

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

EBENSBURG AND CRESSON RAILROAD. On and after Monday, November 16, 1863 trains on this road will run as follows:

LEAVE EBENSBURG— At 7.20 A. M., connecting with Balt. Express West and Thro' Accom. East. At 7.15 P. M., connecting with Mail Train West and Thro' Express East.

LEAVE CRESSON— At 10.45 A. M., or on departure of Thro' Accommodation West. At 8.45 P. M., or on departure of Express East and Mail West.

THE POOR HOUSE STEWARDSHIP—A contemptible Piece of Business.—Some time since, we noticed in these columns the fact of the appointment of Mr. Joseph Moore, of Johnstown, to the position of Steward of the County Poor House.

It appears from the Johnstown Tribune that on Tuesday of last week Mr. Moore was waited upon by Mr. Kaylor, the present Steward, with a resolution purporting to have been adopted by a majority of the Board of Poor Directors, resolving that he (Moore) knows nothing about farming, and is therefore incapacitated for acting Steward of the Poor House.

This is the case in a nut-shell: The Board of Directors, in obedience to orders promulgated by the leaders of the Copperhead party in this county, got together and resolve that Mr. Moore is no farmer, and therefore unfit to be Steward—by which seemingly safe performance they hope to incontinently rid themselves of an obnoxious customer.

Wonders never cease! We had tho't our friend James too intimately wedded to one idea, and that idea Single-Blessedness, to go and wed another idea, and that idea—a woman! But so it is. He has become divorced from the one to be happily united to the other.

PROMOTED.—It gives us pleasure to learn that Orderly Sergeant Thomas Davis, of Co. C, 19th U. S. Infantry, has been appointed 2d Lieutenant in the Regular Army.

SUCCESSFUL AND UNSUCCESSFUL.—Two inmates of our county jail, hailing from Johnstown, effected their escape from that institution on Sunday night last, but were recaptured before leaving town.

forsooth, the present appointee does not happen to entertain the same political views as they! Well, we presume they have the power, but they should take care how they establish a precedent which may one day be used to their own disadvantage.

That our readers may know the names of the Directors who have performed this unwarrantable feat of political proscription, we subjoin them. They are—

GEORGE DELANY, GEORGE McCULLOUGH.

Irwin Rutledge, Esq., the other member, we are assured, had no hand in the dirty business. He was a consistent friend of Mr. Moore throughout, and the resolution was passed during his absence from the Board.

—We hear it stated that Mr. Kaylor, the present incumbent, will in all probability be continued in the office of Steward. If so, we denounce his re-appointment as a direct insult to the moral sentiment and finer feelings of the entire community.

AN IMPOSTER.—We copy the following item from a late number of the Pittsburgh Gazette: "We caution the public against a young man named Ellis R. Williams, who formerly worked about the printing offices in this city, but who has for some time past been traveling from place to place. When last here he was engaged in book peddling, and we understand that he has obtained money from several persons here, by false representations.

MARRIED: On Tuesday, 1st inst., at the residence of the bride's father, by the Rev. R. Clapp, Mr. J. L. P. McALLISTER, of Ebensburg, to Miss CAROLINE CLAPP, of Resident, Venango county, Penna.

Wonders never cease! We had tho't our friend James too intimately wedded to one idea, and that idea Single-Blessedness, to go and wed another idea, and that idea—a woman! But so it is. He has become divorced from the one to be happily united to the other.

PROMOTED.—It gives us pleasure to learn that Orderly Sergeant Thomas Davis, of Co. C, 19th U. S. Infantry, has been appointed 2d Lieutenant in the Regular Army.

SUCCESSFUL AND UNSUCCESSFUL.—Two inmates of our county jail, hailing from Johnstown, effected their escape from that institution on Sunday night last, but were recaptured before leaving town.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.

JOHNSTOWN, Dec. 6, 1863.

Dear Alleghenian: A man named Charles Wilson was killed on the railroad about eight miles east of this place on Saturday morning. He was performing the duties of watchman at the time, and whilst signaling the Express train coming east, was run over by the Stock express west.

A lecture was delivered in Union Hall on Saturday, by Mr. B. H. Childs, a speaker of considerable merit. His subject was, "The Cares and Complexities of Camp Life," and although I had not the pleasure of hearing it, yet persons who were present pronounce it as having been a treat.

For several days we have been enjoying excellent skating. Our advantages of water are rather superior to those of most towns, and as a consequence, when hard frosts commences we manage to be "on top of the ice."

DR. TOMAS' VENETIAN HORSE LINIMENT.—In pint bottles at fifty cents, cures lameness, cuts, galls, colic, &c. Read the following: Boston, July 7th, 1860.

DR. TOBIAS: We have used for the past year your Horse Liniment for lameness, kicks, bruises, colic and cuts, and in every instance found it the best article I ever tried in this circus company. Please send six dozen, as it is the only liniment we use now.

HYATT FROST, Manager Van Amburgh & Co's. Menagerie. Sold by all Druggists. Office, 56 Cortlandt st. New York.

