Will for First ly, to a Sergeantship. He served with Lieutenant. Sergt. Evans is an excellent distinction during the entire campaign of young man, and deservedly popular with his company up to the battle of Gaines' the company. He will make a first-class Hill, before Richmond, where he was slightly wounded. On this occasion, he Since the 30th of January, we have fell into the hands of the Rebels, and been commanded by Lieut. J. H. Len- underwent a captivity of some five or six

At the battle of Fredericksburg, after Col. Speakman has returned to the fighting long and gallantly, he was severeregiment, he having fully recovered from | ly wounded in the thigh. Here, again, alway. he fell into the hands of the enemy, and An order was read on dress parade last | nothing whatever was heard of him until, evening, directing all furloughed men to three or four weeks since, a letter written return to their regiments immediately, by himself was received by his friends and prohibiting the granting of leave of here, stating that he was wounded and a absence to any for the present. An order prisoner, but recovering as rapidly as cincumstances would admit, and expressing inquiring as to the amount of ammunition | the belief that lie would be exchanged and sent to Washington shortly. Alas! his hopes were destined to be crushed in We were visited during the past week | darkness; for the next news heard of him was the announcement of his death in Libby Prison, Richmond, January 28th Away from friends and home-from all he held most dear-he yielded his life on the altar of his country, and went forth to claim the reward due those of whom it can be truly said, "Well done!" All ing-the best we have been favored with that was mortal of him fills an unknown grave beneath the sanguinary soil of the lies to the depth of fully a foot, with no Old Dominion; but-happy thought !although his presence has gone out from us, his influence remains forever.

"They never fail who die In a great cause: the block may soak their Their heads may sodden in the sun; their Be strung to city gates and eastle walls-

But still their spirit walks abroad." By profession Sergt. Evans was a printer, in which capacity he imbibed a partiality for reading and composition. For a long time after his connection with the army, he acted as war correspondent for extenso, and four beats to the measure - the signatures of "W." and "E," were affectionate disposition, cheerful and buoyant-the life and light of his immediate and he was otherwise terribly mangled created, both at home and in his company, which can never be filled.

May be rest in peace!

Dien: On Monday, Feb. 9, 1863, at the General Hospital, on Bedloe's Island, Au-GUSTINE G. MCATEER, of Company G. 12th Pa. Cavalry, aged 19 years.

The deceased was a resident of Loretto, COURT .- The proceedings in the Quar- Cambria county, which place he left on ter Sessions last week were generally of a January 1, 1862, under Capt. Hartman. trivial and unimportant character. Ben- The company were quartered in Camp jamin Rodgers, indicted for the larceny McReynolds, near Philadelphia, until May of a silver watch valued at $30.00, the when they moved to Manassas Junction, has gone back to his regiment. property of James Clifford, was found where they remained, until McClellan guilty, and is now in jail awaiting sen- retired from the Peninsula. The 12th tence. In the case of the Commonwealth Cavalry then fell back to Alexandria, zs. eight little boys, charged with robbing where Augustine took sick on the 11th of the till of a store in Johnstown, the de- September. He was taken to Mt. Pleasfendants were all found not guilty. The aut Hospital, Washington, where he Johnstown nigger riot affair was held over remained until the battle of Fredericksantil next term. Court adjourned Friday burg, when he was removed to Bedioe's cening, after having had a respectable Island. The deceased was much leved by his companions, both at home and in the This week, we understand, the business field, who deeply mourn a comrade gone.

-It gives us pleasure to learn that our jovial friend, Brotherline, of the Holli--For good segars, go to Tudor & dayshurg Whig, has been appointed a paymaster in the Army. Success.

RICHARD M. JONES, DEC'D .- Follow-Cambria county has been called upon to ing is a tribute of respect to the memory 133d Penna. Vols., who was killed at the

HIGHLAND LODGE No. 428 I. O. OF O. F., EBENSBURG, Feby. 25, 1863. Whereas, The melancholy auty devolves stored with useful knowledge-high-toned | upon us to announce to this Lodge the decease of our much beloved brother, Richard M. Jones: Brother Jones fell at the battle in front of Fredericksburg, Va., on the 13th day of December last-he fell like a brave man, with his front to the foe-he fell alongside many of his noble comrades, who were each moment lessening under a fierce and overwhelming attack of an outnumbering enemy -he fell with these words upon his lips, "If I die this day, I die happy:" Brother Joues was a warm and generous member of our Order; he was of a fine and commanding appearance; intellect, frankness and generosity were stamped upon his features; his smiles were cheerful, his manners genial, nor did the outward appearance belie the man-he was what he seemed to be: Therefore,

Be it Resolved. That the loss of our deceased Brother will be a source of regret, and will be deeply felt by our Lodge. Resolved, That we clothe our Lodge in mourning for the space of thirty days, in memory of our deceased Brother.

