

RIGHT OR WRONG. WHEN RIGHT, TO BE KEPT RIGHT, WHEN WRONG, TO BE PUT RIGHT.

EBENSBURG: THURSDAY FEBRUARY 4.

FOR PRESIDENT:

ABRAHAM LINCOLN, of Illinois.

Audacious Assumption.

One of the most brazen faced assumptions that ever emanated from impudence itself, is the pretence set up by certain Democratic leaders, that the self styled Democratic party must be restored to power to make a successful end of the war.

When slavery goes down southern rebels go down with it, beyond the possibility of resurrection, and with it perish the last hopes of northern Copperheadism.

FIVE HUNDRED THOUSAND MORE!—The President has issued his proclamation summoning 500,000 more men into the field.

Here is the President's proclamation: EXECUTIVE MANSION, WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 1, 1864.—Ordered, that a draft for five hundred thousand men, to serve for three years or during the war, be made on the tenth day of March next, for the military service of the United States.

SENATOR WHITE'S RESIGNATION HANDLED IN.—All efforts for the exchange of Senator White having proved abortive, on Monday last his resignation was handed in to the Senate by Hon. Thomas White, of Indiana.

THE CONSCRIPTION LAW.—The amended Conscription Bill has passed both Houses, and only awaits the signature of the President to become a law.

Of the different branches of work above named, the most important by far is that which embraces the settlement of claims for back pay and bounty of deceased soldiers.

But there is a lion in the way. There exists an obstruction which cannot be removed. It has heretofore delayed the settlement of claims, and it will delay their settlement in the future.

CONDUCTED BY THIS DIVISION OF THE BRANCH. These are, briefly, some of the duties of the "dead branch" of the office.

master and pay rolls of companies and detachments are embraced, and without which the business of the "dead branch" cannot proceed.

Democratic rule, with their garments still covered with the leprous spots of treason, by their association with the villainous rebels at Louisiana, Mississippi and Georgia?

The question here arises, why is the so called Democratic party so much in love with this chief of all abominations, African slavery, that it looks with perfect horror upon a reconstruction of the Union without it?

When slavery goes down southern rebels go down with it, beyond the possibility of resurrection, and with it perish the last hopes of northern Copperheadism.

Here is the President's proclamation: EXECUTIVE MANSION, WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 1, 1864.—Ordered, that a draft for five hundred thousand men, to serve for three years or during the war, be made on the tenth day of March next, for the military service of the United States.

SENATOR WHITE'S RESIGNATION HANDLED IN.—All efforts for the exchange of Senator White having proved abortive, on Monday last his resignation was handed in to the Senate by Hon. Thomas White, of Indiana.

THE CONSCRIPTION LAW.—The amended Conscription Bill has passed both Houses, and only awaits the signature of the President to become a law.

Of the different branches of work above named, the most important by far is that which embraces the settlement of claims for back pay and bounty of deceased soldiers.

But there is a lion in the way. There exists an obstruction which cannot be removed. It has heretofore delayed the settlement of claims, and it will delay their settlement in the future.

CONDUCTED BY THIS DIVISION OF THE BRANCH. These are, briefly, some of the duties of the "dead branch" of the office.

master and pay rolls of companies and detachments are embraced, and without which the business of the "dead branch" cannot proceed.

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE.—Letters testamentary on the estate of Elizabeth Pringle, late of Summerhill township, Cambria county, deceased, having been granted to the subscriber by the Register of said county, all persons indebted to said estate are hereby notified to make immediate payment, and those having claims against the same are requested to present them to the undersigned, properly authenticated for settlement, at the late residence of deceased, Mr. John Pringle's, near Wilmore station.

CABINET WARE-ROOM. R. EYAN'S respectfully informs the citizens of Ebensburg, and Cambria county generally, that he has on hand and for sale, at his Ware-room, one square west of Blair's Hotel, a large and splendid assortment of FURNITURE, which he will sell very cheap.

Jottings from Washington. WASHINGTON CITY, Jan. 30, 1864. To the Editor of The Alleghenian: THE SECOND AUDITOR'S OFFICE—IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR THE PEOPLE.

Opposite the War and Navy buildings in Washington, and much larger than either of them, is Winder's building, a fire proof brick structure, five stories high, and containing 130 rooms.

Winder's Building was erected in 1845-6 by a company, of which Wm. H. Winder, of Philadelphia, was the principal member.

The Second Auditor's office is at present the most extensive branch of the Treasury Department. Before the rebellion its duties were performed by an Auditor, chief clerk, twenty additional clerks, two messengers and a laborer.

