OUR MILITIA: WHERE THEY ARE AND WHAT THEY ARE DOING.—PARTICULARS OF THEIR CAMPAIGN UP TO DATE—MUSTER-ROLL OF COMPANIES, &c., &c.

"CAMP EMERGENCY," Near Bloody Run, Bedford Co., Pa., June 27, 1863. Correspondence of The Alleghanian.

As the mass of your local readers are no doubt aware, the company of which your correspondent has the honor of being a member left Ebensburg on the 18th inst., in prompt response to the call of the Governor for militia to protect the borders of the State from invasion.

Our company is composed principally of members of the old Ebensburg militia company—Co. E, 4th Penna. Vol. Militia—which underwent a two weeks' campaign in Southern Pennsylvania and Maryland, last September, sharing in all the perils and privations of that bloodless campaign.

Leaving Ebensburg at 7 A. M., 18th inst., we arrived at Altoona by 10 o'clock. There we drew our guns—and nothing else. No knapsacks, haversacks, canteens nor cartridge-boxes were given us.

When we left home, it was with the implied understanding that we were to go to Harrisburg. At Altoona, however, we received orders directing us to march hither. This was a sore disappointment to many of us, but we did not grumble.

We expect to hear a great deal of prating about "military arrests," and "small officials aping the example of their superiors in authority," but do not feel alarmed for the ultimate result, having firm faith in our law abiding and order loving citizens, and though mob law may for a while reign supreme, yet in the end Justice will be vindicated.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE, "welcome as flowers in Spring," has also made us its regular monthly visit. This publication takes a high rank in regard to the large amount of available recipes and patterns which it furnishes.

at 6 P. M., encamping over night in the school room of the village. On the 20th, left Buckstown at 8 A. M., arriving at Bedford—ten miles distant from Buckstown—at 1 P. M. Rested for an hour or two, when we again started, reaching this point—six miles from Bedford—the same evening.

Although there are several militia companies here, we have not as yet been formed into regiments. Col. Higgins, of Blair county, however, is acting Colonel. Hon. S. S. Blair is acting Quartermaster.

There are two Cambria companies here—Capt. Wm. R. Hughes, of Wilmore, and ours. Four Johnstown companies came down thus far with us, but, on reporting to Col. Higgins, they were told that a large force of Rebels were supposed to be threatening Johnstown; whereupon they about faced and returned home.

But this letter is growing too long, and I will conclude by giving you the muster-roll of our company. It is as follows:

- Captain: R. Litzinger. Lieutenants: 1st D. O. Evans, 2d E. D. Evans. Sergeants: 1st C. T. Roberts, 2d J. T. Hutchinson, 3d D. J. Jones, 4th D. A. Jones, 5th Edward Owens. Corporals: 1st Hugh Jones, 2d J. P. M. Miller, 3d D. W. Evans, 4th D. K. Davis, 5th Enoch Rees, 6th Erasmus P. Evans, 7th J. Hawksworth, 8th Newton J. Roberts. Musician: A. J. Litzinger. Mail Messenger: Tom P. Davis. Privates: W. H. Adams, Simon Adams, Uriah Brown, Wm Campbell, Philip Dolan, John D. Davis, Joshua Davis, Edward T. Davis, William T. Davis, Aaron Davis, T. S. Empfield, D. J. Evans, Jerry Evans, Lemuel Evans, Hugh H. Evans, Augustus Evans, Richard Griffith, John Gittings, Matthias Hawkins, David Howell, Thomas J. Hughes, David P. Hughes, Richard Hughes, John Hughes, William M. James, Daniel T. James, Edmund James, D. J. Jones, (West), William A. Jones, Edwin Jones, George A. Wilson, Charles Jones, Dwight Jones, George W. Jones, David H. Kinkead, Newton Lloyd, Frank Leavy, J. M'Onigal, D. M'Onigal, S. M'Onigal, William Morgan, Alexander Mills, Adam L. Makin, Oliver O'Hara, Frank O. Powell, Elias D. Powell, Richard W. Pryce, William D. Pryce, John D. Roberts, Richard J. Roberts, Elias Rowland, George F. Robinson, Edwin Rodgers, Luther Stiles, Wallace Stiles, James B. Singer, Adam Shindelft, Samuel Thomas, David T. Williams, William Williams, [Total, 79.]

I will send you the roll of Capt. Hughes' company for next week.

Send all letters intended for us to "Bloody Run P. O., Bedford county, Pa.—Care Captain Litzinger." We will most likely get them.

ARRESTED.—On Thursday, 18th inst., Deputy Provost Marshal Heyer arrested three men, named John M'Kenzie, Jos. Will and David Watt, in the borough of Chest Springs, upon the charges of uttering disloyal and treasonable sentiments, of inciting a mob to attempt the life of Mr. J. Varney, the enrolling officer of that district, and of refusing to give the enrolling officer the required information relative to name and age. They were conveyed to Pittsburg for trial.

The prompt action of the Marshal in this matter is certainly highly commendable, and may be fraught with good results to the community at large, in assuring those who will persist in "rendering aid and comfort to the enemy" that they will finally be overtaken by a just and merited retribution.

We expect to hear a great deal of prating about "military arrests," and "small officials aping the example of their superiors in authority," but do not feel alarmed for the ultimate result, having firm faith in our law abiding and order loving citizens, and though mob law may for a while reign supreme, yet in the end Justice will be vindicated.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE, "welcome as flowers in Spring," has also made us its regular monthly visit. This publication takes a high rank in regard to the large amount of available recipes and patterns which it furnishes. We cheerfully recommend it to our subscribers.

