WEDNESDAY MORNING, MAY 6TH. Institute called to order by Vice Pres. Scanlan.

On motion, Misses Hindman and Magehan were added to the committee on resolutions.

Afternoon Session.—Association met at appointed time, with Supt. Ely in the chair.

The Committee on Resolutions then reported the following resolutions, which were taken up separately and adopted without discussion.

1. Resolved, That the daily recurring evidence of the progress of educational interests in the State of Pennsylvania, demands of her teachers continued exertions in self-improvement.

2. Resolved, That while we regret to lose the aid and counsel of Hon. T. H. Burrows, who has for the last three years occupied the highest educational position in the State.

3. Resolved, That we regret to lose the aid and counsel of Hon. T. H. Burrows, who has for the last three years occupied the highest educational position in the State.

quished honor of being selected as the State Superintendent of our Schools.

3. Resolved, That we are pleased to learn that Prof. S. P. Bates has been appointed assistant Superintendent.

4. Resolved, That the thanks of this Institute be tendered to the citizens of Ebensburg, borough and vicinity for their hospitality, kindness and courtesy.

6. Resolved, That our thanks are also due A. A. Barker, Superintendent of Ebensburg and to the Pennsylvania R.R. Co., in granting excursion tickets to those persons who attend this meeting.

7. Resolved, That we sympathize with our Government in its present struggle for life, and that we pledge ourselves as teachers to give all the support in our power to crush the rebellion now being waged to tear down the freest and best Governments on earth.

8. Resolved, That we are gratified to know that the teachers of this county are represented on every battle-field and in every department of the army, but we deeply regret that many who were our former companions are now no more.

In resolution No. 7, a motion was made to insert the word loyal before teachers, which was afterwards withdrawn by the mover, Miss Hindman.

The following additional resolution was offered by S. B. M'Cormick, and was adopted by the Institute:

9. Resolved, That it is our duty as fellow teachers to aid and support our newly elected County Superintendent, J. F. Gordon, in the duties devolving upon him in his new position.

On motion, the Executive Committee was requested to fix the time for the next semi-annual meeting of the Institute on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of the last week in September, 1863.

D. W. EVANS, Secretary.
