WELCOME TO THE BRAVE.—A meeting of the ladies of Ebensburg and vicinity was held at the Union School-House on Monday evening, to take into consideration the propriety of extending a suitable reception to our brave soldiers of Co. F, 133d, upon the occasion of their return hither from the wars.

DIED: In Division Hospital, Falmouth, Va., March 9, 1863, of typhoid fever, MARK GALLAGHER, a member of Co. H, 110th Penna. Vols., and son of James S. Gallagher, of Beccaria, Clearfield county, aged 26 years and 3 months.

HOW IT LOOKS ABROAD.—The Hollidaysburg Whig says that our new partizan County Superintendent elect, Mr. Condon, and the partizan Directors who elected him, are "all a disgrace to Cambria county." That's about the size of it.

APPOINTMENT.—The following named gentlemen compose the Board of Enrollment in this District as appointed by the President, viz: Capt. J. D. Campbell, of Huntingdon, Provost Marshal; Dr. A. Rothrock, of Mifflin, Surgeon; M. S. Harr, of Cambria; Commissioner.

NOT DEAD.—A letter has been received here stating that Lieut. Evan Davis, of Co. D, 115th Penna. Vols., was not killed in the late battle, as has been currently reported, but that he was only severely wounded. He fell into the hands of the Rebels after the fight, was subsequently exchanged, and is now in hospital near Falmouth. We hope his recovery may be speedy, and he enabled soon to rejoin his brave command.

ANOTHER HERO GONE.—We are sorry to be obliged to chronicle the death of another of Cambria's brave sons in the recent fight near Fredericksburg—Lieut. Peter Kaylor, Jr., of Co. F, 28th Penna. Vols. The deceased had been in the service of his country ever since the commencement of hostilities between the North and the South, and nobly did his duty to the last. He also served throughout the Mexican war, and was one of the celebrated "forlorn hope" at the battle of Chapultepec, composed of some 160 men, only 16 escaping the bullets of the foe—he of the number. He resided in Allegheny township, and was about 35 years of age. A true patriot—a tried soldier—a respected citizen—a good man—may his memory live forever.

LOCAL IMPROVEMENT.—On our fourth page will be found a list of pavements inside the borough limits which have been declared defective by the borough authorities, the repairing or relaying of which is ordered inside of sixty days.—This move inaugurates a much-needed improvement, and will meet with very general commendation. Some of the pavements on our principal thoroughfares are not only a disgrace to any town, but they are positively dangerous—especially on a dark night, after one has been indulging in creme de corn, for instance. They should be abated as nuisances, and we are glad to see the Burgess and Council intend doing this same.

Co. D, 115TH PENNA. VOLS.—The Johnstown Tribune publishes the following list of casualties sustained by this company in the late fights: Killed, John Kibler; wounded, Lieut. Evan Davis, severely in hip, Sergts. Graham, Lewis and Schmidt, each in arm, Corp. Cobough, in leg, James M'Clusky, slightly above the eye, G. W. Goederham, shot through the arm—all flesh wounds. Taylor Edwards, S. M'Donald, J. Stiffler, J. R. Lute, J. Frank, C. A. Wanner, A. Rudolph and Samuel Lister were more or less hurt by Rebel missiles. Several members of the company are missing whose fate has not yet been determined.

FROM THE ARMY.—We direct the attention of our readers to a letter on the outside of to-day's paper, wherein is narrated the part borne by the 133d Penna. Vols. in the late fights along the Rappahannock. Not a single casualty, we are rejoiced to learn, occurred in Co. F. In Co. B, from Johnstown, four were wounded, to wit: Lieut. Culin, in the breast; Allen Shunk, in neck; John Phillips, in leg; Isaac Jones, in knee—all slight. No casualties in Co. A, another Johnstown company.

OBITUARY.—John Kibler, of Co. D, 115th Penna. Vols., who was killed at the late battle near Fredericksburg, was a son of Mr. Jacob Kibler, of Chest township, this county, and was aged about 21 years. He was an estimable young man, and much beloved by all who knew him. A letter from one of his messmates speaks of him as having been brave as a lion, and says that he "fell at his post." He was shot through the head, death ensuing instantaneously. Peace to his ashes!

