LETTER FROM CO. F, 133d PENNA. VOLS.—REGIMENTAL WAR MEETING—DEATH—REINSTATEMENT AND PROMOTION OF LIEUT. FLANAGAN, &c., &c.

CAMP NEAR FALMOUTH, VA., April 2, 1863.

Correspondence of The Alleghanian.

There is little of special importance to communicate at this writing. The spring season is rapidly advancing upon us, and until lately the roads had dried up to such an extent, under the influence of the blustering March winds, that we began to confidently anticipate active operations. "But man proposes and God disposes," and for nearly a week we have had a delightful succession of rainy and snowy weather, mostly at night, completely spoiling our calculations as to a forward move. The climate here is so fickle that it cannot be depended upon for twenty-four hours at a time. Last year the most severe snow-storm of the winter occurred in March, after the advance had been made upon Manassas. To day may be clear and pleasant; at night a storm may gather and burst upon us, and to-morrow we are enveloped in mud. Such is life on the "sacred soil!" Under the circumstances, military movements are in a beautiful state of uncertainty just now. From certain indications which are being developed around us, however, you need not be surprised to hear of stirring events at an early hour.

In pursuance of a call made by several privates of this regiment, a large and enthusiastic meeting was held on Wednesday evening, 25th ult., to give expression to the soldiers' unqualified disapprobation of the course of those at home who are withholding their support from or opposing the Administration, as also to pass resolutions approving the formation of Union Leagues. The meeting was called exclusively for the privates and non-commissioned officers, in order to give reputation to the oft-repeated assertion that the sentiment of regimental war meetings is always moulded to suit the peculiar views of the staff and line officers. By the private soldiers was it called, and by them and them alone engineered to a successful termination. Several eloquent speeches were delivered by gentlemen of conflicting political opinion, among whom I may mention Sergt. Meyer, Joseph M. Horton and Wm. R. Jones, all of your county. That these favored the stern and vigorous prosecution of the war until Traitors unconditionally throw down their arms and submit, and were unalterably opposed to all dishonorable and unmanly compromises, it were almost unnecessary for me to state. Resolutions expressive of the sense of the assemblage were adopted, amidst the wildest enthusiasm. The 133d is for war to the knife against Rebels in arms, and toward those unholty miscreants in the North who are endeavoring by every means in their power to embarrass the Administration and retard the progress of our armies to victory, they cherish a deep seated and almost uncontrollable feeling of animosity. [See full proceedings of this meeting on first page of today's paper.—Ed. Alle.]

We learn with sincere regret of the death of another of our number—Peter Keith, a faithful soldier, who a couple of weeks since died in hospital at Frederick, Md. It was not his fate to meet death, nor wounds which cause death, on the field of contest, yet his blood is none the less upon the skirts of those who are seeking the country's overthrow. Thus, of that band of men who, a few months since, left their mountain homes to act their part in preserving the integrity of that government which had fostered and protected them, one after another has passed away until now the names of fifteen brave heroes can be traced on the list of martyrs in a just cause. Our revered Captain Jones; the lamented Lieut. Scott; generous, high-toned Richard M. Jones—but why harass the spirit by dwelling on their names! They have fallen nobly, but victims to miserable treason. And, for there are men to be found, our very neighbors, who cry out, Peace! Compr.

mise!—let the precious blood of the fallen brave go for nought! Oh! hardest of all to bear!

You have probably heard ere this of the reinstatement of Lieut. F. M. Flanagan, and his promotion to the Captaincy of our company. We were in great want of commissioned officers, and his appearance amongst us was hailed with delight. The Captain is a universal favorite with his command, and his promotion is considered a simple act of justice to a deserving man.

C. T. Roberts, R. Litzinger and R. H. Thompson, of your town, paid us a brief visit within the past few days. We were glad to see them. E. R. W.

A CARD—To the School Directors of Johnstown Borough—Gentlemen:

Pardon us for directing your attention to the following facts. On the 14th February, last, the Executive Committee of the "Cambria County Teachers' Institute" convened at Ebensburg, and, after due deliberation, decided that the next session of that body should be held at Ebensburg, on the 4th, 5th, 6th, and 7th days of May, proximo. Due notice of the arrangement was given thro' all the papers in the county. Subsequently—at least a month thereafter—the decision of your Board that the summer session of your schools should commence on Monday, 4th May, proximo, was published, which decision, we believe, as yet remains unchanged. Now, inasmuch as this clashing of dates will materially conflict with the success of the Institute,—both the schools and the Institute commencing on one and the same day,—would it be asking too much to request your honorable body to defer your commencement day for a brief season? The Teachers who may employ would naturally desire to attend the session of the Institute, and this they may not be able to do under existing circumstances. The Institute, we may add, is not a local affair, but one looking to the advancement of the educational interests of the whole county.

Very Respectfully, &c., Executive Com. Cambria Co. Teachers' Inst.

CAPT. F. M. FLANAGAN.—We have heretofore neglected noticing the promotion of this gentleman, formerly Second Lieutenant of Co. F, 133d Penna. Vols., to the Captaincy of same company. He has, we believe, been duly commissioned, and is now in the field in performance of the duties of his office. Capt. F. is exceedingly popular with his command, and was their unanimous choice for the position he now fills. That he is worthy of the confidence reposed in him, and that, under his care and direction, Co. F will lose none of the laurels it has so nobly won, we are morally certain. Success!

