

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

CHIT-CHAT WITH OUR READERS.—The present is the season of the sere and yellow leaf: of flowers withered and trees denuded: of desolated prospects and dismal surroundings—these are the "melancholy days."

visible to the naked eye. Our coop continues tenantless, and its cavernous depths echo to nary a gobble! To put in a Thanksgiving without at the same time putting in a turkey, is an utter impossibility. The thing can't be did! We distinctly repudiate the bare idea. Of course, we must have a turkey. And we believe that the failure thus far to supply us with one—a very large one—is only an unaccountable oversight on the part of somebody.

EXEMPTIONS FROM THE DRAFT.—The following is an abstract of exemptions granted to Drafted Persons by the Board of Enrollment of the 17th District, Pennsylvania, during the week ending October 10, 1863, with the cause of exemption stated in each case:

Patrick Mealey, Allegheny, disability. Benedict Hight, " non-residence. Anthony Hoffman, " disability. Gallitzin Christy, " disability. Francis A Gibbons, " non-residence. Michael Vauser, Loretto, alienage. John G Lake, Loretto, only son aged and infirm parents.

Talking of chimneys reminds us that this is the season when much danger is to be apprehended from conflagrations.—Chimneys are now being brought into use which were allowed to lie idle all summer, thereby, in many cases, falling into a bad old state of repair or positive insecurity. If you have not done so already, see to it that your flues are not only good conductors of flame and smoke, but also that they are safe conductors. Be particular that the inevitable "croak" occupies its proper position, and allow no portion of the pipe to come in contact with any wood-work.

We always pity the person who never attended corn-huskings—which do much about now. Ostensibly gotten up for practical purposes, they are in reality more practicable than practical, and more poetical than either. We will not attempt to further describe one than to say that the "event" of the evening is the finding of a "red ear"—by a ladie, of course—which is the signal for an indiscriminate and prolonged blunder, counter, or any other style of bussing of all the pretty lassies present by the lucky husker. We distinctly recollect of our always taking with us, in our side coat pocket, a couple of these red ears when on huskings intent, for a self-evident purpose. Ah! we almost wish we were a boy again!

If you never attended a corn-husking, reader, you at least most likely have read something about them. And maybe you recollect the circumstances attendant upon the going-home together of the rustic lover and his inamorata, after the work had been done and the fun was over;—how the delicious darling told him that—innocently—that—without thinking, you know—that he had failed to catch her when making the grand rounds of rosie faces after finding a red ear! and how he rectified his omission forthwith; and how she said that she wished red ears only grew plentier than they did; and how he ended up by exclaiming:

"Rosy, ripe, and red. The pride of perfection's years: Sweetest, brightest, and best—Red cheeks—red lips—red ears!" This brings us to talk about Thanksgiving matters. Turkey rules the roast of Thanksgiving, and corn, and no mistake, rules the turkey. We are sorry to say Our Turkey has not yet made himself visible to the naked eye. Our coop continues tenantless, and its cavernous depths echo to nary a gobble! To put in a Thanksgiving without at the same time putting in a turkey, is an utter impossibility. The thing can't be did! We distinctly repudiate the bare idea. Of course, we must have a turkey. And we believe that the failure thus far to supply us with one—a very large one—is only an unaccountable oversight on the part of somebody.

PRESBYTERIAN SYNOD.—The Pittsburgh Synod of the Presbyterian Church met in Johnstown, on Tuesday, 20th inst. Over one hundred ministers and elders were present. Dr. W. D. Howard, of the 2d Church, Pittsburgh, last Moderator, preached the opening sermon, from the text, "For in the last days perilous times shall come." This discourse was an eloquent one, full of piety and self-sacrifice, avoiding no topic of the day, but setting forth fearlessly the duty of the ministry and the church in these perilous times. The Synod was organized by the election of Rev. Richard Lee, of Lawrenceville, Allegheny county, Moderator, and Rev. A. O. Miller temporary Clerk. A narrative of the state of religion within the bounds of the Synod, was read by Dr. Jacobus. The exercises throughout the entire session were of a highly interesting nature.

COMMISSIONERS' CLERK.—We understand that Mr. William H. Sechler, of Ebensburg, has been appointed Clerk to the County Commissioners of this county, vice Mr. John Lloyd. The latter gentleman loves the welfare of his country more than his party—a state of affairs which quickly determined the new Board to cut off his head, although he had served the people with eminent ability during the past year.

DIED.—On the 16th of October, 1863, in Diamondville, Indiana county, Miss JENNIE BUTERBAUGH, daughter of Jacob R. and Lydia Buterbaugh, aged about 32 years.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge. Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others. I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to use them. J. NEWTON BROWN. PHILADELPHIA, JUNE 23, 1861.

ATTENTION SOLDIERS! Will build up the constitution, and give health and strength to an overtaken and diseased system. PHILADELPHIA, August 12, 1862. DR. C. M. JACKSON.—Dear Sir: While in Virginia, owing to the change of water, I was taken with a severe diarrhoea, which seemed incurable, and which greatly weakened me. When we reached Martinsburg, I feared that I should have to come home; but noticing some of your Bitters in the store of Mr. H. H. Price, in that town, I purchased a supply, and on taking it was speedily restored to health. The diarrhoea was quickly checked, and I experienced no return of it. A number of my comrades who suffered in the same manner and from the same cause, with whom I shared the Bitters, join me in this certificate. I expect to return to the seat of war with the Legion, and I shall certainly take a supply of the Bitters in my knapsack. I would not be without it for its weight in gold, particularly on going into a limestone region. Yours, truly, A. E. ALMRTS, Company H, Scott Legion.