Resolved, That the above Preamble and Resolutions be published in the two newspapers in Elensburg, and a copy of the same be forwarded to the parents of our deceased

GEO. W. WISEGARVER, GEORGE C K. ZAHM, C. T. Roberts, Committee.

MEMORANDUM .- During a recent visit to that flourishing burg, Altoona, we called to see our particular friend, Hen. M'Pike, formerly editor of the Johnstown Echo, but now engaged in the mercantile business as partner in the firm of Murphy & M'Pike. We found him looking "fine as silk," and joyial and buoyant as of old -His firm, we are rejoiced to learn, is doing an excellent business, and stands ple of Altoona. Being a printer himself, it would come quite natural for us to give his establishment a "puff;" but such proceeding were unnecessary on our part, for they are now doing as large a business. as himself and two clerks can conveniently attend to. However, success attend him for its own aggrandizement-Republican in NEW PAPER.-We have received the first number of the new Johnstown paper -The Democrat-published by Mr. Jas. F. Campbell. It is neatly gotten up, and on its editorial columns. We are sorry to notice, however, that it professes to have "no faith in Abraham Lincoln, none in Congress, and none in the men of the Republican party who are now ruining the country," et cetera, et cetera, too numerous to mention. This betokens that the editor, in common with a certain class of his party, is badly "disaffected," or else that he is a believer in the doctrine of total depravity. Pecuniarily speaking, we wish the new enterprise success; politically-well, no, not any, thank ye !

NEW Goods .- E. J. Mills & Co, at their store on High street, have just received a large and unrivalled stock of spring goods, all of which they hold themselves in readiness to dispense to the Ebensburghian public at reasonable prices. The firm of E. J. Mills & Co. is a reliable one; their clerks are gentlemen and scholars; their store is a marvel of good taste and judgment, while the contents in the shape of merchandize will speak for themselves. Go and see!

KILLED - A miner named Patrick The Alleghanian, and his letters, under Jones, was killed, on Saturday afternoon last, in one of the Cambria Iron Company's much admired for their terseness, vigor | Coal Mines, by the premature discharge and descriptive power. He was of a kind, of a blast. The unfortuate man's head was almost entirely blown from his body, circle. By his death a vacuum has been He leaves a wife and four small children without aid or protection Several others of the workmen were more or less injured. So says the Johnstown Tribune.

> PERSONAL -- David Pryce, of Co. F. 133d Penna. Vols., was at home on furlough for several days recently, returning on Sunday. He looked well.

Sergt. Wm. C. Barbour, of the 11tl Pa. Cavalry, was in town during the beginning of the present week.

Capt. Bucke, of Co. A; 11th Reserves,

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE. On Sunday mor ning last, about 5 o'clock, the saw-mill and coalmill of Mr. Jesse Woodcock, at | DOORS, and MOULDINGS-Hemlock, this county, was discovered to be on fire, and in a short time was burnt to the ground. Loss about $2,000, and no insurance.

FIRE.-On Saturday last, during his absence from home, the dwelling-house of Martin Curtrouff, in Chest township, this county, together with all its contents, was destroyed by fire. Nothing whatever was saved excepting the clothing worn by the family at the time of the occurrence.

Ber Bee new advertisements.

Clair Sts.

The largest Commercial School of the United States, with a patronage of nearly 3.660 Students, in five years, from 31 STATES. and the only one which affords complete and reliable instruction in all the following branches, viz. Mercantile, Manufacturers, Steom Boat, Ruil

Road & Bank Book-Keeping. FIRST PREMIUM. Plain and Ornamental ennmanship; als Surveying, Engineering, and Mathematics

generally. $35.00 Pays for a Commercial Course; Students enter and review at any time. MEN' MINISTERS' SONS' tution at half-For Catalogue of 86 pages, Specimens of Business and Ornamental Penamanship, an a beautiful College view of 8 square feet, coutaining a great variety of Writing, Lettering and Flourishing, inclose 24 cents in ttamps to JENKINS & SMITH.

April 24, 1862, ly-. Pittsburg, Pa-THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE.

