PARDONED.—Benjamin Rodgers, sentenced to the penitentiary from this county for one year from March last, for larceny, has been pardoned.

FIRE.—The station-house at Portage, this county, on the Penna. Railroad, was totally consumed by fire on Friday night last.

COLD.—The weather during the past couple of days has been extremely cold, the thermometer ranging somewhere down in the vicinity of zero.

NONE IN THE LEAST.—It is currently reported and generally believed that the editor of the Johnstown Democrat, besides being a Campbell, is also a very dumb-bell.

BUTTER.—To show the unreasonableness of the price charged here for butter, it is only necessary to state that whilst the article rules in our market at 25 cents per pound, at Pittsburg it commands only from 23 to 25 cents!

THANKSGIVING.—This day was well observed by our citizens. The various business houses remained closed throughout the day, and public service was held in the different churches.

ASSESSMENT.—The annual assessment of taxes under the Excise Laws of the United States having been completed for the XVIII Congressional District, we give an abstract of the same as published in the Hollidaysburg Register:

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.

JOHNSTOWN, Nov. 29, 1863.

Dear Alleghenian: I had almost begun to despair of having our usual representation of criminals at the December term of Court, but our general reputation in this respect, I am sorry to say, is not going to suffer.

On Sunday night, the same crowd again assembled, to finish up their spree. As a grand coup de main they proceeded to the United Brethren Church, where they gave vent to the most obscene language, interrupting the exercises, and even striking several of the members who attempted to interfere.

About two o'clock on Monday morning, the party appropriated two horses belonging to two colored draymen, and two saddles, the property of the Mansion House, and started for parts unknown via the Bedford pike.

The entire party were then taken into custody, and brought back to town, where charges of riot, thieving, assault and battery, &c., were preferred by the score. The young men were fined for breaches of the peace, two of them sent to jail to await trial upon the more serious charges, while the other two (soldiers) were sent to the Provost Marshal at Huntingdon with the additional charge of desertion.

N. B. Hartzell, a bricklayer of this place, started last week to work at a tunnel, which is being arched with brick, on the line of the new Great Western railroad.

The "Union Glee Club" gave a concert in Union Hall on Saturday evening. The attendance was very good, and the vocal and instrumental music pronounced excellent by all hands.

Thanksgiving was pretty generally observed by our citizens, the cheering news from Grant's army serving to stimulate the joy and rejoicing.

Snow has been falling at intervals since last evening, and visions of the "merry bells" will doubtless disturb the slumbers of lovers of sleighing to night.

Court for this county commences on next Monday, 7th inst.

BELSAÑO, Nov. 27, 1863.

Editor Alleghenian: According to appointment, the people of Belsano and vicinity met at the M. E. Church on Thursday, Nov. 26, to celebrate Thanksgiving.

The day was all that could have been desired—clear sky and shining sun. It seemed as if it were a precursor of things to come, when the storm-cloud of war would speedily pass away, and peace and prosperity once more dawn upon the nation.

At night, in conformity with previous arrangement, there was another meeting called in the U. B. Church, to form a Soldiers' Aid Society. The meeting was called to order by appointing Col. R. Litzinger, Chairman pro tem.

President, Mrs. Samuel Reed. Vice President, Mrs. Adam Makin. Rec. and Cor. Secy., Miss Lizzie Todd.

This movement is well worthy the head and heart of those who devised it. The ladies, God bless them! have taken it in hand, and we are confident they will succeed.

[The following sermon-in-brief may appear somewhat incomprehensible to our readers at first blush; but upon close inspection we have no doubt its manifold beauties will become fully apparent.]

Listen unto me, ye youth of this village on the mountain-top, and give ear unto me all ye people thereof.

In times past, have not the holy ministers of this ancient village on the mountain-top, with solemn voice, with mighty words, and importunate pleading, wrestled with ye, even as the angel of God did wrestle with the patriarch Jacob at Pencil?

How often have ye, O ye fallen children of Adam, been told of the ways of sin, of the snares of this wicked world, and especially at that hour when the glorious light of day is yielding to the darkness of night which shieldeth so many evil deeds from the gaze of men?

Therefore it is, O ye young men, that I call upon ye not to stand upon the corners of the street, nor congregate in the highways, nor be seen at any unseemly thing; and that ye, O ye maidens, do act circumspectly, staying inside your own houses.

Therefore it is, O ye young men, that I call upon ye not to stand upon the corners of the street, nor congregate in the highways, nor be seen at any unseemly thing; and that ye, O ye maidens, do act circumspectly, staying inside your own houses.

Therefore it is, O ye young men, that I call upon ye not to stand upon the corners of the street, nor congregate in the highways, nor be seen at any unseemly thing; and that ye, O ye maidens, do act circumspectly, staying inside your own houses.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to use them.

ATTENTION SOLDIERS!

Will build up the constitution, and give health and strength to an overtaken and diseased system.

PHILADELPHIA, August 12, 1862.

Dr. C. M. JACKSON—Dear Sir: While in Virginia, owing to the change of water, I was taken with a severe diarrhoea, which seemed incurable, and which greatly weakened me.

When we reached Martinsburg, I feared that I should have to come home; but noticing some of your Bitters in the store of Mr. H. H. Price, in that town, I purchased a supply, and on taking it was speedily restored to health. The diarrhoea was quickly checked, and I experienced no return of it. A number of my comrades who suffered in the same manner and from the same cause, with whom I shared the Bitters, join me in this certificate.

I expect to return to the seat of war with the Legion, and I shall certainly take a supply of the Bitters in my knapsack. I would not be without it for its weight in gold, particularly on going into a limestone region.

Yours truly, A. E. ALMEUS, Company G, Scott Legion.
