From Our Volunteers. LETTER FROM THE 13TH PENNA. CAVALRY—THEIR PRESENT LOCATION, PROSPECTS, &c. CAMP CURTIN, Sept. 10, 1863. Correspondence of The Alleghenian.

Inasmuch as some of your old patrons and acquaintances are members of our company, and seeing that we have left those behind who are not altogether indifferent to our welfare, I have thought proper to drop you these lines. Some time during the early part of the summer, the War Department issued an order for the consolidation of the companies composing the 13th Penna. Cavalry, and for the recruiting of a new battalion.

A great many of the mountaineers of Little Cambria quitted the peaceful pursuits of home and joined this new battalion, and are now soldiers of the Union, in quest of traitors. They are all practised marksmen, and will no doubt do good execution when they are afforded an opportunity to "draw a bead" on the enemy.

We will not receive our horses and equipments until we go to Alexandria, Va., from whence we will be immediately sent to the front—where every true soldier wants to be. It were folly for a man to start soldiering for three years without making up his mind to do a little fighting.

Our battalion are the only occupants of this camp at present. It is rumored that we will soon take up the line of march, when Camp Curtin will have become effectually played out.

The Cambria boys are all in the enjoyment of excellent health. LEANDER.

A SAD OCCURRENCE.—We clip the following from the Johnstown Tribune: On Sunday morning, 6th inst., a little son of Levi Holland, residing in the part of Johnstown known as Hornerstown, while driving the family cow to the pasture field by a rope around her horns, tied the other end of the rope around his body, and as the two proceeded the cow from some cause became frightened and ran, throwing the boy down and dragging him for some distance over a rough road. When found he was still tied to the cow, and so shockingly mangled and bruised as to be scarcely alive. There are several versions of the cause of the cow's fright—one that he attempted to ride the cow, another that his hat blew off and frightened her, and another that he stumped his toe and fell, and thus started her—but as there was no one with him at the time, and nobody saw the occurrence, and he was unable to speak for himself, the cause or causes leading to it are left to conjecture. The little fellow lingered in unconsciousness until about three o'clock, Monday morning, when death relieved him of his sufferings. He was aged about twelve years.

ON THE MUSCLE.—A refreshing row occurred in Johnstown a few days since. A recruiting officer, named Sharrer, got into a difficulty with some of the Copperheads of that gay and festive burg concerning the arrest of a supposed deserter by the former. At first the affair was confined to words, but it soon took the guise of blows. A general "pitch in" fight ensued. The recruiting officer's friends were on the ground in force, and the Copperheads were also well represented; so the "pitch in" was on rather an extensive scale than otherwise. Pistols were drawn, brickbats propelled, rude knocks administered, and biting and gouging given and taken with a hearty good will. No one was seriously injured, however, in the melee, and—all is quiet once more on the Stony Creek.

THE INSTITUTE.—Our teacher friends should bear in remembrance that the fall session of the Cambria County Teachers' Institute is to be held at Wilmore on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, 28th, 29th and 30th inst. Great efforts are being made to render the programme of exercises for the occasion as full and interesting as possible, and the indications are that it will be a success. Teachers, Directors, and friends of Education generally, are invited to be present.