U. S. 5-20'S.

THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY has not yet given notice of any intention to withdraw this popular Loan from Sale at Par, and until ten days notice is given, the undersigned, as "General Subscription Agent," will continue to supply the public.

The whole amount of the Loan authorized is Five Hundred Millions of Dollars. Nearly Four Hundred Millions have been already subscribed for and paid into the Treasury, mostly within the last seven months. The large demand from abroad, and the rapidly increasing home demand for use as the basis for circulation by National Banking Associations now organizing in all parts of the country, will, in a very short period, absorb the balance.

The loan is called 5-20 from the fact that whilst the Bonds may run for 20 years yet the Government has a right to pay them off in Gold at par, at any time after 5 years. The interest is paid half-yearly, viz: On the first days of November and May.

These 5-20's cannot be taxed by States, cities, towns, or counties, and the Government tax on them is only one and a half per cent., on the amount of income, when the income of the holder exceeds Six Hundred dollars per annum; all other investments, such as income from Mortgages, Railroad Stock and Bonds, etc., must pay from three to five per cent tax on the income.

FOR SALE.—A Faber ENGINE, 8 inch cylinder, 26 inch stroke, nearly new, in complete order, 2 pumps, one cylinder holding 20 hls. water, boiler 26 inches, 20 feet long, fire front, all complete. Price $650. Will take Lumber at cash prices in payment of same.

IN THE ORPHANS' COURT OF Cambria county. Notice is hereby given that the following appraisements of certain personal property of decedents, selected and set apart for the widows of intestates, under Act of Assembly of the 14th April, 1851, have been filed in the Register's Office, at Ebensburg, and will be presented to the Orphans' Court for approval, on Wednesday, the 9th of Dec. next. To wit: Appraisement of certain personal property set apart for the widow of David Riblet, dec'd.

Appraisement of certain personal property set apart for the widow of John Brown, dec'd. Appraisement of certain personal property set apart for the widow of John Waltz, dec'd. E. F. LYTLE, Clerk's Office, Ebensburg, Nov. 16, 1863.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge. Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of no sufficient reason why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to use them. PHILADELPHIA, JUNE 23, 1861.

ATTENTION SOLDIERS! Will build up the constitution, and give health and strength to an overtaken and diseased system.

PHILADELPHIA, August 12, 1862. Dr. C. M. JACKSON—Dear Sir: While in Virginia, owing to the change of water, I was taken with a severe diarrhoea, which seemed incurable, and which greatly weakened me. When we reached Martinsburg, I feared that I should have to come home; but noticing some of your Bitters in the store of Mr. H. H. Price, in that town, I purchased a supply, and on taking it was speedily restored to health. The diarrhoea was quickly checked, and I experienced no return of it. A number of my comrades who suffered in the same manner and from the same cause, with whom I shared the Bitters, join me in this certificate. I expect to return to the seat of war with the Legion, and I shall certainly take a supply of the Bitters in my knapsack. I would not be without it for its weight in gold, particularly on going into a limestone region. Yours, truly, A. E. ALMEUS, Company D, Scott Legion.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS! See that the signature of "C. M. Jackson" is on the wrapper of each bottle.

Price per bottle 75 cents Or half dozen for $4.

Should your nearest Druggist not have the article, do not be put off by any of the intoxicating preparations that may be offered in its place, but send to us, and we will forward by express, securely packed.

PROVOST MARSHAL'S OFFICE, 17th Dist., PENNA., HERRINGTON, June 11, 1863.

MEN WANTED FOR THE INVALID CORPS. Only those faithful soldiers who, from wounds or the hardships of war, are no longer fit for active field duty will be received into this Corps of Honor. Enlistments will be for three years unless sooner discharged. Pay and allowances same as for officers and men of the United States Infantry; except that no premiums or bounty for enlistment will be allowed. This will not invalidate any pensions or bounties which may be due for previous service.

All persons honorably discharged from the service, not liable to draft, whether they have served in this war or not, can be admitted into this Corps of Honor.

Men who are still in service and unable to perform effective field, may be transferred to this corps.

For the convenience of service, the men will be selected for three grades of duty. Those who are most efficient and able bodied, and capable of performing guard duty, etc., etc., will be armed with muskets, and assigned to companies of the 1st Battalion. Those of the next degree of efficiency, including those who have lost a hand or arm; and the least effective, including those who have lost a foot or a leg, to the companies of the Second or Third Battalions; they will be armed with swords.

The duties will be chiefly to act as provost guards and garrisons for cities; guards for hospitals and other public buildings; and as clerks, orderlies, etc. If found necessary they may be assigned to forts, etc.

Acting Assistant Provost Marshals General are authorized to appoint Officers of the Regular Service, or of the Invalid Corps, to administer the oath of enlistment to those men who have completely fulfilled the prescribed conditions of admission to the Invalid Corps, viz:

1. That the applicant is unfit for service in the field.

2. That he is fit for the duties, or some of them, indicated above.

3. That, if not now in the service, he was honorably discharged.

4. That he is meritorious and deserving. For enrollment or further information apply to the Board of Enrollment for the district in which the applicant is a resident.
