

EBENSBURG AND CRESSON RAILROAD. On and after Monday, April 20, 1863, trains on this road will run as follows: LEAVE EBENSBURG—At 6.40 A. M., connecting with Through Accom. East and Balt. Ex. West.

THE WICKED FLEE, &c.—We learn from the Johnstown Tribune that on the night following the day of the return of the nine months volunteers to that place, the office of the Johnstown Democrat, a very Copperhead print, was guarded by a body of armed men, in anticipation of attack, although no threats had been uttered against the safety of the concern!

"FOR THE CONSTITUTION BUT FERVENTLY THE ADMINISTRATION."—At the Copperhead meeting held here on Tuesday night of last week, three cheers were given for Vallandigham—the infernal traitor who publicly boasts that, since the breaking out of the war, he has given every particle of his influence for the Rebellion and against the Government.

CRESSON SPRINGS.—This celebrated summer resort was opened for the reception of visitors on the 10th inst. A large number of improvements have been added to the house and grounds the present season, causing these to present a more tasteful and picturesque appearance than ever.

SUDDEN DEATH.—We neglected to chronicle last week the death of Mr. John V. Myers, of Pittsburgh, father-in-law of our fellow townsman, John Fenlon, Esq. He died on the 26th ultimo. He was sitting on a chair, talking to some friends, when all at once he fainted away, and in a few moments life had become extinct.

COURT.—The proceedings in our Quarter Sessions last week were generally of a trivial character, of no especial interest to the public at large. The week was wholly consumed in the disposition of petty cases, the majority of which hailed from Johnstown and thereabout. The attendance throughout was large—larger than usual. This week, the business being of a civil nature, there is not so much of a crowd present.

DRY TIMES.—The weather in this vicinity has been remarkably dry for some weeks past, no rain of any account having fallen for a considerable length of time. The grain, grass, and in fact all kinds of crops are suffering severely in consequence and, unless the Weather Clerk opens up soon, a half harvest or no harvest at all will be the result.

—We see the announcement in the daily papers that Surgeon R. M. S. Jackson, U. S. V., formerly of this county, has been appointed Medical Director of the 28d Army Corps, commanded by Gen. Hartuff.

A Card. EBENSBURG, June 1, 1863. To my Friends and the Public: Since my arrival in this place, I have learned that certain reports, detrimental to my character and honor as a gentleman and soldier, have been circulated by some designing person or persons, with a view of injuring me in the estimation of friends and the public generally. Below will be found Capt. Flanagan's letter to me, which clears me in toto of his or their nefarious charges. I am conscious of having inflicted injury on no one in the army or out of it, and had I done so, the army was the place to punish it, as the regulations and discipline of the army are very strict against evil doers. But they failed to find grounds to prefer charges against me there, and, like ignorant and dastardly cowards, they threw out their hell-born insinuations among their friends at home, in order to destroy my reputation, well knowing that "evil reports" lose nothing in being told, but true or false.

The consciousness of having done right, and the approval of my commanding officer, afford me more pleasure than their slanderous falsehoods can possibly give me pain. I think that I am possessed of some of that spirit which is said to elevate mortals to the skies, while I hope that I have none of that other spirit that would drag angels down. I would to heaven that my heart and conduct were laid open and written upon heaven's blue vault, that my friends and enemies might there read and be convinced of the rectitude of my intentions and conduct, while in the army and elsewhere. In conclusion I have only to say to those envious mortals who have tried to injure me, that their efforts to do so will in the end be the means of bringing them into disrepute, and the injury which they intended to inflict upon me will, in due time, fall upon their own guilty heads.

EBENSBURG, May 30, 1863. LIEUT. JAMES J. WILL—Dear Sir: I have heard with pain and regret, since I came to this place, that some ill-disposed and malicious person or persons have industriously circulated the report that while in camp you stole my sword and sold it. I have to say that this report is a base slander and lie. You paid me the full value of the sword and other things which you purchased from me in camp near Falmouth, Va., on the 19th of January, 1863. It affords me much pleasure to say that I have ever found you a gentleman and soldier, and in all instances you have discharged the duties incumbent on you with firmness and ability. I have ever found you honest, truthful, efficient and prompt, and always at your post in camp, on the march, and in action. You are at liberty to make whatever use you please of this letter.

THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE. —1863.— The New York Tribune first issued in 1841, now in its twenty-second year, has obtained both a larger and a more widely diffused circulation than any other newspaper ever published in America. Though it has suffered, in common with other journals, from the volunteering and departure of tens of thousands of its patrons to serve in the War for the Union, its circulation on its 6th day of December, 1862, is as follows: Daily, 50,125; Semi-Weekly, 17,250; Weekly, 148,000. Aggregate, 215,375.

Pre-eminently a journal of News and of Literature, The Tribune has political convictions which are well characterized by the single word REPUBLICAN. It is Republican in its hearty adhesion to the great truth that "God has made of one blood all nations of men"—Republican in its assertion of the equal and inalienable rights of all men to "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness"—Republican in its steadfast, earnest, defiant hostility to every scheme and effort of the Slave Power, from the Annexation of Texas to the great Rebellion, to grasp the empire of the New World and wield the resources of our country for its own aggrandizement—Republican in its antagonism to the aristocrats and despots of the C's World, who fondly hail in the perils and calamities suddenly thrust upon us by their American counterpart the overthrow and ruin of the Model Republic—Republican in its hope and trust in its faith and effort, that this atrocious Rebellion must result in the signal overthrow of its plotters, and the firm establishment of equal rights and equal laws throughout the whole extent of our country, wherein Liberty and Union shall indeed be "one and inseparable" henceforth and forever. The Tribune devotes attention in calmer times, and to some extent in these, to Education, Temperance, Agriculture, Invention, and whatever else may minister to the spiritual and material progress and well-being of mankind; but for the present its energies and its columns are mainly devoted to the invigoration and success of the War for the Union. Its special correspondents accompany every considerable army and report every important incident of that great struggle which we trust is soon to result in the signal and conclusive triumph of Peace and Thrift to us in the restoration of Peace and order in our distracted, bleeding country. We believe that no other wise can a fuller or more accurate view of the progress and character of this momentous conflict be obtained than through the regular perusal of our columns. And we earnestly solicit the co-operation of all friends of the National cause, which we regard and uphold as that of Universal Humanity, to aid us in extending its circulation. TERMS.—The enormous increase in the price of printing paper and other materials used in printing newspapers, compels us to increase the price of The Tribune. Our new terms are: DAILY TRIBUNE. 3 cents. Single Copy. Mail Subscribers, one year, (311 issues,) $8 SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE. One Copy, one year, (104 issues,) $3 Two Copies, one year, $5 Five Copies, one year, $12 Ten Copies, one year, $22 50 WEEKLY TRIBUNE. When drafts can be procured, it is much safer than to remit Bank Bills. The name of the Post Office and State should in all cases be plainly written.