COM'N. VS. JAMES J. KAYLOR.—The case which excited the most interest at our Quarter Sessions, last week, was that of the Commonwealth vs. James J. Kaylor, Steward of the Cambria county Poor House. This was an action for assault and battery, alleged to have been committed in June last, upon the person of one Richard M'Williams, the prosecutor, a pauper and inmate of the Poor House. The facts of the case, as elicited by the evidence of the prosecutor, we believe to be substantially as follows: Kaylor, for some alleged infraction of the rules of the Poor House on the part of M'Williams, in June, made an assault on the latter, precipitating him to the floor, kicking him in several places, choking him, and otherwise doing him bodily harm. Altho' the province of the Steward to inflict certain descriptions of punishment upon refractory paupers was not denied, this exercise of brute force was thought to transcend his authority in the premises. Accordingly action was brought to determine whether knocking down and dragging out was in order in the Poor House. The case occupied a couple of days in its trial, and many facts relative to the inside workings of the Poor House were brought to light, which, if strictly true, reflect no little discredit upon those in power in and about that institution.—Eminent counsel was employed on both sides, and no stone was left unturned to prove the guilt and innocence, respectively, of the defendant. Although the evidence of the prosecutor on some points was pretty full, and his story of wrong and oppression confirmed to a certain extent by the evidence of others, still it was thought insufficient for the conviction of Mr. Kaylor. After a retrial to their private room for about an hour, the jury returned with a verdict of not guilty, but that the defendant pay half the costs.—In his charge to the jury, the Judge laid down the maxim that the application by Mr. Kaylor, or any other man, of any unnecessary amount of force to compel obedience to the requirements of the Poor House regulations—all unnecessary, or excessive, or too finely wrought demonstrations of a physical character—the unmerciful beating and disfiguring of a fellow man—constituted assault and battery—which is not only law but common sense. The evidence against Mr. Kaylor was given principally by inmates of the Poor House.

We rejoice that Mr. Kaylor—a Cambria county public official—has thus been vindicated from the charges preferred against him. Had the result been otherwise—had he been convicted on the evidence of M'Williams and the others—then indeed would he have been proven and written down a tyrant.—"Whose withering influence ran through all the influence of the mind, And smote and milled the man."

ORDER NO. 1.—Annexed is the initial ordinance relative to the government of our Market House as promulgated by the borough authorities:

An Ordinance: It is hereby ordained and enacted by the Burgess and Town Council of the borough of Ebensburg, that a regular Market shall be established within the limits of the said borough, to be held at the Market House in the borough; that the market days shall be on Tuesday and Saturday of each week, the market to be opened at 5 o'clock and closed at 10 o'clock, A. M.; that no marketing shall be exposed to sale, sold, bartered, or huckstered, within the borough, on Monday and Friday of each week, or on said market days before 10 o'clock, A. M.; that this ordinance shall go into operation at the end of ten days from the publication hereof by handbill, (at which time a code of rules and regulations for the government of the market will be published;) and that all persons violating this ordinance shall be liable to forfeit and pay to the borough a fine of not less than one nor more than ten dollars, at the discretion of the Burgess.

A true extract from the minutes, certified this 5th day of September, 1863. JAMES MYERS, Burgess. GEO. M. REED, Sec'y.

FROM A DISTANCE.—The Bedford Inquirer pays the following merited compliment to a gentleman with whom the majority of our readers are well acquainted: "We notice that our old friend, Capt. Litzinger, of Belsano, Cambria co., is an independent candidate for Register and Recorder of that county. We don't know any one that we would sooner see elected than the Captain. He certainly has the qualifications to make a splendid officer. We hope to be able to record his election, although a Democrat, by an overwhelming majority."

—Owing to a press of business, the examination of the conscripts of this county, we understand, has been deferred for the period of nearly a month—that is to say, until about the middle of October. This fact will necessitate the serving of other notices upon Abraham's chosen, informing them of the lucky procrastination in their favor.

WANTED: Book-keepers, Clerks, and Active Men for Business.—Owing to the changes caused by the war, there exists throughout the country a most wonderful demand for competent and skillful book-keepers, clerks, &c. So great is this demand that notwithstanding the number of students at the Iron City College, Pittsburg, Pa., has been more than doubled during the past year, it has not been able to supply the calls made upon it for book-keepers and clerks. Young men contemplating a preparation for business, which this year promises to be more active than usual, should avail themselves at once of the advantages afforded by this popular institution, and prepare themselves for fall and winter business.

