

ODDS & ENDS.

DEATH OF THE OLDEST INHABITANT.—The last will and testament of Mrs. Elizabeth Myers, late of Antis township, Blair county, was admitted to probate recently. The deceased was in many respects a remarkable woman. She was born in the year 1754, consequently she was 109 years old when she died. To realize the changes that occurred in her long and eventful life, we have only to reflect that at the time of her birth, Washington was beleaguered by the French at Fort Mifflin; Pittsburg was then a small fort in possession of the French; that Braddock was defeated next year; that she was 21 years old at the Declaration of Independence, and was 58 at the breaking out of the war of 1812! She lived before steamboats were invented, saw canal boats cross the mountain, the "iron horse" do the same, and the telegraph compete with thought. Last and saddest of all, she lived to see traitors striving to break up the Government, which her husband fought and bled to establish. A relic of the past, she died respected by all.

GOOD SHOOTING.—The following dialogue on "sharp-shooting" is reported to have recently taken place between a rebel and a federal picket.—
Rebel—I say, can you fellows shoot?
Federal—Wall, I reckon you can, some.
Rebel—Down in "Mississippi," we can knock a bumble-bee off a thistle blow at three hundred yards.
Federal—Oh, that ain't nothin' tew the way we shew up in Vermont. I belonged to a military company there, a hundred men in the company, and we went out for practice every week. The Capt'n draws us up in single file, and sets a cider-barrel rolling down hill, and each man takes his shot at the bumble-bee as it turns up. It is afterwards examined—if there is a shot that didn't go into the bumble-bee, the member who missed it is expelled. I belonged to the company ten years, and there ain't been nobody expelled yet.

ABOUT TO THE KNEES.—One of our dry good firms recently procured the services of a clerk who was a green hand at the business. A young lady entered the store one day lately to make some purchases, and the other clerks being engaged with customers, the "young un" proceeded to wait on the young lady. Among other things, she inquired for ladies' hose. The boy found the desired articles, and presented them for the lady's inspection. "How high do they come?" she inquired after a short examination. The boy looked somewhat confused, hesitated, but at length stammered out, "Well I don't know, but I suppose they will come about to the knees." The young lady did not trade with that clerk any more.

A GENTLEMAN.—Alter the battle of Perryville, when a squad of soldiers were caring for the dead and wounded, they came upon the body of a man, apparently a rebel, about which there was not the least sign of recognition. "Do you know him?" asked half a dozen of voices, as a member of the 10th Ohio arose from searching the body. "Know him?" replied the Emerald. "I tell yez, boys, he's a gentleman at all events, for there's a bottle in his pocket!"

An imaginative Irishman gives utterance to this lamentation: "I returned to the halls of my fathers by night, and I found them in ruins! I cried aloud, 'My fathers, where are they?' and an echo responded, 'Is that you, Patrick McClathery!'"

A handsome young bride was observed to be in deep reflection on her wedding day. One of her bridesmaids asked the subject of her meditation. "I was thinking," she replied, "which of my old beaux I should marry in case I became a widow." Thoughtful creature!

"Ah!" said Seraphina Angelico, speaking on some subject in which her feelings were warmly enlisted, "how gladly I would embrace an opportunity!" "Would I were an opportunity!" said her bashful lover.

A country girl was split from a wagon at Columbus, Ohio, and had all her finery mused and dirtied. She lay for some time insensible. Her first tremulous exclamation on recovering, was: "I hope there is no Editor in sight."

A CARD.—WIMMER'S BRIDGE, Lancaster Tp. July 30, 1860. MESSRS. EVANS AND WATSON: Gentlemen.—The small size No. 1 Salamander safe which I purchased from your agent, Mr. Adam R. Bar, in Lancaster City, on July 20th, 1858, has been subjected to a very severe test, which it withstood in a most satisfactory manner. This safe, containing all my books together with valuable papers belonging to myself and some to my neighbors and friends, and representing a value of over Twenty Thousand Dollars, ($20,000) was in my Mill which was destroyed on the night of the 21th of July, 1860, and passed through the fiery ordeal unscathed. The safe was on the second floor and fell to the basement of the Mill, and was subjected for six hours to an intense heat among the ruins, which was greatly increased by the combustion of a large quantity of grain confined within the brick walls. After the fire the safe was opened and the books and papers taken out in a state of perfect preservation, the paper not even being discolored. This fact was, however, to many bystanders a better recommendation of your Safes than could be expressed in any other words from me. Yours Respectfully, SAMUEL RANCK. [Aug 13] A large assortment of the above quality of Fire and Thief Proof Safes always on hand and for sale at as low rates as any other firm, at EVANS & WATSON'S, No. 15 South Fourth st., Philadelphia.
