CHAT WITH OUR READERS.

The amount of business done in this section in the article of lumber has always been large. Indeed, northern Cambria has from time immemorial been distinguished as a superior lumber region.—When a stranger, of an inquiring turn of mind, does us the honor of a visit, he usually opens out with—"What is your staple commodity hereabouts—grain?" "No." "Stock?" "No." "Iron and minerals?" "No." "Poultry, vegetables, fruit, butter?" "No." "Well, what is it, then?" "Why, lumber, of course."

These remarks are merely introductory to saying that at no period has the business been better or "brisker" than during the present winter. A market may now be easily found for every description of board or plank, joist or scantling, shank or shingle, which is prepared and for sale—a market in which fabulous prices and the "cash down" are the distinguishing characteristics. In view of this fact, and seeing that northern Cambria is essentially a lumber district, our men of capital are bestirring themselves and engaging largely in the enterprise of furnishing the required commodity.

HONOR TO THE BRAVE.—On Thursday evening, a complimentary supper was tendered the re-enlisting members of Co. A, 11th Reserves, at home on furlough, by the editor of this paper. The supper was given at Moore's Mountain House, about thirty soldiers and invited guests being present. After ample justice had been done the good things of this life prepared for the occasion—under which the board absolutely groaned,—the company proceeded to the parlor, where short and appropriate addresses were delivered by Messrs. A. A. Barker, Samuel Singleton, R. Litzinger, E. Roberts, and others.

HOME FROM THE WARS.—The 55th Penna. Vols., having re-enlisted for three years more, has arrived home on a month's furlough from South Carolina, where it had been stationed for over two years.—The regiment is commanded by Col. Dick White, of this county, and comprises among its members two companies from this county. All of these, so far as we have seen, look hale and hearty, and give a favorable account of their soldiering experience in the Palmetto State. Mr. Joseph Wherry, the only representative in the regiment, we believe, from this place, is here. Success to them all!

Among many other articles, James M. Thompson has just received, at his new store, P. O. building, a very fine assortment of worsted, of all colors, black, white, red, &c. Ladies, go and see!

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE. FIRE—ABOUT OUR SOLDIERS—THE DRAFT—THE WEATHER, &c., &c. JOHNSTOWN, Feb. 1, 1864. Correspondence of The Alleghenian. A fire broke out about eleven o'clock last night, in a stable owned by a baker named Sutenberger, and for a while it was feared the adjacent buildings would become a prey to the destructive element. Fortunately the night was calm, and though the flames communicated to the bakery, thro' the prompt assistance of a number of our citizens they were subdued without serious loss to the building. It is supposed the fire originated from a smoke house in the vicinity of the stable, in which a quantity of meat was being cured. A fine horse which was in the stable could not be extricated, and was burned to death. Mr. S.'s loss will foot up about $400.

OUR COMMON SCHOOLS.—The report of the State Superintendent of Common Schools for the year ending June 4, 1863, is out. From it we learn that the number of schools in the State, not including Philadelphia city, is 12,161, an increase on the last year of 171. The whole attendance of pupils is 634,499, an increase of 19,412. Average attendance of pupils, 97,922; increase, 9,639. Percentage average, .005; last year, .035.—Average length of school term, 5 months 14 days. Average cost of each pupil per month, 50 cents, an increase of one cent. Number teachers, 14,442; increase, 62. Total cost of tuition, $1,498,040; increase, $130,850. Total cost of the system, including $45,000 appropriation in Philadelphia schools, $2,284,099; increase, $56,934. The total number of pupils, including Philadelphia, is 703,353, and the whole cost of the system, including the amount paid by Philadelphia, is $2,888,190, an increase of $104,604.—These facts are encouraging to the friends of the school system. Notwithstanding the war, the average attendance has been larger and the average per cent. upon the whole number in attendance one-half per cent. greater than last year. There were 717 fewer male teachers and 779 more female teachers in 1863 than the year previous, owing to the war. The percentage of attendance in the State schools is only 63.5, while in Philadelphia it is 84.4.

THE PRAYERS OF THE RIGHTEOUS." ETC.—In the Senate proceedings of last Thursday, we find the following paragraph: "At Mr. Lowry's request, a communication was read from one William T. Davis, who is evidently a monomaniac, praying devoutly that the Senate may organize." The gentleman referred to above as the author of the communication is a resident of and well known in this place. We saw the communication itself before its transmission to the Senate, and can vouch for its entire appropriateness, all things considered, and its patriotism and love of law and order. Pending the present rebellion, the country stands indebted to Mr. D.'s truly versatile pen for many a brilliant conception, usually embodied in a petitionary paper, praying for the success of the "Stares and Stripes" and deep damnation to all traitors. As to terming him a "monomaniac"—well, who isn't a monomaniac touching the subject of the restoration of the Union to its former condition of glory and greatness!

DIED: On Sunday evening, 31st ult., MAGGIE, third daughter of Evan and Catharine Griffith, of Ebensburg, aged 5 years.

And will positively prevent Yellow Fever, Bilious Fever, &c. THEY CURE: NO ALCOHOL OR BAD WHISKEY! They will cure the above diseases in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred. From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge. Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man should not use a medicine which he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others. I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to use them. J. NEWTON BROWN. PHILA'DA., JUNE 23, 1861.

ATTENTION SOLDIERS! Will build up the constitution, and give health and strength to an overtaxed and diseased system. PHILADELPHIA, August 12, 1862. Dr. C. M. JACKSON.—Dear Sir: While in Virginia, owing to the change of water, I was taken with a severe diarrhoea, which seemed incurable, and which greatly weakened me. When we reached Martinsburg, I feared that I should have to come home; but noticing some of your Bitters in the store of Mr. H. H. Price, in that town, I purchased a supply, and on taking it was speedily restored to health. The diarrhoea was quickly checked, and I experienced no return of it. A number of my comrades who suffered in the same manner and from the same cause, with whom I shared the Bitters, join me in this certificate. I expect to return to the seat of war with the Legion, and I shall certainly take a supply of the Bitters in my knapsack. I would not be without it for its weight in gold, particularly on going into a limestone region. Yours, truly, A. E. ALMEUS, Company H, Scott Legion.
