From Our Volunteers. LETTER FROM CO. F, 133D PENNA. VOL. — FORWARD MARCH! — ITEMS OF INTEREST.

CAMP NEAR FALMOUTH, VA., April 13, 1863.

Correspondence of The Alleghanian. This week I have nothing of much importance to communicate. The men are still in winter quarters, but I am of the opinion that ere long we will move out of them. The weather is pleasant, and last night, we had just enough rain to lay the dust. The roads are in good condition for the transportation of trains and artillery, and I do not see how we can remain inactive much longer.

Later.—This, Tuesday, morning, we have had eight days rations issued to us, and to-morrow we move—but to what point it is impossible to tell. We may cross the river for the purpose of engaging the enemy at some point, and another surmise is that we start for home by way of White Plains and Harper's Ferry. Time alone will unfold the facts, but we all feel certain that a long tramp is in store for us. We will have a heavy load to march under, for I assure you eight days food for a soldier is no little affair, in addition to knapsack, blankets, overcoat, gun, equipments, &c.

NEW SCHEDULE.—A new schedule went into effect on the Pennsylvania Railroad on last Monday, 20th inst. The following is now the time of the several trains at Cresson and Wilmore stations— for the figures of which we are indebted to the kindness of Conductor Scott, of our Branch train:

CRESSON STATION. West—Balt. Express leaves at 7.58 A. M. " Fast Line " 9.11 P. M. " Mail Train " 7.58 P. M. East—Through Express " 7.58 P. M. " Fast Line " 12.27 P. M. " Fast Mail " 6.58 A. M. " Through Accom. " 9.29 A. M.

WILMORE STATION. West—Balt. Express leaves at 8.21 A. M. " Mail Train " 8.25 P. M. East—Through Express " 7.30 P. M. " Fast Mail " 6.36 A. M. " Through Accom. " 8.59 A. M. The mails are carried on the Balt. Express West and Through Accommodation East, both arriving here at 10.30 A. M. Mails close both directions at the Ebensburg Post Office at S. P. M. See time-table of E. & C. Branch RR. elsewhere.

LUMBER ITEM.—The recent heavy rains have swollen the various streams in this section to such an extent that the Susquehanna river is now in prime condition for rafting. A gentleman from the north of the county assures us that unusual activity prevails among the lumbermen of that region, and that a vast amount of timber is being floated down to market. At Patchin's Mills, he counted no less than seventy-five rafts, in one day, on their "winding way," each one worth probably one thousand dollars. The aggregate value of this single lot would be seventy-five thousand dollars, from which may be gathered some slight estimate of the extent of the business done during "the season." Lumber never commanded a better sale than at present, and the indications are that the thrift and industry of the hardy pioneers of the forest during the winter will be amply rewarded. So mote it be!

the morning, to the right of camp we could plainly see long lines of horses and men marching in the direction of the river. From the extent of the force engaged, I have no doubt important results will follow. No general engagement may occur, but the supposition is not very plausible. The time since they left is too short to learn what they have accomplished.

On the 10th of this month there was a general muster of the army for the purpose of ascertaining the real number of men in active service. By the number the President will ascertain the number of men requisite to fill the three year regiments to the original complement, and the number of men needed to take the places of the two year and nine month troops.

The copperheads of the North tell you our army is demoralized, but this is not the truth—quite the contrary. Any man who reiterates the statement is a traitor and a liar. I have never seen the men in better spirits and trim than they are at present. They enjoy good health and are well fed—two most important items in the composition of a large force. Much praise is due Gen. Hooker for his untiring efforts to bring the army to its present effective condition. The General looks hale and hearty, and seems well pleased with his men. He is winning a firm hold in their affections. Maj. Gen. Meade is also a good officer, and the corps is fortunate in having him as its commander.

LECTURE.—COUNTY INSTITUTE.—P. S. Noon, Esq., of Ebensburg, has been appointed by the Executive Committee of the Cambria County Teachers' Institute to lecture before that body at its coming meeting, on Monday evening, 4th of May, proximo, and has signified his willingness to do as requested. From the well known ability of the speaker, it were reasonable to expect a "feast of reason," and those who may possibly attend cannot afford to stay away.

—Our Union League held its regular meeting Tuesday eve.