PROMOTED.—It gives us much pleasure to announce that Adj. R. A. M'Coy, of the 11th Penna. Reserves, has been promoted to the Majority of the regiment to which he belongs, vice Major Speer, resigned. "Bob" has been a soldier since the very outbreak of the rebellion, and has participated in all of the many battles in which the Reserves were engaged. He has always done his duty gallantly and well, reflecting honor alike upon himself and his native county. May his future career, like his past, be upward.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—A man named William Coulter, a resident of Summitville, this county, was instantly killed near Johnstown, on Saturday last, by falling off a freight train in full motion.—He fell upon the track, several cars passing over him and literally cutting him to pieces. His remains were taken to Summitville on Sunday and interred.—The deceased was a brakeman, and engaged in the duties of his avocation when he met his death.

IT SEEMS to be a settled fact that no Fair will be held inside the limits of this county the present autumn. A State Fair, however, will be held at Norristown, near Philadelphia, on the 29th and 30th days of September, inst., and the 1st and 2d of October, to which all who are so inclined and who possess a sufficiency of the spontaneous can go and put in a pleasant time. Excursion tickets will be issued on the various railroads.

A CARD.—Philadelphia, August 15, 1863.—Ed. Alleghenian: At a stated meeting of the members of the Cooper Shop Volunteer Refreshment Saloon, it was unanimously resolved to tender Mr. James R. Cooper, of Summerhill, Cambria county, a vote of thanks for his kindness in forwarding to our institution a lot of poultry and eggs, which were received in perfect order and duly appreciated. Respectfully, WM. M. MAULL, Sec'y.

EXCURSION TICKETS TO THE MASS MEETING.—Do not fail to attend the Grand Union Mass Meeting, to be held in Ebensburg, to-morrow—Thursday, 17th. With commendable liberality, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has consented to issue excursion tickets to those desiring to be present, good for two days, the 17th and 18th. Come—and bring your friends with you.

MARRIED: On Wednesday evening, 9th inst., at the Scott House, Johnstown, by Rev. A. C. Ehrenfeldt, Mr. JAMES G. HUMES and Miss ANNA M. FICK, both of Cresson, this county. Our young friends, the bride and groom, have our warmest wishes for their future prosperity. May they live forever, and their lives be merry as long.

—In the list of contributions to the United States Christian Commission, (army,) for the month of August, we notice the Presbyterian Church of this place credited with the sum of $21.00. The money could not have been better invested.

—Owing to physical disability resulting from a wound received at the second battle of Bull Run, Lieut. Rollie M. Jones, of Co. A, 11th Penna. Reserves, has been transferred to the Invalid Corps. We did not learn the rank assigned him.

DR. TOBIAS' VENETIAN LINIMENT.—A certain cure for pains and aches, and warranted superior to any other. Croup it positively cures; relief is absolutely sure immediately it is used. Mothers, remember this, and arm yourselves with a bottle without delay.—Croup is a disease which gives no notice, frequently attacking the child in the dead hour of night; before a physician can be summoned it may be too late. Remember, the Venetian Liniment never fails. Price 25 and 50 cents a bottle. Sold by all Druggists. Office, 56 Cortlandt st., New York.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to use them. J. NEWTON BROWN. PHILAD'A., JUNE 23, 1861.

ATTENTION SOLDIERS!

Will build up the constitution, and give health and strength to an overtaken and diseased system.

PHILADELPHIA, August 12, 1862. DR. C. M. JACKSON.—Dear Sir: While in Virginia, owing to the change of water, I was taken with a severe diarrhoea, which seemed incurable, and which greatly weakened me. When we reached Martinsburg, I feared that I should have to come home; but noticing some of your Bitters in the store of Mr. H. H. Price, in that town, I purchased a supply, and on taking it was speedily restored to health. The diarrhoea was quickly checked, and I experienced no return of it. A number of my comrades who suffered in the same manner and from the same cause, with whom I shared the Bitters, join me in this certificate. I expect to return to the seat of war with the Legion, and I shall certainly take a supply of the Bitters in my knapsack. I would not be without it for its weight in gold, particularly on going into a limestone region. Yours truly, A. E. ALMEUS, Company D, Scott Legion.
