The Situation.

The following article upon the present situation, we copy from the New York Tribune of the 29th inst. : There is now no remaining doubt that the rebel army of Gen. Lee, One Hundred Thousand strong, is nearly or quite all this side the Potomac. Gen. Meade's Union army is where it should be to cover Washington and Baltimore, and meet him.

The rebels occupy most of Western Maryland-that is to say, so much of it as lies between the western slope of the South Mountains and Cumberland-and are treating it rather tenderly, being anxious to conciliate its people.

They also occupy a considerable section of Southern Pennsylvania, from Gettysburg on the East to a point near McConnellsburg on the West, and are stripping it very clean-of Horses, Cattle, Grain, Flour, Groceries, Dry Goods, Medicines, and whatever else they can convert to any use. They are living immensely better than they have done for many months back. In short, they find the accommodations so good that they have half a mind to stay.

They have more recently broken up the Railroad running from Harrisburg to Baltimore, having torn up the rails at Hanover Junction and possibly at York tions. for that purpose.

A single line of Railroad-the Philaadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimorenow connects the loyal States with Washington and the Union Government and the Army of the Potomac.

A bloody and momentous collision may be imminent, and may secur at any mo-

We judge that the rebels have made this hazardous advance under the impression that our chief Army is demoralized, and not in fighting spirits. We trust that they may rue this presumption.

We do not believe Lee intends to push much further this way at present, but rather to take the Union Army at a disadvantage and beat it, after which he will determine whether to advance to Philadelphia or turn upon Baltimore and Washington. But we shall soon see.

War News.

Dispatches from the army of the Potomac, dated June 27th, state that it will soon be to the front and north of Baltimore. The heavy rains have made the roads so bad that the movements are necessarily very slow.

HARRISBURG. June 27 .- Carlisle was occupied about 10 o'clock this morning by lamation of the Governor, calling for the rebels. Our cavalry force is gradually

The rebels evacuated M'Connellsburg at nine o'clock yesterday morning. On Thursday evening their pickets were driven in by a detachment of the 1st N. Y. cavalry, under Maj. Adams, causing quite an alarm among them. The cause of their retreat is supposed to the fear of a flank movement-an operation for which the country offers great facilities.

The rebels were about 5,000 strong, Department of the Susquehanna and the under command of Gen. Stuart. They retreated in the direction of Chambersburg, and will to-day re-enforce their forces that are measing Harrisburg.

A destructive raid was made through the lower part of that county by a body of Imboden's men. They paid no respect to any kind of property whatever, and what they could not carry away they destroyed.

A skirmish occurred in Wrightsville, till surrounded and overpowered. Over pose. one hundred men were captured, and the rest retreated across across the bridge.

The bridge was then fired by our men o prevent the rebels crossing.

Proclamation by the Governor---Sixty Thousand Three-Months' Men Called for.

HARRISBURG, June 26 .- The following important proclamation of the Governor has just been issued:

PENNSYLVANIANS! In the name and by the authority of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, I, ANDREW G. CURTIN, Governor of the said Commonwealth,

A Proclamation.

The enemy is advancing in force into Pennsylvania. He has a strong column within twenty-three miles of Harrisburg, and other columns are moving by Fulton and Adams counties, and it can no longer be doubted that a formidable invasion of our State is in actual progress.

The calls already made for volunteer militia, in the exigency, have not been met as fully as the crisis requires.

I therefore now issue this my proclamation calling for sixty thousand men, to come promptly forward, to defend the State. They will be mustered into the service of the State for the period of ninety days, but will be required to serve only so much of the period of muster as the safety of our people and honor of our State may require. They will rendezvous at points to be designated in the general order to be issued this day by the Adjt. General of Pennsylvania, which order will also set forth the details of the arrangements for organization, clothing, subsistence, equipments, and supplies.

I will not insult you by inflammatory appeals. A people who want the heart to defend their soil, their families, and their fire-sides, are not worthy to be accounted men. Heed not the counsels of evil-disposed persons, if such there be in your midst. Show yourselves what Pittsburg and the West do not seem to you are-a free, loyal, spirited, brave, the citizens of other States. In defendcontributing to the support of our National Government, and vindicating our fidelity to the national cause. People of Pennsylvania, I owe to you all my faculties, my labors, my life. You owe to your country your prompt and zealous services and efforts. The time has now come when we must all stand or fall together in the defence of our State and in the support of our Government .-Let us so discharge our duty that posterity shall not blush for us.

Come heartily and cheerfully to the rescue of our noble Commonwealth .-Maintain now your honor and freedom.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the State, at Harrisburg, this the 26th day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and of the Commonwealth the eighty-seventh.
