

ODDS & ENDS.

Mr. Billings' Family Proverbs.—Don't swap with yer relashuns unless you can afford to give them the big end of the trade. Marry young, and if circumstances require it, often. If you kant get good clothes and education, too, get the clothes. Say how are ye? to everybody. Cultivate modesty, but mind to keep a good stock of impudence on hand. If you are angry, never get beet. Be charitable; three cent pieces war made on purpose. Don't take ennebody's advice but your own. It costs you more to borrow than to buy. If a man flatters yu, yu can kalkerlate that he's a rogue, or ya a fule. Keep both iye open, but don't see more than half you noia.

At a dinner party given in this city in the year 1775, says the New York Evening Post, a gentleman of considerable notoriety as a wit was asked, "Pray, what is a Tory?" He replied, "A Tory is a creature whose head is in England, while his body is in America, and I think the parts ought to be joined by stretching the neck." We have still persons among us not unlike this description of the Tory whose heads are in Richmond, while their bodies are in New York; and though we might not recommend the old Revolutionary wit's plan of bringing the two parts together by stretching the intervening membranes, we should certainly not object to seeing the body sent where the head is.

MAKING ROOM.—It was Henry Clay, we think, who, after he had finished his studies, went to a certain town with letters of recommendation to an excellent member of the bar and asked his advice and influence in establishing himself in his profession. The encouragement he received was something like this: "I would be very glad to render you any assistance in my power, Mr. Clay, but really there is no room in this place for another lawyer." Mr. Clay, (if he was the individual, for it is a long time since we heard the story,) nothing daunted, straightened himself, and with the reply, "Then sir, I intend to make room," left the house. The sequel need not be told.

We have a little girl at our house who glories at being nearly five years old. One day we hired a "German" to do some gardening. Now Hans was a great whistler, and liked this kind of occupation very much. Mollie was watching him in his labor, when Hans commenced whistling pretty soon, all agape, I noticed Mollie, but thought it was because of Hans' superior whistling. When he stopped, Mollie came running up to me, nearly out of breath, and asked—"Mamma, is Hans Dutch?" I answered in the affirmative. "Why, Mamma," said Mollie, "he don't whistle Dutch!"

A young lady of eighteen was engaged to be married to a gentleman of thirty-six. Her mother having noticed her low spirits for some time, inquired the reason. "Oh, dear mamma," replied she, pettishly, "I was thinking about my husband being twice my age." "That's very true, but he is only thirty-six." "He is only thirty-six now, but when I am sixty—"

"Oh dear! why, then he'll be a hundred and twenty!"

The Blair Iron and Coal Company, which we noticed a few weeks since as having been formed, has been incorporated by the Legislature, with a capital of two hundred thousand dollars, with the privilege of increasing it to five hundred thousand dollars. The following gentlemen have been elected as officers of the company: Charles S. Wood, President; Daniel J. Morrell, Vice President; David Watson, Superintendent; George R. Woods Secretary and Treasurer.

From official statements from the Treasury Department, it appears that the total debt of the United States up to 1st April, 1863, amounts to $929,186,147 at an average interest of 3 1/2 per cent. This shows the lying proclivities of the Copperheads, who have stated it to be over $2,000,000,000.

A New York Councilman was heard lately getting off the following specimen of what may be called "corporation" logic:

"All human things are hollow. I'm hollow. It is contempible to be hollow; therefore, I'll stuff myself!"

A CARD.—
WITMER'S BRIDGE,
Lancaster Tp. July 30, 1860.
MESSRS. EVANS AND WATSON: GENTLEMEN—
The small size No. 1 Salamander safe which I purchased from your agent, Mr. Adam R.
Barr, in Lancaster City, on July 20th, 1858,
has been subjected to a very severe test,
which it withstood in a most satisfactory manner. This safe, containing all my books together with valuable papers belonging to myself and some to my neighbors and friends,
and representing a value of over Twenty Thousand Dollars, ($20,000) was in my Mill which was destroyed on the night of the 27th of July, 1860, and passed through the fiery ordeal
unscathed. The safe was on the second floor and fell to the basement of the Mill, and was subjected for six hours to an intense heat
among the ruins, which was greatly increased by the combustion of a large quantity of grain confined within the brick walls. After the fire the safe was opened and the books and papers taken out in a state of perfect preservation, the paper not even being discolored.
This fact was, however, to many bystanders
a better recommendation of your safe than could be expressed in any other words from me.
Yours Respectfully,
[se13] SAMUEL RANGK.

A large assortment of the above quality of Fire and Theft Proof Safes always on hand and for sale at as low rates as any other
