

EBENSBURG AND CRESSON RAILROAD.—On and after Monday, November 16, 1863, trains on this road will run as follows:

LEAVE EBENSBURG.—At 7.30 A. M., connecting with Balt. Express West and Thro' Accom East. At 7.15 P. M., connecting with Mail Train West and Thro' Express East.

THE DRAFT—OUR QUOTA.—Through the kindness of Mr. M. S. Harr, Draft Commissioner for this district, we are enabled to lay before our readers this week the quotas of the several sub-districts of Cambria county under the approaching draft. The figures indicate the real quotas, without the fifty per cent. excess:

Table listing sub-districts and their quotas: Allegheny tp., Loretto and Gallitzin, 30; Carroll tp. and Carrolltown, 24; Susquehanna tp., 12; Chest tp., 10; Clearfield tp., 14; Chest Springs Bor., 4; Washington tp. and Summitville, 16; White tp., 11; Manster tp., 10; Croyle tp., 10; Summerhill tp., 10; Wilmore, 3; Richland tp., 25; Taylor tp., 19; Genesaugh tp., 13; Yoder tp., 9; Johnstown, 66; Cambria Bor., 21; Genesaugh Bor., 25; Millville, 6; Blacklick tp., 25; Jackson tp., 10; Ebensburg, 12; Cambria tp., 12.

Total number, 389. It will be seen that the quota for this borough is 12. That the draft may be equalized as much as possible, it has been determined that any sub-district sending in its quota of men on or before the day fixed for the draft shall be exempt from such draft.

In view of this fact, would it not be well in our citizens to make an effort to raise the twelve men? With the proper exertion, we have no doubt they may be had. Counting the two classes, (which discrimination will be abolished by Congress,) there are about 120 persons liable to draft in town. Now, if each of this number contribute the sum of only $10 toward a common fund, a bounty of $100 apiece will have been secured for the twelve men needed; or if they contribute $20, a bounty of $200 will be obtained. This, with the $302 bounty given by the Government to new recruits, or the $102 to veterans, would make a neat little sum, and enlistments would be greatly stimulated thereby.

ARREST AND ESCAPE.—On Thursday last, Assistant Provost Marshal Heyer arrested a man named Shorthill, in Wilmore, this county, on the charge of being a deserter. He (Shorthill) was drafted from Summerhill township in August last, and failing to report for duty, thereby rendered himself amenable to the penalties attaching to the crime of desertion. After his arrest, the prisoner was kept under guard in the Railroad House for several hours, awaiting the arrival of the train to convey him east.

A gay and festive party of young men and maidens started out on a sleighing expedition through town a few evenings since. The hilarious spirits of the party caused considerable noise to be made, of course, and a gentleman driving a sleigh which contained two ladies undertaking to pass the noisy crowd suddenly found himself and the ladies promiscuously spilled out, while the sleigh was piled up in pieces alongside. The "guardians of the night," having an eye to the quiet and order of the city, and also to large fees probably, seeing this, arrested the party for disturbing the peace.

"NOT A TRUE BILL."—The indictment pending against Capt. Wm. R. Hughes, of this county, charging him with aiding and abetting in the destruction of the Huntingdon Monitor establishment, last summer, came up before the Grand Jury of Huntingdon county last week, and was promptly ignored by that body. Thus the long agony is over.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—We clip the following announcement from the Cambria Tribune of Friday: "On Saturday night last, a man was found lying on the Railroad track below old Conemaugh Furnace, by the watchman ahead of the Express train east. He was so badly injured that he was unable to give his name, or tell how he received his injuries. He was brought to Johnstown on the Express, and conveyed to the Scott House, where he was properly taken care of. He was found to be very seriously hurt about the head, in addition to which his hands and feet were badly frozen. It was subsequently ascertained that his name was Horace Dresser, a native of Maine, and a workman in a shoe shop near Nineval, but he could tell nothing of how he came on the track or received his injuries. It is supposed, however, that he had fallen from the mail train west, and was so badly hurt that he could not get off the track. In a few minutes more he would have been torn to pieces by the train from the west. He lingered until Wednesday morning, when death closed his earthly career. He was a single man, about 23 years old, but was engaged to be married on the very day on which he died. His affianced bride accompanied his remains from the hotel on Wednesday afternoon to their place of interment in Indiana county."

