A GOOD CAMP STORY .- A correspondent of a Philadelphia paper, attached to the army of the Potomac, writes the fol-

To show you how rumers will spread in the army, I will illustrate an incident .-The lady friends of our fifth corporal sent him a box; among the many good things in the said box was a life-size doll, dressed in full Zouave uniform, which they won at a soldiers' fair in your city. The corporal, after getting the box, was taken sick ; the boys started the rumor that the corporal was a woman, and gave birth to a boy. The rumor spread like wild fire; hundreds flocked to our quarters to see the wonderful phenomenon-a new borne babe-but we guarded the tent with zealous care, only allowing pryers to catch a passing glimpes of the supposed mother and babe.

We could find a number of men to swear they had seen both. But the cream of the joke was to come off; the corporal received a ten days' furlough; all thought it was the mother going home with her HEATING COOK STOVES, $3.00 to $8.00. babe-some had it, that she was a rich heiress escaping from a tyrant father; but hundreds believed in the mother corporal and young recruit of Company I, of the Zouaves d'Afrique.

"Johny. get your dictionary, and tell me what the word Democrat means," said an old Vallaudighammer to his hopewell. The son complied, and soon read as follows: "Democrat,-n,-One who adheres to a government by the people, or favors the extension of the right of Chimneys and Wicks for Lamp's always on suffrage to all classes of men "

"Hold on, John; does it say all classes of men ?" BAR BUT THE TANK OFFILE "Yes, dad."

"Who's the maker of the dictionory?" "Web-ter." "Oh, that blasted old Whig! I always thought he was sort of tavoring the niggers! Johnny, you needn't read that MINER'S LAMPS, dictionary any more. I'll see about getting the right kind, when I next go to Go ling!" The querist went his way perfectly muss't-up-ficated."

My dear," said an anxious father to a bashtul daughter, "I intend that you shall be married, but I do not intend that you shall throw youself away on any of the wild, worthless boys of the present day. You must marry a man of sober and mature age; one that can charm you with personal attraction. What do you think of a fine, intelligent, mature hosband of fifty?" The timid, meek, blueeyed daughter looked in the man's face, and with the slightest posssible touch of interest in her voice, answered, "I think street. two of twenty five would be better, papa.

Quite a joke happened to one of the doctors the other day. He ordered some powerful medicine for a sick boy, but the father not liking the appearance of it, forced it down the cat's throat, and when the doctor called again and inquired if the powder had cured the boy, the father replied :-

"No, we didn't give it to him." "Good Heaven : " exclaimed the doctor

"is the child living?" "Yes," answered the father, "but the old cat isn't, -we gave it to her." The doctor sloped.

A lady was once declaring that she could not understand how gentlemen could smoke. "It certainly shortens their lives," said she. "I didn't know that," exclaimed a gentleman ; "there's my father who smokes every blessed day, and he is now seventy years old." "Well," was the reply, "if he had never smoked he might have been eighty."

A CARD. WITMER'S BRIDGE. Laucaster Tp. July 30, 1860. MESSES, EVANS AND WATSON: GENTLEMEN-The small size No. 1 Salamander safe which | archased from your agent, Mr. Adam R Bar, in Lancaster City, on July-20th, 1858, has been subjected to a very severe test. which it withstood in a most satisfactory manner. This Safe, containing all my books together with valuable papers belonging to ayself and some to my neighbors and friends, and represeting a value of over Twenty Thous-and Dollars, ($20,000) was in my Mill which was destroyed on the night of the 27th of July, 1860, and passed through the fiery ordeal unscathed. The Safe was on the second floor and fell to the basement of the Mill, and was subjected for six bours to an intense heat among the rules, which was greatly increased by the combustion of a large quantity of grain confined within the orick walls. After the fire the safe was opened and the books and papers taken out in a state of perfect preservation, the paper not even being discolored, This fact was, however, to many bystanders a better recommendation of your Safes than could be expressed in any other words from