THE EBENSBURG UNION LEAGUE.— Herewith we print the Constitution and By-Laws of this association, as reported by the Committee on Constitution and unanimously adopted by the League:

PREAMBLE. We, the undersigned, citizens of Ebensburg and vicinity, believing, in this hour of our country's peril, when the Union is attacked by armed rebels in the South, and more cowardly but not less dangerous foes in the North, that all old party lines are for the time destroyed, and that there are and can be but two parties,—one for the Union, the other against it; feeling it to be the duty of all loyal citizens to lend their cordial and unqualified support to the General Government in its efforts to suppress the present unholy rebellion, through which alone lasting peace and permanent security can be obtained; and being convinced that this support will be most effective when offered in an organized and systematic manner, do hereby form ourselves into an association for the purposes aforesaid; among which is to be numbered the endorsement of a vigorous, unhesitating, and uncompromising prosecution of the war against open and covert traitors, and do hereby ordain and establish the following Constitution and By-Laws for our government:

THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE. —1863.— The New York Tribune first issued in 1841, now in its twenty-second year, has obtained both a larger and a more widely diffused circulation than any other newspaper ever published in America. Though it has suffered, in common with other journals, from the volunteering and departure of tens of thousands of its patrons to serve in the War for the Union, its circulation on this 6th day of December, 1862, is as follows: Daily, 50,125 Semi-Weekly, 17,250 Weekly, 148,000 Aggregate, 215,375

Pre-eminently a Journal of News and of Literature, The Tribune has political convictions which are well characterized by the single word REPUBLICAN. It is Republican in its hearty adhesion to the great truth that "God has made of one blood all nations of men"—Republican in its assertion of the equal and inalienable rights of all men to "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness"—Republican in its steadfast, earnest, defiant hostility to every scheme and effort of the Slave Power, from the Annexation of Texas to the great Rebellion, to grasp the empire of the New World and wield the resources of our country for its own aggrandizement—Republican in its antagonism to the aristocrats and despots of the Old World, who fondly hail in the perils and calamities suddenly thrust upon us by their American counterpart the overthrow and ruin of the Model Republic—Republican in its hope and trust, its faith and effort, that this atrocious Rebellion must result in the signal overthrow of its plotters, and the firm establishment of equal rights and equal laws throughout the whole extent of our country, wherein Liberty and Union shall indeed be "one and inseparable" henceforth and forever. The Tribune levotes attention in calmer times, and to some extent in these, to Education, Temperance, Agriculture, Invention, and whatever else may minister to the spiritual and material progress and well-being of mankind; but for the present its energies and its columns are mainly devoted to the invigoration and success of the War for the Union. Its special correspondents accompany every considerable army and report every important incident of that great struggle which we trust is soon to result in the signal and conclusive triumph of the National arms and in the restoration of Peace and Thrift to our distracted, bleeding country. We believe that no otherwise can a fuller or more accurate view of the progress and character of this momentous conflict be obtained than through the regular perusal of our columns. And we earnestly solicit the co-operation of all friends of the National cause, which we regard and uphold as that of Universal Humanity, to aid us in extending its circulation. TERMS.—The enormous increase in the price of printing paper and other materials used in printing newspapers, compels us to increase the price of The Tribune. Our new terms are: DAILY TRIBUNE. Single Copy, 3 cents. Mail Subscription, one year, (31 issues,) $8 SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE. One Copy, one year, (104 issues,) $3 Two Copies, one year, $5 Five Copies, one year, $12 Ten Copies, one year, $22 50 WEEKLY TRIBUNE. One Copy, one year, (52 issues,) $2 Three Copies, one year, $5 Five Copies, one year, $8 Ten Copies, one year, $15 Any larger number, addressed to names of subscribers, $1 50 each. An extra copy will be sent to every club of ten. Twenty copies, to one address, one year, $15, and any larger number at same price.—An extra copy will be sent to clubs of twenty. To clubs of thirty, THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE will be sent. To clubs of fifty, THE DAILY TRIBUNE will be sent gratis. Address THE TRIBUNE, Tribune Buildings, New York. When drafts can be procured, it is much safer than to remit Bank Bills. The name of the Post Office and State should in all cases be plainly written. Subscribers who send money by Express must prepay the Express charges, else it will be deducted from the remittance.