UNFORTUNATE ACCIDENT.—We are sorry to learn that Lieut. R. M. Jones, of Co. A, 11th Pa. Reserves, who was severely wounded at the second battle of Bull Run, and had just become able to walk without crutches, was considerably injured one day last week by being thrown from a horse. He had intended returning to his company on Monday, but the mishap will probably prevent him so doing for some time. We wish him a speedy convalescence.

SUDDEN DEATH.—A man named Nicholas Castner, aged about 64 years, who was engaged in whedling lime at Funk's kilns, near Duncansville, Blair county, was found lying dead on his wheelbarrow, on the 21st ult. An inquest was held upon the body by Coroner Freeman, and a verdict returned that he came to his death by a visitation of Providence. So says the Hollidaysburg Standard.

WINTER still lingers in the lap of spring hereabout. On Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, we had several snow-showers, and during each of these days the merry jingle of the sleigh-bells was heard. Midwinter and sleighing in the middle of April!—think of that, ye denizens of the valleys, and shiver. Gentle spring, ethereal mildness!—well may we exclaim, "there's no such season!"

MARRIED: On Thursday evening, 2d inst., by Rev. John D. Knox, at the house of H. W. Richard, Ninth ward, Pittsburgh, Mr. ISRAEL RUMBAUGH, of Pittsburgh, to Miss KATE M. HOOVER, of Ebensburg, Penna.

SAVE THE PIECES!—Dr. Thompson pays cash for old blank books, old books, pamphlets, newspapers, &c., at the Post Office. Fetch 'em along!

DO NOT FAIL to attend the Union mass meeting, at the Court House, this (Thursday) evening. Eminent speakers will address you.

THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE. 1863. The New York Tribune first issued in 1841, now in its twenty-second year, has obtained both a larger and a more widely diffused circulation than any other newspaper ever published in America. Though it has suffered, in common with other journals, from the volunteering and departure of tens of thousands of its patrons to serve in the War for the Union, its circulation on this 6th day of December, 1862, is as follows: Daily, 50,125; Semi-Weekly, 17,250; Weekly, 148,000; Aggregate, 215,375.

Pre-eminently a journal of News and of Literature, The Tribune has political convictions which are well characterized by the single word REPUBLICAN: It is Republican in its hearty adhesion to the great truth that "God has made of one blood all nations of men"; Republican in its assertion of the equal and inalienable rights of all men to "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness"; Republican in its steadfast, earnest, defiant hostility to every scheme and effort of the Slave Power, from the Annexation of Texas to the great Rebellion, to grasp the empire of the New World and wield the resources of our country for its own aggrandizement; Republican in its antagonism to the aristocrats and despots of the Old World, who fondly hail in the perils and calamities suddenly thrust upon us by their American counterpart the overthrow and ruin of the Model Republic—Republican in its hope and trust, its faith and effort, that this atrocious Rebellion must result in the signal overthrow of its plotters, and the firm establishment of equal rights and equal laws throughout the whole extent of our country, wherein Liberty and Union shall indeed be "one and inseparable" henceforth and forever. The Tribune devotes attention in calmer times, and to some extent in these, to Education, Temperance, Agriculture, Invention, and whatever else may minister to the spiritual and material progress and well-being of mankind; but for the present its energies and its columns are mainly devoted to the investigation and success of the War for the Union. Its special correspondents accompany every considerable army and report every important incident of that great struggle which we trust is soon to result in the signal and conclusive triumph of the National arms and in the restoration of Peace and Thrift to our distracted, bleeding country. We believe that no other publication can afford a fairer or more accurate view of the progress and character of this momentous conflict than through the regular perusal of our columns. And we earnestly solicit the co-operation of all friends of the National cause, which we regard and uphold as that of Universal Humanity, to aid us in extending its circulation.

TERMS.—The enormous increase in the price of printing paper and other materials used in printing newspapers, compels us to increase the price of The Tribune. Our new terms are: DAILY TRIBUNE. Single Copy, 3 cents. Mail Subscribers, one year, (311 issues,) $8. SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE. One Copy, one year, (104 issues,) $3. Two Copies, one year, $5. Five Copies, one year, $12. Ten Copies, one year, $22 50. WEEKLY TRIBUNE. One Copy, one year, (52 issues,) $2. Three Copies, one year, $3. Five Copies, one year, $8. Ten Copies, one year, $15. Any larger number, addressed to names of subscribers, $1 50 each. An extra copy will be sent to every club of ten. Twenty copies, to one address, one year, $15, and any larger number at same price.—An extra copy will be sent to clubs of twenty. To clubs of thirty, THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE will be sent. To clubs of fifty, THE DAILY TRIBUNE will be sent gratis. Address THE TRIBUNE, Tribune Buildings, New York.

When drafts can be procured, it is much safer than to remit Bank Bills. The name of the Post Office and State should in all cases be plainly written. Subscribers who send money by Express must prepay the Express charges, else it will be deducted from the remittance.
