UNION LEAGUE .- Elsewhere we print an able article on the subject of a Loyal National League, copied from the New York Evening Post. At the present time, when the Rebel sympathizers in the North are straining every nerve to create a feeling of dissatisfaction in the minds of the people against the Administration, and are endeavoring, by means of an insidious "fire in the rear," to demoralize our armies in the field, this topic should come home to the hearts of all. Something is needed-some organization in which good men and true of all parties and predilections may strike hands together- to counteract the balefu! influence of these haters of their country. These Loyal Leagues, with the professed and only object of encouragement of patriotic sentiment and opinion, exactly constitute such organization. They have been established in all the large cities, in Altoons, Johnstown, and elsewhere, and with the happiest results. That such an institution is needed here, where-we blush to say it 1-politicians of the Vallandigham school are almost as thick as leaves in Vallambrosa, and Treason is allowed to stalk forth blatant and unrebuked, must bes ture will be passed over now in silence a matter patent to all. We have sent forth the flower of our community to battle for the great principle of Right-is it not the sheerest folly to permit their hands to e tied and their efforts rendered abortive providing we can prevent it ? We think so. In view of this state of affairs, will not some of our influential citizens exert themselves for the establishment of a League in our midst? The Traitors of the South are not more energetic and determined than are their sympathizers in the North. Let us learn a lesson from their past history, and be ready to meet them hereafter fairly and squarely, principle to principle and issue to issue. We hope all loyal men throughout the county will feel called upon to take an interest in this matter. On the principle that "in Union there is strength," the organization of such Leagues-and the more the merrier-must be productive of much good toward the cause for which we are now struggling The members will, of course form part of the National League first spoken of. THE FIFTY-FOURTH PENNA. VOLS .-From a letter written by a member of Co. A, 54th regiment, Pa. Vols., March 6th tays the Johnstown Democrat, we learn that the regiment was under orders to march on the afternoon of that date .--The members of the regiment were notified that two days' cooked rations would have to be prepared preparatory to march. ing. The writer of the letter thinks the destination of the regiment is Romney. Va., where, probably, more of the stern realities of grim-visaged war awaits the gallant sons of the 54th than they have yet experienced. The boys, of course, were overjoyed at the idea of "changing heir base," and threw up their hats in wild enthusiasm when the order was promulgated. Those having friends in the regiment, and who contemplate writing them, would act wisely in postponing the matter until receiving definite information as to the whereabouts of the boys.

we made the announcement through these columns that a new firm had taken possession of the Continental and Mansion Houses, Pittsburg, with the intention of combining the two establishments and running them on a new and improved scale. In thus saying, we were slightly premature, inasmuch as the change of landlords had not then taken place ; but now--well, there's no mistake about it now, we assure you. Messrs. John H. Clarke and Peter L. Linton, both Cambria county. men, by the way, have leased the houses for a number of years, taking possession thereof on Friday last. They are now busily engaged in refitting and fixing up, and in a few days the Continental and Mansion will present a thoroughly rejuvenated appearance. Strangers and others stopping there may rely upon receiving every possible care and attention. Opposite the Penna. Railroad depot.

ALL RIGHT -- Ellis R. Williams, a member of Co. F, 133d Penna. Vols., who, on his recent return to his regiment after a brief trip nence on "French furlough," was arrested as a deserter and lodged in the guard-house, at Falmouth, has, we are happy to say, been released | The Death Angel beedeth no sad mourner's without a trial. The order to that effect was promulgated by Secretary Stanton himself, who fally understood and appreciated the motives which prompted Ellis' absence from duty. Where he can't get along, there is no use any one else trying !

OPERA .-- Sanford, the renowned cork opera-tor, and troupe, we notice, have been visiting several of our neighboring towns, latterly, and gratifying the inhabitants by their unrivalled performances. Saturday they were at Johnstown, where they received a brilliant reception. The next time they pass this way, they should drop off at Ebensburg-for which hint we charge nothing.

"one and inseparable" henceforth and forever. The Tribune devotes attention in calmer times, and to some extent in these, to Education, Temperance, Agriculture, Invention, and whatever else may minister to the spiritual and material progress and well-being of man-kind; but for the present its energies and its columns are mainly devoted to the invigoration and success of the War for the Union. Its special correspondents accompany every considerable army and report every important incident of that great struggle which we trust is soon to result in the signal and conclusive triumph of the National arms and in the restoration of Peace and Thrift to our distracted, bleeding country. We believe that no otherwise can a fuller or more accurate view of the progress and canracter of this momentous conflict be obtained than through the regular perusal of our columns, And we earnestly solicit the co-operation of all friends of the National cause, which we regard and uphold as that of Universal Humanity, to aid us in extending its-circulation. TERMS :--- The enormous increase in the price of printing paper and other materials used in printing newspapers, compels us to increase the price of The Tribune. Our new terms are :