The editor of this paper was well acquainted with the subject of the foregoing notice, having known him from boyhood up. He was born and reared in our native town, Lovell, Maine. He had lived in this section for several years past, and through his industry and economy was in a fair way of accumulating a competency. Kind, courteous, affable, he was beloved by all who knew him. We sorrow at his sad and untimely demise, and keenly sympathize with his parents and friends, who, through this bereavement, will know their Horace no more on earth forever.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE. CHAPTER OF ACCIDENTS—"ON RUNNERS" AND "ON ICE"—THE LATE FAIR—ECCLESIASTICAL MATTERS, &c., &c.

JOHNSTOWN, Jan. 17, 1864. Correspondence of The Alleghanian. The past few days have been quite prolific of railroad accidents in this neighborhood, and the loss of several lives has been the result. On Tuesday last, the Express east was thrown from the track near Lockport by the breaking of a rail, by which mishap a resident of Lebanon county named John Carber and a member of the First Michigan Cavalry named C. Shaw were killed, and several other passengers slightly injured.

A brakeman, named Bender, from Greensburg, slipped from the bumper of his car, near Mineral Point, last week, and the wheels passed over one of his legs, mangling it in a terrible manner.—He was not discovered until he had become nearly paralyzed with the cold, when he was conveyed to the Foster House here, and the leg amputated above the knee. There is every prospect of his ultimate recovery.

A man named Horace Dresser was found on the track near the Slackwater a few nights ago, in a mutilated condition. [See local item elsewhere for further particulars.—Ed.] This morning's passenger train west ran over a trestle-work near Spruce Creek, and one man is reported killed and a great number injured. In consequence of the accident, the train was delayed until this evening. To-night's Express east will remain at Altoona until the trestle-work is repaired. It is stated the accident was caused by a "break rod" under the tank becoming detached and falling under the wheels, thus throwing the cars off the track.

A gay and festive party of young men and maidens started out on a sleighing expedition through town a few evenings since. The hilarious spirits of the party caused considerable noise to be made, of course, and a gentleman driving a sleigh which contained two ladies undertaking to pass the noisy crowd suddenly found himself and the ladies promiscuously spilled out, while the sleigh was piled up in pieces alongside. The "guardians of the night," having an eye to the quiet and order of the city, and also to large fees probably, seeing this, arrested the party for disturbing the peace.

AT HOME.—We are glad to see in our midst Messrs. George W. Brown, Charles A. Fagan, Thomas D. Jones, Joseph Owens and Nathaniel Benden, all members of Co. A, 11th Penna. Reserves, who have re-enlisted in the veteran corps, and are now enjoying a month's furlough.—They are looking hale and hearty, as tho' soldiering agreed with them to a "t."—We cordially welcome them home, hoping their new term of service may be prosperous as the last, and not half so long.

MARRIED.—In Junction, Kansas, 20th ult., by Rev. Wm. Todd, GEO. W. MARTIN, formerly of Hollidaysburg, to Miss LYDIA COULSON, of St. George, Pottawattomie county, Kansas.

A CARD. SUMMERHILL, Jan. 15, 1864. To the Editor of The Alleghanian:

Having just returned from Norfolk and Portsmouth, Va., which places I visited for the purpose of procuring the body of Jacob M. Paul, dec'd., of Jackson township, this county, a member of Co. A, 11th Pa. Cavalry, I would request through the medium of your paper to express my gratitude and sincere thanks to the officers and members of the said company for the valuable assistance they rendered me in accomplishing my object. Especially to Capt. Skelly, of Co. A, I am indebted for the perfect success of my expedition. Everything in his power was freely and most courteously contributed to aid me in the charitable purpose of removing to his friends the last remains of one of his bravest companions, who died in the service of his country, far from his kindred and his home. The many obligations due to Capt. Skelly from myself and the friends of the deceased can be but feebly repaid by expressions of gratitude, but I hope he may appreciate what we feel though we cannot express it in words. F. K. HELLINGER.

