LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.

JOHNSTOWN, Nov. 8, 1863.

Dear Alleghenian: The show flakes are falling rapidly, as I write, covering the earth with a mantle of white, and giving unmistakable evidence that the Ice-King has assumed the sceptre, and commenced his bleak reign. In view of the fact that cold weather is now upon us, there is a subject which every editor should enlarge upon, which is, that associations should be formed for the relief of the destitute families of our volunteers. It is praiseworthy to assist in relieving the privations and sufferings of our brave volunteers, but many a heart in the tented field will ache to-night, by thinking of destitute wives and families left to the cold mercies of an uncharitable world. There is no use in trying to disguise the fact that there are many of this class in our midst, and whilst we honor the sacrifice of husband or son, should we not in some measure alleviate the hardship and suffering of wife or parent whose sacrifices are still greater? This is a subject which commends itself to the serious attention of the community at large, and although the county provides a pittance for these destitute, yet the sum is not sufficient to meet their wants.— Whilst our volunteers in the field are braving the dangers and enduring the privations of war, something must be done to alleviate the lot of those dependent upon them; more real service will thus be done our soldiers than all the luxuries which kind hands are monthly forwarding for their benefit, can possibly confer. This is rather out of the line of local correspondence, but the sight of thinly-clad women traversing our streets, with marks of suffering in their faces, has led me to write the above.

In the local line, nothing unusual has transpired during the past week, and I am at a loss to make my letter interesting. The young ladies of the Catholic congregation are making arrangements to hold a grand fair in their new church for the purpose, I understand, of contributing their mite towards its completion. From a knowledge of the fair ones who have the matter in hand, I have no doubt their fair will be a success.

SHOCKING CASUALTY.—MAN KILLED.

On Wednesday of last week, 4th inst., a young man named John D. Brown, formerly of Summerhill, this county, but latterly a resident of Gloucester, N. J., came to his death under the following circumstances: He had gone out hunting, alone, in the vicinity of Summerhill, on the morning of the above day, and when attempting to climb over a fallen tree, his gun—loaded with shot—was accidentally discharged, the load taking effect in his right temple, fracturing his skull, and tearing away a portion of the brain.— Strange to say, he was not instantly killed; when found, in the afternoon, he was still living, and continued to breathe until about 7 o'clock, when he expired. The distressing condition of the sufferer was first discovered unto his friends thro' the fidelity of a dog that had accompanied him on his ill-starred expedition. When Mr. B. fell, the animal, with wonderful instinct, made its way back in the direction of home until it came up with two men, whom it induced, by means of pitiful howling and singular behavior generally, to believe that something was wrong. Accordingly, the men followed into the woods, the faithful dog leading the way, and in a short time the bleeding form of the unfortunate man was revealed to their astounded view. Medical aid was immediately summoned, but the sufferer was declared beyond the reach of earthly skill to heal.

THE ABOVE LIST CONCLUDES THE EXEMPTIONS FOR THIS COUNTY.

"HAVE YOU GOT THE GREENBACKS READY?"—Samuel J. Royer, Collector of U. S. Internal Revenue for Cambria co., gives notice that he will be at Wilmore on Friday, 13th inst., at Cresson, Saturday, 14th, at Loretto, Monday, 16th, at Chest Springs, Tuesday, 17th, at Carrolltown, Wednesday, 18th, at Ebensburg, Thursday and Friday, 19th and 20th, and at Johnstown at any time prior to 23d inst., for the collection of excise and income taxes.

SNOW!—On Friday last, we were visited by the first snow of the season. On Sunday and Monday, the flakes descended in real midwinter style, covering the ground to the depth of probably an inch. At the present writing, (Tuesday,) the ground is still partly clothed in white, and all nature wears the impress of the dainty fingers of the Frost-King. Winter is coming!

TAKEN PRISONER.—Corporal Frank Leavy, of Capt. Gregg's company, 13th Penna. Cavalry, was taken prisoner by the Rebels at Jefferson, Va., on the 12th ult. Thirty-seven of his comrades were captured at the same time and place.— Corp. L. resides in Loretto, this county.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to use them.

J. NEWTON BROWN. PHILADELPHIA, JUNE 23, 1861.

ATTENTION SOLDIERS!

Will build up the constitution, and give health and strength to an overtaken and diseased system.

PHILADELPHIA, August 12, 1862. DR. C. M. JACKSON.—Dear Sir: While in Virginia, owing to the change of water, I was taken with a severe diarrhoea, which seemed incurable, and which greatly weakened me. When we reached Martinsburg, I feared that I should have to come home; but noticing some of your Bitters in the store of Mr. H. H. Price, in that town, I purchased a supply, and on taking it was speedily restored to health. The diarrhoea was quickly checked, and I experienced no return of it. A number of my comrades who suffered in the same manner and from the same cause, with whom I shared the Bitters, join me in this certificate. I expect to return to the seat of war with the Legion, and I shall certainly take a supply of the Bitters in my knapsack. I would not be without it for its weight in gold, particularly on going into a limestone region.

Yours, truly, A. E. ALMEUS, Company H, Scott Legion.

PROVOST MARSHAL'S OFFICE, 17th DIST., PENNA., HUNTINGDON, June 11, 1873.

MEN WANTED FOR THE INVALID CORPS. Only those faithful soldiers who, from wounds of the hardships of war, are no longer fit for active field duty will be received into this Corps of Honor.

For the convenience of service, the men will be selected for three grades of duty.— Those who are most efficient and able bodied, and capable of performing guard duty, etc., will be armed with muskets, and assigned to companies of the 1st Battalion. Those of the next degree of efficiency, including those who have lost a hand or an arm; and the least effective, including those who have lost a foot or a leg, to the companies of the Second or Third Battalions; they will be armed with swords.

The duties will be chiefly to act as provost guards and garrisons for cities; guards for hospitals and other public buildings; and as clerks, orderlies, etc. If found necessary they may be assigned to forts, etc.

Acting Assistant Provost Marshals General are authorized to appoint Officers of the Regular Service, or of the Invalid Corps, to administer the oath of enlistment to those men who have completely fulfilled the prescribed conditions of admission to the Invalid Corps, viz:

1. That the applicant is unfit for service in the field.

2. That he is fit for the duties, or some of them, indicated above.

3. That, if not now in the service, he was honorably discharged.

4. That he is meritorious and deserving.

For enlistment or further information apply to the Board of Enrollment for the district in which the applicant is a resident.