AN ANALYSIS OF THE FOREGOING FIGURES shows that the average monthly receipts of claims during the last fiscal year was over 6,500; while during the first six months of the present fiscal year the average monthly receipts were but a fraction over 6,000, or 500 less than last year.

WE STATE EXPLICITLY ANOTHER gratifying fact. As has already been remarked, from the commencement of active hostilities in 1861 up to the first day of November, 1863, the number of claims received was largely in excess of the number settled.

But there is a lion in the way. There exists an obstruction which cannot be removed. It has heretofore delayed the settlement of claims, and it will delay their settlement in the future.

CONDUCTED BY THIS DIVISION OF THE BRANCH. These are, briefly, some of the duties of the "dead branch" of the office.

master and pay rolls of companies and detachments are embraced, and without which the business of the "dead branch" cannot proceed.

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE.—Letters testamentary on the estate of Elizabeth Pringle, late of Summerhill township, Cambria county, deceased, having been granted to the subscriber by the Register of said county, all persons indebted to said estate are hereby notified to make immediate payment, and those having claims against the same are requested to present them to the undersigned, properly authenticated for settlement, at the late residence of deceased, Mr. John Pringle's, near Wilmore station.

CABINET WARE-ROOM. R. EYAN'S respectfully informs the citizens of Ebensburg, and Cambria county generally, that he has on hand and for sale, at his Ware-room, one square west of Blair's Hotel, a large and splendid assortment of FURNITURE, which he will sell very cheap.

SEVENTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE PROTECTION MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY OF CAMBRIA CO., PENNA.—Amt. property insured as per sixth annual report, $134,612 96.

NOTICE.—In the matter of the petitions of John Bruce, Henry Sanker and Samuel Sanker, for a decree of specific performance of contracts made with George Bruce, late of Allegheny township, Cambria county, dec'd., for certain real estate.

WASHINGTON CITY, Jan. 30, 1864. To the Editor of The Alleghenian: THE SECOND AUDITOR'S OFFICE—IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR THE PEOPLE.

Opposite the War and Navy buildings in Washington, and much larger than either of them, is Winder's building, a fire proof brick structure, five stories high, and containing 130 rooms.

Winder's Building was erected in 1845-6 by a company, of which Wm. H. Winder, of Philadelphia, was the principal member.

The Second Auditor's office is at present the most extensive branch of the Treasury Department. Before the rebellion its duties were performed by an Auditor, chief clerk, twenty additional clerks, two messengers and a laborer.

AN ANALYSIS OF THE FOREGOING FIGURES shows that the average monthly receipts of claims during the last fiscal year was over 6,500; while during the first six months of the present fiscal year the average monthly receipts were but a fraction over 6,000, or 500 less than last year.

WE STATE EXPLICITLY ANOTHER gratifying fact. As has already been remarked, from the commencement of active hostilities in 1861 up to the first day of November, 1863, the number of claims received was largely in excess of the number settled.

But there is a lion in the way. There exists an obstruction which cannot be removed. It has heretofore delayed the settlement of claims, and it will delay their settlement in the future.

CONDUCTED BY THIS DIVISION OF THE BRANCH. These are, briefly, some of the duties of the "dead branch" of the office.

master and pay rolls of companies and detachments are embraced, and without which the business of the "dead branch" cannot proceed.

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE.—Letters testamentary on the estate of Elizabeth Pringle, late of Summerhill township, Cambria county, deceased, having been granted to the subscriber by the Register of said county, all persons indebted to said estate are hereby notified to make immediate payment, and those having claims against the same are requested to present them to the undersigned, properly authenticated for settlement, at the late residence of deceased, Mr. John Pringle's, near Wilmore station.

CABINET WARE-ROOM. R. EYAN'S respectfully informs the citizens of Ebensburg, and Cambria county generally, that he has on hand and for sale, at his Ware-room, one square west of Blair's Hotel, a large and splendid assortment of FURNITURE, which he will sell very cheap.

SEVENTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE PROTECTION MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY OF CAMBRIA CO., PENNA.—Amt. property insured as per sixth annual report, $134,612 96.

NOTICE.—In the matter of the petitions of John Bruce, Henry Sanker and Samuel Sanker, for a decree of specific performance of contracts made with George Bruce, late of Allegheny township, Cambria county, dec'd., for certain real estate.

WASHINGTON CITY, Jan. 30, 1864. To the Editor of The Alleghenian: THE SECOND AUDITOR'S OFFICE—IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR THE PEOPLE.

Opposite the War and Navy buildings in Washington, and much larger than either of them, is Winder's building, a fire proof brick structure, five stories high, and containing 130 rooms.