---1863.---The New York Tribune first issued in 1841 now in its twenty-second year, has obtained both a larger and a more widely diffused circulation than any other newspaper ever pubished in America Though it has suffered, common with other journals, from the volunteering and departure of tens of thousands of its patrons to serve in the War for the Union, its circulation on this 6th day of December, 1862, is as follows:

Daily, Semi Weekly, 17,250 148,000

215,375 Pre-eminently a journal of News and of Literature. The Tribune has political convictions which are well characterized by the single word REPUBLICAN. It is Republican in its high in the estimation of the honest peo- hearty adhesion to the great truth that "God has made of one blood all nations of men"-Republican in its assertion of the equal and inalienable rights of all men to "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness"-Republican in its stendfast, earnest, defiant hostility to every scheme and effort of the Slave Power. from the Annexation of Texas to the great Rebellion, to grasp the empire of the New World and wield the resources of our country its antagonism to the aristocrats and despots of the Old World, who fondly hail in the perils and calamities suddenly thrust upon us by their American counterpart the overthrow and ruin of the Model Republic-Republican in its hope and trust, its faith and effort, that this atrocious Rebellion must result in the signal overthrow of its pletters, and the firm establishment of equal rights and equal laws bears evidence of talent being employed | throughout the whole extent of our country. wherein Liberty and Union shall indeed be one and inseparable" henceforth and forever. The Tribune levotes attention in calmer imes, and to some extent in these, to Educaion, Temperance, Agriculture, Invention, and whatever else may minister to the spiritual and material progress and well-being of manaind; but for the present its energies and its columns are mainly devoted to the invigoration and success of the War for the Union. ts special correspondents accompany every onsiderable army and report every important incident of that great struggle which we trust s soon to result in the signal and conclusive riumph of the National arms and in the restoration of Peace and Thrift to our distracted oleeding country. We believe that no otherwise can a fuller or more accurate view of the progress and caaracter of this momentous conflict be obtained than through the regular perusal of our columns, And we carnestly olicit the co-operation of all friends of the National cause, which we regard and uphold as that of Universal Humanity, to aid us in extending its circulation. TERMS :- The enormous increase in the price of printing paper and other materials ised in printing newspapers, compels us to ncrease the price of The Tribune. Our new

Single Copy Mail Subscribers, one year, (31! issues,) Se

SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE. One Copy, one year, (104 issues,) Two Copies, one year, Five Copies, one year, Ten Copies, one year, WEEKLY TRIBUNE.

One Copy, one year, (52 issues,) Three Copies, one year, Five Copies, one year, Ten Copies, one year. Any larger number, addressed to names of ubscribers, $1 50 each. An extra copy will sent to every club of ten. Twenty copies, to one address, one year, 15, and any larger number at same price .extra copy will be sent to clubs of twen-To clubs of thirty, THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE will be sent. To clubs of fifty THE DAILY TRIBUNE will be sent gratis.

THE TRIBUNE. Tribune Buildings New York. When drafts can be procured, it is much safer than to remit Bank Bills. The ame of the Post Office and State should in di cases be plainly written.

Subscribers who send money by Express must prepay the Express charges, else it will be deducted from the remittance.

HE UNION-RIGHT OR WRONG! UNION PLANING MILL,

he subscriber begs leave to inform the Public that he is prepared to furnish, on short notice and on reasonable terms, all nanner of WORKED LUMBER, SASH AND All work warranted to give entire satisfac-ion, otherwise no charges will be made. Orders from a distance solicited; and filled with pomptness and dispatch.

Rough Lamber taken in exchange for NO CHARGE FOR SHOWING GOODS." B. F. WILLIAMS. Worked Lumber. Ebensburg, Jan. 30, 1862-tf.

A SSESSOR'S NOTICE -Persons having monthly returns of Manufactures, Slaughtered Animals, Liquors. Beer, Ale, Coal, &c., to make under the U. S. Revenue Law, in the Divisions recently in charge of Joseph Miller, Timothy R. Davis, G W. Strohecker, James Conrad and Pet r M'Coy, are requested to make them to Newton 1. Roberts, as he is now authorized to receive NEWTOX I. ROBERTS. Ebensburg, Feb. 12, 1863.

THE VERY LATEST ARRIVAL

Per Railroad!!

EBENSBURG

"Quick Sales

Small Profits.

A. A. BARKER,

EBENSBURG, PA.

THE SUBSCRIBER would respectfully announce to the citizens of Ebensburg and And, in fact, anything and everything usually vicinity that he has just received. ta hi kept in a No. 1 Country Store-all of which store, on High street, the largest and most | will be disposed of at prices to suit the times. complete assortment of ever before brought to this county, all or which he is determined to sell cheaper than the cheapent.

WINTER GOODS.

> DRY GOODS. In endless variety.

DRESS GOODS, Of every description

WOOLLEN GOODS, A full and complete assortment.

WHITE GOODS. Embracing all the latest styles.

