ENOCH LEWIS, Gen. Supt.

SPRING, HO!—March, which came in like a lion, went out as a lamb—calmly, peacefully, and during an unsuccessful effort at a snow shower. By the way, the clearing hereabouts four days ago was reasonably good: mud at present forms the basis of our calculations to the depth of say half a foot. And now, April—the month when the violets begin to peep forth, and song-birds to awake the echoes of the hitherto deserted forests—April is here. Variable, fickles April—

"One hour she smiles, and all the early birds, in one rare gush of song swell their sweet throats; The next she weeps, tears, that like liquid notes, Warble a song for which 'our souls find words' With us, occasionally, spring settles down 'for good' about the first of April, but often that event occurs in May and later. The maxim is, 'when we have a light winter we will have a late spring.' The past winter was certainly light, and— you may form your own conclusions. All rules, however, excepting the golden rule, are liable to miscarry—why not this and now? 'Look before you leap' is a good motto; we look to spring. 'Tis a month before the month of May, and the spring creeps slowly up this way.' But when it does come—well, reader, did you ever spring it on the top of the Allegheny Mountains? There is room here for rhapsody, but nothing short of letters of gold would do justice to the subject, and there is fifty-something-and-a-half premium on the shining metal. If you haven't ever experienced the season of 'ethereal mildness' under the circumstances above indicated, come and see for yourself, and be enticed with astonishment, and delectation, and delightful appreciativeness.—Bring your straw hat along!

MURDER WILL OUT.—We clip the following paragraph from the Hollidaysburg Why: In the fall of 1858, a dead man was found lying across the railroad track early one morning, in Altoona. It was then supposed some one had murdered him and placed him on the track for the purpose of having the locomotive run over him, and had put him on the wrong track. On Tuesday last, Nicholas Ehringer, of Altoona, was arrested and lodged in jail on the charge of being the murderer. He will likely be tried at our July Oyer and Terminer.

To SCHOOL TEACHERS AND DIRECTORS.—Certificates to teachers issued by county superintendents, and 'certificates by president and secretary of board of directors to county superintendent that schools have been open and in operation according to law,' must each have a ten cent stamp affixed, and 'agreements or contracts between teachers and boards of directors, to teach,' must each have a five cent stamp affixed. In the first and last instances, the stamp duty is to be paid by the teacher; in the second, by the secretary of the board, and charged to the district.

NEW IRON COMPANY.—Messrs. Wood, Morrell & Co., of the Cambria Iron Company, Johnstown, have concluded an arrangement with Watson, Dennison & Co., of Hollidaysburg, by which they have made a 'joint stock company' of the Chimney Rock, Gaysport and Frankstown Furnaces, together with the ore lands and other real estate connected therewith, under the incorporated title of 'The Blair Iron Company.' The new company is to be under the management of David Watson, of Hollidaysburg.

PROMOTED.—It gives us pleasure to learn that Sergt. Evan Davis, of Co. D, 11th Penna. Vols.—the gentleman who had few words to say through our columns last week concerning the fossilized old Dem. & Sent.—has been promoted to the First Lieutenancy of his company.—Success!

—Rev. D. P. Mitchell, the eloquent divine who, for a number of years past, had ministered unto the spiritual wants of the Methodist Episcopal congregation of Johnstown, a couple of weeks since resigned that charge, and has removed to Leavenworth city, Kansas.

OUR COMMON SCHOOLS.—We are in receipt of a copy of the annual report of the State Superintendent of Common Schools for the year ending June 2, 1862, embodying an interesting review of the past history and present condition of the system, with reports of the County Superintendents and tabular statements of the various districts. From the county table we glean the following statistics relative to the state of the system in Cambria county:

Table with 2 columns: Item and Amount. Items include: Whole number of schools (156), Number yet required (12), Average number of months taught (4.1), Number male teachers (100), Number female teachers (59), Average salary males per month ($21.32), Average salary females per month ($19.05), Number male scholars (3,802), Number female scholars (3,683), Number learning German (114), Average number attending school (4,301), Cost teaching each scholar per month ($16.42), Tax levied for school purposes ($2,373.90), Total tax levied ($13,785.98), State appropriation ($2,922.80), Received from collectors ($14,378.98), Cost of instruction ($13,660.98), Fuel and contingencies ($2,343.26), Cost of school-houses, &c. ($1,944.40), Balance on hand ($1,361.12), Permanent debt ($2,984.00), Temporary debt ($73.41)

MAN DROWNED.—A man named Andrew Farrell, a resident of Susquehanna township, this county, was drowned near Chest Falls, Clearfield county, while on his way down the river with a raft, one day last week. We are not fully acquainted with particulars, but understand that some accident occurred to the raft by which the unfortunate man was precipitated into the water, where he perished before assistance could be rendered. The body was not recovered.