MARRIED.—In M'Veytown, on the 18th inst., by Rev. D. D. Clark, Mr. HOWARD J. ROBERTS, of Johnstown, Pa., to Miss MARY SWOYER, of the former place.

Since the days of Long Ago, when the injunction that "it is not good for man to be alone," was first promulgated, man has been acting upon that principle, and our friend Howard, in following the general example, has, we trust, done wisely and well. We congratulate the parties, and most sincerely hope that their married life may be happy and blessed beyond their expectations, and that their bright and joyous anticipations of a happy future may be abundantly realized; but, should their sky be checkered with clouds of sorrow, may she find that he in whose keeping she has entrusted her happiness for life, is, indeed, worthy the confidence, while he ever recognizes in her a guardian angel o'er his life presiding, Doubling his pleasure, and his care dividing.

TO OUR PATRONS.—Owing to the fact that our Publisher, becoming imbued with the military ardor prevalent in our quiet little village consequent upon the calling out of the militia, to defend our State from the incursion of the Rebel hordes, "buckled on his armor" and accompanied the band of militia that left our midst a short time since, we were unable to issue our paper last week. We have, however, made arrangements which we think will ensure its regular publication during his absence; but should it not present its accustomed workmanlike appearance, we trust our readers will overlook the defections, and accept the assurance that we shall do our best until his return.

The Knickerbocker Monthly, for July, fully sustains its high reputation as a literary Magazine. The present number contains "Physical Exercise," "A Dream which is not all a Dream," "July," "Subjective Poetry," "The Last War of the Dryads," "My Aunt Hepzibah," "Deponency," "Napoleon to his Soldiers," "A Day-Dream," and "Adrift on the World," besides embracing in its miscellaneous contents, notes upon current events, reviews of new books, and literary, art, scientific, musical and dramatic Gossip. Terms, $3 per year. Address Kinahan Cornwallis, 37 Park Row, New York.

Godley's Lady's Book for July, freighted with more than its usual load of interesting matter, has been received. To those of our lady friends who wish to be posted monthly in regard to what to wear, and how to wear it, we would at once say, "Subscribe, and have the benefit of the really fine engravings and fashion plates with which every number is replete."

Prevalent—high winds.

THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE. 1863. The New York Tribune first issued in 1841, now in its twenty-second year, has obtained both a larger and a more widely diffused circulation than any other newspaper ever published in America. Though it has suffered, in common with other journals, from the volunteering and departure of tens of thousands of its patrons to serve in the War for the Union, its circulation on this 6th day of December, 1862, is as follows:

Table with columns: Daily, Semi-Weekly, Weekly, Aggregate, 50,125, 17,250, 148,000, 215,375. Pre-eminently a journal of News and of Literature, the Tribune has political convictions which are well characterized by the single word REPUBLICAN. It is Republican in its hearty adhesion to the great truth that "God has made of one blood all nations of men"—Republican in its assertion of the equal and inalienable rights of all men to "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness"—Republican in its steadfast, earnest, defiant hostility to every scheme and effort of the Slave Power, from the Annexation of Texas to the Great Rebellion, to grasp the empire of the New World and wield the resources of our country for its own aggrandizement—Republican in its antagonism to the aristocrats and despots of the C. S. World, who fondly hail in the perils and calamities suddenly thrust upon us by their American counterpart the overthrow and ruin of the Model Republic—Republican in its hope and trust, its faith and effort, that this atrocious Rebellion must result in the signal overthrow of its plotters, and the firm establishment of equal rights and equal laws throughout the whole extent of our country, wherein Liberty and Union shall indeed be "one and inseparable" henceforth and forever. The Tribune devotes attention in calmer times, and to some extent in these, to Education, Temperance, Agriculture, Invention, and whatever else may minister to the spiritual and material progress and well-being of mankind; but for the present its energies and its columns are mainly devoted to the invigoration and success of the War for the Union. Its special correspondents accompany every considerable army and report every important incident of that great struggle which we trust is soon to result in the signal and conclusive triumph of the National arms and in the restoration of Peace and Thrift to our distracted, bleeding country. We believe that no otherwise can a fuller or more accurate view of the progress and character of this momentous conflict be obtained than through the regular perusal of our columns, and we earnestly solicit the co-operation of all friends of the National cause, which we regard and uphold as that of Universal Humanity, to aid us in extending its circulation. TERMS:—The enormous increase in the price of printing paper and other materials used in printing newspapers, compels us to increase the price of The Tribune. Our new terms are:

Table with columns: Single Copy, 3 cents; Mail Subscribers, one year, (31 Issues), $3; SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE, One Copy, one year, (104 Issues), $3; Two Copies, one year, $5; Five Copies, one year, $12; Ten Copies, one year, $22.50; WEEKLY TRIBUNE, One Copy, one year, (52 Issues), $2; Three Copies, one year, $5; Five Copies, one year, $8; Ten Copies, one year, $15. Any larger number, addressed to names of subscribers, $1.50 each. An extra copy will be sent to every club of ten. Twenty copies, to one address, one year, $15, and any larger number at same price.—An extra copy will be sent to clubs of twenty. To clubs of thirty, THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE will be sent. To clubs of fifty, THE DAILY TRIBUNE will be sent gratis. Address THE TRIBUNE, Tribune Buildings, New York.

When drafts can be procured, it is much safer than to remit Bank Bills. The name of the Post Office and State should in all cases be plainly written. Subscribers who send money by Express must prepay the Express charges, else it will be deducted from the remittance.