FROM OUR SOLDIERS. LETTER FROM CO. A, 11TH PENNA. RESERVES—RE-ENLISTMENTS—IN WINTER QUARTERS—HEALTH OF COMPANY—A SOLDIER'S OPINION OF M'CLELLAN—PRESIDENT LINCOLN.

BRISTOW STATION, VA., Jan. 12. Correspondence of The Alleghanian. Yesterday, those who enlisted as veterans in our regiment left for home.—Each re-enlisting veteran receives a furlough of thirty-five days and two hundred dollars in hand. Ten members of Co. A and fifty-six of the regiment have enlisted in the veteran corps. Through the departure of these furloughed members, Co. A has become quite small. It now numbers only two Sergeants, three Corporals and thirteen privates present for duty.

Our regiment is very comfortably situated. The men have built log huts, chinked and daubed, with a large fireplace in one end of each. For beds they have bunks, with pine poles in lieu of cords and cedar twigs instead of feathers. They are taking life easy after the fatiguing campaign of last summer. The health of the regiment is good.—Co. A has not had a single man on the sick list for a month.

We see by the papers that Gen. McClellan has been nominated for the next Presidency by some gentlemen in Philadelphia, the representatives of a party who have been ever since this war began most bitter opponents of the Administration and of all measures adopted looking toward the crushing of the rebellion. To be sure, Gen. McClellan has shown eminent military abilities, and at one time commanded the confidence of the whole army, but his letter to Mr. Charles J. Biddle, last summer, endorsing the political views of Mr. Justice Woodward, as well as his consenting to have his name thus used by a party who are enemies to their country as their candidate for the Presidential chair, has lost to him the confidence of the soldiers. But few would vote for him were he nominated.

Gen. McClellan avowedly stands upon the same platform with Vallandigham, Garret Davis and Fernando Wood, and is the exponent of the same rotten principles. Those who voted for Vallandigham will vote for him. The soldiers want a man for President who will not tamper or dilly-dally with traitors. Such a man is not McClellan. At one time we thought the General a true patriot, but alas, he is now found in the ranks of secession sympathizers. We thought him a lover of his country, but it appears he loves his party more. Evidently, he cannot be the man for the crisis. The next President must be a man of nerve, of firmness and undaunted spirit, who will do right regardless of consequences—one who will "Seize the helm, the reeling vessel guide, And with aiding patriots stem the raging tide."

Saying this much, I will go further and add that no one could possibly have stood the brunt of the fierce conflict more nobly than has Mr. Lincoln. He has gone through the trying ordeal unscathed, successfully battling traitors in arms South and their aiders and abettors North. In the most trying hour he has stood firm and undaunted, with the weal of his country first in his heart, and the triumph of her armies his hourly hope and prayer. With such a man at the helm for another four years, and through the help of the All-ruling Hand, the vessel of State will be safely steered into a peaceful haven, and firmly anchored for all time to come. LUT.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge. Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others. I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to use them. J. NEWTON BROWN. PHILAD'A., JUNE 23, 1861.

ATTENTION SOLDIERS! Will build up the constitution, and give health and strength to an overtaken and diseased system. PHILADELPHIA, August 12, 1862. DR. C. M. JACKSON.—Dear Sir: While in Virginia, owing to the change of water, I was taken with a severe diarrhoea, which seemed incurable, and which greatly weakened me. When we reached Martinsburg, I feared that I should have to come home; but noticing some of your Bitters in the store of Mr. H. H. Price, in that town, I purchased a supply, and on taking it was speedily restored to health. The diarrhoea was quickly checked, and I experienced no return of it. A number of my comrades who suffered in the same manner and from the same cause, with whom I shared the Bitters, that me in this certificate, I expect to return to the seat of war with the Legion, and I shall certainly take a supply of the Bitters in my knapsack. I would not be without it for its weight in gold, particularly on going into a limestone region. Yours, truly, A. E. ALMEUS, Company D, Scott Legion.