Winder's Building was erected in 1845-6 by a company, of which Wm. H. Winder, of Philadelphia, was the principal member.

The Second Auditor's office is at present the most extensive branch of the Treasury Department. Before the rebellion its duties were performed by an Auditor, chief clerk, twenty additional clerks, two messengers and a laborer.

AN ANALYSIS OF THE FOREGOING FIGURES shows that the average monthly receipts of claims during the last fiscal year was over 6,500; while during the first six months of the present fiscal year the average monthly receipts were but a fraction over 6,000, or 500 less than last year.

WE STATE EXPLICITLY ANOTHER gratifying fact. As has already been remarked, from the commencement of active hostilities in 1861 up to the first day of November, 1863, the number of claims received was largely in excess of the number settled.

But there is a lion in the way. There exists an obstruction which cannot be removed. It has heretofore delayed the settlement of claims, and it will delay their settlement in the future.

CONDUCTED BY THIS DIVISION OF THE BRANCH. These are, briefly, some of the duties of the "dead branch" of the office.

master and pay rolls of companies and detachments are embraced, and without which the business of the "dead branch" cannot proceed.

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE.—Letters testamentary on the estate of Elizabeth Pringle, late of Summerhill township, Cambria county, deceased, having been granted to the subscriber by the Register of said county, all persons indebted to said estate are hereby notified to make immediate payment, and those having claims against the same are requested to present them to the undersigned, properly authenticated for settlement, at the late residence of deceased, Mr. John Pringle's, near Wilmore station.

CABINET WARE-ROOM. R. EYAN'S respectfully informs the citizens of Ebensburg, and Cambria county generally, that he has on hand and for sale, at his Ware-room, one square west of Blair's Hotel, a large and splendid assortment of FURNITURE, which he will sell very cheap.

SEVENTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE PROTECTION MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY OF CAMBRIA CO., PENNA.—Amt. property insured as per sixth annual report, $134,612 96.

NOTICE.—In the matter of the petitions of John Bruce, Henry Sanker and Samuel Sanker, for a decree of specific performance of contracts made with George Bruce, late of Allegheny township, Cambria county, dec'd., for certain real estate.

WASHINGTON CITY, Jan. 30, 1864. To the Editor of The Alleghenian: THE SECOND AUDITOR'S OFFICE—IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR THE PEOPLE.

Opposite the War and Navy buildings in Washington, and much larger than either of them, is Winder's building, a fire proof brick structure, five stories high, and containing 130 rooms.

Winder's Building was erected in 1845-6 by a company, of which Wm. H. Winder, of Philadelphia, was the principal member.

The Second Auditor's office is at present the most extensive branch of the Treasury Department. Before the rebellion its duties were performed by an Auditor, chief clerk, twenty additional clerks, two messengers and a laborer.

AN ANALYSIS OF THE FOREGOING FIGURES shows that the average monthly receipts of claims during the last fiscal year was over 6,500; while during the first six months of the present fiscal year the average monthly receipts were but a fraction over 6,000, or 500 less than last year.

WE STATE EXPLICITLY ANOTHER gratifying fact. As has already been remarked, from the commencement of active hostilities in 1861 up to the first day of November, 1863, the number of claims received was largely in excess of the number settled.

But there is a lion in the way. There exists an obstruction which cannot be removed. It has heretofore delayed the settlement of claims, and it will delay their settlement in the future.

CONDUCTED BY THIS DIVISION OF THE BRANCH. These are, briefly, some of the duties of the "dead branch" of the office.

master and pay rolls of companies and detachments are embraced, and without which the business of the "dead branch" cannot proceed.

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE.—Letters testamentary on the estate of Elizabeth Pringle, late of Summerhill township, Cambria county, deceased, having been granted to the subscriber by the Register of said county, all persons indebted to said estate are hereby notified to make immediate payment, and those having claims against the same are requested to present them to the undersigned, properly authenticated for settlement, at the late residence of deceased, Mr. John Pringle's, near Wilmore station.

CABINET WARE-ROOM. R. EYAN'S respectfully informs the citizens of Ebensburg, and Cambria county generally, that he has on hand and for sale, at his Ware-room, one square west of Blair's Hotel, a large and splendid assortment of FURNITURE, which he will sell very cheap.

SEVENTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE PROTECTION MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY OF CAMBRIA CO., PENNA.—Amt. property insured as per sixth annual report, $134,612 96.

NOTICE.—In the matter of the petitions of John Bruce, Henry Sanker and Samuel Sanker, for a decree of specific performance of contracts made with George Bruce, late of Allegheny township, Cambria county, dec'd., for certain real estate.