EMBROIDERIES. Handsome and of the best quality.

HOUSEKEEPING GOODS, Of all sorts, sizes, widths and prices.

HOOP SKIRTS AND BALMORALS, The latest and best styles.

READY-MADE CLDTHING, A better and cheaper article than ever before offered to this community.

> BOOTS AND SHOES, Of the very best workmanship.

TIATS AND CAPS. Fashionable and of durable material.

MILLINERY GOODS AND NOTIONS

HOSIERY AND GLOVES.

BUFFALO ROBES.

Hardware, Queensware, Groceries, Flour, Bucon Cheese, Syrups, Molasses, Mackerel, Herring and Cod Fish, Iron and Nails, Cedar and Willow Ware, Drugs and Medicines, Carbon and Fish Oil, etc., etc., etc.

These, and many other descriptions of Goods, too numerous to here mention, con-

Not to mince matters, he keeps a FIRST CLASS COUNTRY STORE, where anything or everything a person may need or desire can be obtained.

By buying a large stock at a time, and paying for the same almost entirely in Cash, the change for Country Produce. subscriber is enabled to sell considerably cheaper than other dealers in this community. To be convinced of the truth of this assertion you need only call and examine his Schedule

Customers will be waited upon by accommodating Salesmen.

The Public is requested to roll in-the more the merrier-and secure Pargains.

A. A. BARKER.

The subscriber takes pleasure in calling the attention of the citizens of CARROLL. TOWN and vicinity to the fact that he had just received, and is now opening, at the old stand of Moore & Son, a large and tarled stock of Bry Goods, consisting in part of Satins, Veltets, Cloths, Cassimeres Doeskins, Sattinetts, Tweeds, Jeans, Tickings, Flannels, Brown & Bleached

Muslins. &c DRESS GOODS of every style. Together with an excellent stock of BOOTS, SHOES,

BONNETS, STATIONARY,

· HATS, CAPS,

HARDWARE, GROCERIES,

FISH, SALT, TRUNKS,

CARPET-SACKS, QUEENSWARE, NOTIONS, &c. &c. &c.

CALL AND EXAMINE GOODS! Customers waited on by attentive Sales-men, and no charge for showing articles. Ber Cherry, Poplar, Spruce, Pine, and other Lumber, Butter, Eggs, and Country Produce generally, taken in exchange for A. A. BARKER. May 29, 1862-tf

TEW CHEAP CASH STORE!!!-

E. J. MILLS & CO. beg leave to announce to the citizens of Ebensburg and vicinity that they have just received, at their new store room, on High street, a most complete assort-

Spring and Summer Goods, consisting in part of the following articles: Dress Goods, Millinery Goods, Plain and Fancy Silks, Embroideries, Housekeeping Goods, Gloves, Hosiery, Shawls, Laces, and so on, ad infinitum.

ALSO:-

Boots and Shoes, Hais, Caps, Bonnets, Groceries, Hardwafe; Queensware, Notions, Perfumery, Stationery, Flour, Bacon, Cheese, Mackerel, Herring and Cod Fish, Syrups and Mclasses, Iron and Nails, Glass, Salt, Oils, WOOD AND WILLOW WARE, &c., &c., &c.

In short-not to dip further into tedious details-they intend keeping A NUMBER ONE STORE; Where the comfort and convenience of a country community can be successfuly ca-

By buying a large stock at a time, they are enabled to sell their goods at a TRIFLING ADVANCE ON CITY PRICES. Roll in and see for yourselves. No charge for showing articles.

Country Produce taken in exchange Ebensburg, April 24, 1862.

EBENSBURG HARDWARE AND STOVE DEPOT. BARGAINS TO BE HAD!

The undersigned has just received a large and splendid assortment of Herdware and Cutlery, Cooking, Parlor and Heating Stoves, Nails, Window Glass, Hoop Iron, Carbon Oil Lamps and pure Carbon Oil, Japanned and Brittannia Ware, Glass Ware, &c., &c., all of which he will sell very low for CASH or ex-

Also:

He still continues to manufacture Tin and Sheet Iron Ware of all descriptions, for sale either by the Wholesale or Retail. Repairing done on short notice.

He returns his sincere thanks to his old friends and customers for the patronage extended him, and begs leave to hope that ther will come forward and settle up their accounts of long standing, and commence the new year "on the square." He must have money to enable him to keep up his stock. Prices low, to suit the 'imes. GEO. HUNTLEY Ebensburg, Jany. 9, 1862tf

PERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION

THE ALLEGHANIAN ." $1.50 IN ADVANCE, Note is the time to Subscribe!

Dec. 15 1361