How it looks abroad.—The Hollidaysburg Whig says that our new partizan County Superintendent elect, Mr. Condon, and the partizan Directors who elected him, are "all a disgrace to Cambria county." That's about the size of it. By the way, we hear it stated that Mr. Condon privately disavows having asserted before the Democratic Caucus Convention that he was a "Copperhead" Democrat. How is this?

APPOINTMENT.—The following named gentlemen compose the Board of Enrollment in this District as appointed by the President, viz: Capt. J. D. Campbell, of Huntingdon, Provost Marshal; Dr. A. Rothrock, of Mifflin, Surgeon; M. S. Harr, of Cambria; Commissioner.

NOT DEAD.—A letter has been received here stating that Lieut. Evan Davis, of Co. D, 115th Penna. Vols., was not killed in the late battle, as has been currently reported, but that he was only severely wounded. He fell into the hands of the Rebels after the fight, was subsequently exchanged, and is now in hospital near Falmouth. We hope his recovery may be speedy, and he enabled soon to rejoin his brave command.

MARRIED: At Loretto, by Rev. T. S. Reynolds, on Sunday, 10th inst., Mr. THADDEUS HORN, of Carroll township, to Miss LIZZIE DEWIL, of Allegheny township.

In future bliss may they always revel, For passing few to joy are born; The youthful bride, the graceful Dewil, May she find comfort—in a Horn!

PERSONAL.—Capt. Carroll, of Co. A, 55th Penna. Vols., paid our town a pop visit on Monday. He looks well, and reports all favorable in his department.—The Captain has been long and favorably known in this section, and the narration he gives of his experience in the army is anything but favorable to Copperheadism.

NOTICE.—The Department of Internal Revenue having paid the Assistant Assessors of this (XVIIth) District since the issuing of a call for a meeting of said Assistant Assessors in Huntingdon, on the 23d inst., there is, of course, now no necessity for said meeting, and it will not be held.

THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE.

The New York Tribune first issued in 1841, now in its twenty-second year, has obtained both a larger and a more widely diffused circulation than any other newspaper ever published in America. Though it has suffered, in common with other journals, from the volunteering and departure of tens of thousands of its patrons to serve in the War for the Union, its circulation on this 24th day of December, 1862, is as follows: Daily, 50,125; Semi-Weekly, 17,250; Weekly, 143,000. Aggregate, 215,375

Pre-eminently a journal of News and of Literature, the Tribune has political convictions which are well characterized by the single word REPUBLICAN. It is Republican in its hearty adhesion to the great truth that "God has made of one blood all nations of men"—Republican in its assertion of the equal and inalienable rights of all men to "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness"—Republican in its steadfast, earnest, defiant hostility to every scheme and effort of the Slave Power, from the Annexation of Texas to the great Rebellion, to grasp the empires of the New World and wield the resources of our country for its own aggrandizement—Republican in its antagonism to the aristocrats and despots of the Old World, who fondly hail in the perils and calamities suddenly thrust upon us by their American counterpart the overthrow and ruin of the Model Republic—Republican in its hope and trust, its faith and effort, that this atrocious Rebellion must result in the signal overthrow of its plotters, and the firm establishment of equal rights and equal laws throughout the whole extent of our country, wherein Liberty and Union shall indeed be "one and inseparable" henceforth and forever.

The Tribune devotes attention in calmer times, and to some extent in these, to Education, Temperance, Agriculture, Invention, and whatever else may minister to the spiritual and material progress and well-being of mankind; but for the present its energies and its columns are mainly devoted to the investigation and success of the War for the Union. Its special correspondents accompany every considerable army and report every important incident of that great struggle which we trust is soon to result in the signal and conclusive triumph of the National arms and in the restoration of Peace and Thrift to our distracted, bleeding country. We believe that no otherwise can a fuller or more accurate view of the progress and character of this momentous conflict be obtained than through the regular perusal of our columns, and we earnestly solicit the co-operation of all friends of the National cause, which we regard and uphold as that of Universal Humanity, to aid us in extending its circulation.