RESISTING THE LAW.—At a 'Democratic' meeting in Johnstown, Cambria county, on Friday night of last week, speeches were made and rapturously applauded, calling on all true 'Democrats' to resist the military laws of the Government.

We find the above item floating around in our exchanges. If true, it certainly makes up a disgraceful record for the Democracy of the Mineral City. If false, it should be contradicted.

DIED: On Friday, 27th ult., of scarlet fever, SCOTT, son of James and Eliza Mills, aged about 10 years—of Cambria township.

DIED: At his residence, in Cambria Township, on Monday, 30th inst., THOMAS O'CONNELL, aged about 28 years.

Godey, Peterson, the Knickerbocker, and the Continental Monthly, for April, have all been received. The two first are the best fashion Magazines in the country; the two latter take precedence in literature and politics. We could not possibly do without either of them.

—See first page of to-day's paper for a letter from Co. F, 133d Penna. Vols., giving a description of how St. Patrick's day was observed in camp.

—John Dean, Esq., of Hollidaysburg, has been appointed Internal Revenue Tax Assessor for this (17th) district, vice Thomas P. Campbell, Esq., removed.

—G. Nelson Smith, of Johnstown, has been confirmed as Paymaster in the army, with the rank of Major.

—Tudor & Jones keep about the best cigars in town. Drop in and see.

Why is it? To the Editor of the Alleghanian: Why is it, that the Democrat & Sentinel is more willing to serve the devil than his country? In No. 14, it carried a letter to his Satanic Majesty from his agent on Earth. Said agent must be a rebel Democrat, and should be sent South to his friends forthwith. The editor of the Dem. & Sent. promised some time ago to insert in its columns, for the benefit of the Pennsylvania Democracy, a letter from the Indiana soldiers, seventy thousand in number, signed by their officers, to the Democracy of their native State. This letter was handed him on the 3d inst., but up to the present date it has not made its appearance. Why is this? Is the editor aforesaid like his master—a deceiver and a liar? Appearances would so indicate, for in No. 13 of his paper, he says the object of the Conscriptio Act is to 'enroll all able-bodied Democrats.'

OBERVER.

THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE.—1863.—The New York Tribune first issued in 1841, now in its twenty-second year, has obtained now a larger and a more widely diffused circulation than any other newspaper ever published in America. Though it has suffered, in common with other journals, from the volunteering and departure of tens of thousands of its patrons to serve in the War for the Union, its circulation on this 6th day of December, 1862, is as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Category and Circulation. Daily (50,125), Semi-Weekly (17,250), Weekly (148,000), Aggregate (215,375)

Pre-eminently a journal of News and of Literature, the Tribune has political convictions which are well characterized by the single word REPUBLICAN. It is Republican in its hearty adherence to the great truth that 'God has made of one blood all nations of men'—Republican in its assertion of the equal and inalienable rights of all men—to 'Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of happiness'—Republican in its steadfast, earnest, defiant hostility to every scheme and effort of the Slave Power, from the Annexation of Texas to the great Republic, to the empire of the New World and wield the resources of our country for its own aggrandizement—Republican in its antagonism to the aristocrats and despots of the Old World, who fondly hail in the perils and calamities suddenly thrust upon us by their American counterpart the overthrow and ruin of the Model Republic—Republican in its hope and trust, its faith and effort, that this atrocious Rebellion must result in the signal overthrow of its plotters, and the firm establishment of equal rights and equal laws throughout the whole extent of our country, wherein Liberty and Union shall indeed be 'one and inseparable' henceforth and forever. The Tribune devotes attention in calmer tones, and to some extent in these, to Education, Temperance, Agriculture, Invention, and whatever else may minister to the spiritual and material progress and well-being of mankind; but for the present its energies and its columns are mainly devoted to the invigoration and success of the War for the Union. Its special correspondents accompany every considerable army and report every important incident of that great struggle which we trust is soon to result in the signal and conclusive triumph of the National arms and in the restoration of Peace and Thrift to our distracted, bleeding country. We believe that no otherwise can a fairer or more accurate view of the progress and character of this momentous conflict be obtained than through the regular perusal of our columns. And we earnestly beseech the co-operation of all friends of the National cause, which we regard and uphold as that of Universal Humanity, to aid us in extending its circulation. TERMS.—The enormous increase in the price of printing paper and other materials used in printing newspapers, compels us to increase the price of the Tribune. Our new terms are: DAILY TRIBUNE.
