

EBENSBURG AND CRESSON RAILROAD. On and after Monday, November 16, 1863, trains on this road will run as follows:

LEAVE EBENSBURG—At 7:30 A. M., connecting with Balt. Express West and Thro' Accom East. At 7:15 P. M., connecting with Mail Train West and Thro' Express East.

LEAVE CRESSON—At 10:45 A. M., or on departure of Thro' Accommodation West. At 8:45 P. M., or on departure of Express East and Mail West.

CHAT WITH OUR READERS.

Not many years ago, Ebensburg was a paltry, insignificant village, whose name was known scarcely a hundred miles away from home. Isolated and alone, it presented the true embodiment of the poet's conception where he speaks about a creature of some sort or other as "blushing unseen and wasting its fragrance on the desert air."

But then we got our Branch Railroad. An artery connecting us with the great throbbing heart of the nation, this beneficent enterprise soon began to bear its legitimate fruits. It immediately made this a place of considerable importance.

Business, which theretofore had languished, received a fresh impetus—took a new lease of life,—and the grass stopped growing in our streets. The old industrial and manufacturing pursuits, discovered to be paying investments, became more fully developed, and new ones were largely engaged in.

The Railroad has proved all our fancy painted it and a dot or two over. It has demonstrated that there is not only something in Ebensburg, but also that there is a way to get this something out, that the labor may be worth the pains.

The number of inmates remaining in the Poor House January, 1863, was 56; admitted since, 54; discharged and abandoned, 54; bound out, 3; died, 10—remaining January 25, 1864, 43.

At HOME.—Adj. Thos. D. Litzinger, of the 11th Penna. Reserves, is now at home on a fifteen days' furlough. He is looking fine as silk, and seems to be in no wise injured by his two years and a half campaigning.

Charles Kaylor, son of Mr. Peter Kaylor, of Munster tp., and brother of Lieut. Peter Kaylor, dec'd., is also at home on furlough. He belongs to Col. Dick White's 55th Pa. Vols., and has re-enlisted for the war.

CRAWFISHING EXTRAORDINARY.—The Johnstown Democrat, which paper has always been noted as a most persistent vilifier of the "menials" of the "shoddy" administration of Mr. Lincoln, last week astonished the natives by coming out and saying that—

"As a journalist and itemizer, we have to speak often of military arrests. In doing so we shall ever claim the privilege of condemning arbitrary laws. At the same time it is and always has been our opinion that Provost Marshals and others, who are sworn officers, should not be condemned for performing the duties imposed by bad laws."

What's wrong? The Democrat has heretofore been in the habit of belaboring "our Provost" most unmercifully about every other week,—[see the fable of the dog baying at the moon.]—and this sudden veer to another tack astonishes us not a little.

P. S.: Can it be possible that a certain chapter of unwritten political history has something to do with this ground and lofty tumbling of the Democrat?

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.—The statement of receipts and expenditures of Cambria county for the year ending Jan. 26, 1864, has been published.

Am't due county from Treasurer at last annual settlement, $1,740 04. Am't taxes, &c., since received, $7,725 39.

A full exhibit is given of the amount of stock on farm, articles on hand, products of farm for year, and articles manufactured by inmates, all of which we omit for want of room.

The settlement with James J. Kaylor, Steward of Poor House, resulted as follows: To orders, cash, &c., $649 40.

At HOME.—Adj. Thos. D. Litzinger, of the 11th Penna. Reserves, is now at home on a fifteen days' furlough.

Charles Kaylor, son of Mr. Peter Kaylor, of Munster tp., and brother of Lieut. Peter Kaylor, dec'd., is also at home on furlough.

The Democratic Senatorial Conference for this district meets at Tyrone on the 17th March next, to select a delegate to represent said district in their State Convention.

A CHANGE.—Capt. A. M. Lloyd, of Hollidaysburg, has been appointed Provost Marshal of this District, vice Capt. Campbell, removed, and entered on the discharge of the duties of his office on Monday week.

WHO WANTS A CONTRACT?—Until Thursday, March 31, 1864, proposals will be received at the Post Office Department, Washington, for the carrying of the mails within the United States, for four years, commencing on July 1, 1864.

From Cresson, by Munster, to Ebensburg, 12 miles, and back, twice daily, except Sunday, by railroad, and by a schedule satisfactory to the Department.

THE DRAFT.—The quota of this District (the XVIIth) under the call for three hundred thousand men was as follows:

Blair, 424; Huntingdon, 269; Cambria, 381; Millin, 1393. Total, 2667.

Under the additional call for two hundred thousand, the quota of the District will probably be increased two-thirds, or to 2,321.

TRIFLET.—A few days since, the wife of a man named James Trimble, residing near Cherry Tree, Indiana county, presented her legs to us with three bouncing youngsters, all girls, at one and the same birth.

MARRIED: On Sunday evening, 17th ult., by Rev. A. J. Hartsock, Johnstown, Mr. DORSEY KING, of Johnstown, to Miss EMMA PARSON, of Somerset county.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.

JOHNSTOWN, Feb. 9, 1864. Dear Alleghenian.—The Teachers' Institute for Cambria county met in this place last week, and though the attendance was small, everything passed off satisfactorily.

At HOME.—Adj. Thos. D. Litzinger, of the 11th Penna. Reserves, is now at home on a fifteen days' furlough.

Robert Hamilton, one of the first settlers of Johnstown, died on Tuesday morning last, at the advanced age of eighty-two.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to use them.

ATTENTION SOLDIERS!

Will build up the constitution, and give health and strength to an overtaken and diseased system.

PHILADELPHIA, AUGUST 12, 1862.

Dr. C. M. JACKSON.—Dear Sir: While in Virginia, owing to the change of water, I was taken with a severe diarrhoea, which seemed incurable, and which greatly weakened me.

When we reached Martinsburg, I feared that I should have to come home; but noticing some of your Bitters in the store of Mr. H. H. Price, in that town, I purchased a supply, and on taking it was speedily restored to health.

The diarrhoea was quickly checked, and I experienced no return of it. A number of my comrades who suffered in the same manner and from the same cause, with whom I shared the Bitters, join me in this certificate. I expect to return to the seat of war with the Legion, and I shall certainly take a supply of the Bitters in my knapsack. I would not be without it for its weight in gold, particularly on going into a limestone region.

Yours, truly, A. B. ALMEUS, Company H, Scott Legion.
