

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

EBENSBURG AND CRESSON RAILROAD.—On and after Monday, November 16, 1863, trains on this road will run as follows: LEAVE EBENSBURG—At 7.20 A. M., connecting with Balt. Express West and Thro' Accom East.

LEAVE CRESSON.—At 10.45 A. M., or on departure of Thro' Accommodation West. At 8.45 P. M., or on departure of Express East and Mail West.

CHAT WITH OUR READERS.—It has been aptly remarked that a thousand "good things" may find their way into the columns of a newspaper, and the editor receive no special credit therefor; but just allow something that is not good to be printed—an article or paragraph which some subscriber, in the plenitude of his wisdom, may imagine to be false, scandalous, or unfit to be read by himself or family,—and then isn't there a sensation engendered! The poor editor looks in vain for words of encouragement so long as he pleases everybody, but for real or fancied shortcomings he may be sure he will be held to a strict accountability.

standard of worth, in the general estimation, to a very low figure indeed. To guard against this, they should be careful to distribute a modicum of civility and affability into all their labors. Thus they become public benefactors instead of public nuisances, and their names, when mentioned at all, are mentioned in connection with the names of those who are admitted on all hands to be "hunky boys" and "bully fellows."

OUR JAIL.—That this delectable institution is in a bad old state of repair at present is a fact patent to all who have been inside it latterly. It is shrewdly suggested that it is more particularly on this account than on any other that so many prisoners yearly make good their escape therefrom, they being pardonably unwilling to abide by the inferior accommodations there afforded them!

On the north side of the jail, and adjoining it, is a space of ground enclosed by a stone wall probably 25 feet square and 20 feet high. This enclosure is of about the same value to the jail that a fifth wheel is to a wagon. What it ever was built for is a mystery to us, unless, indeed, some political favorite stood badly in need of a money-making contract at the time of the erection of the jail.

There is another matter demanding speedy attention. In the various cells, the beds for the prisoners are all placed directly on the floor. Now, it is a well-known law of nature that a current of air is continually circulating next the floor, of much greater density than elsewhere in a room. Such being the case, we are sure it must be next to an impossibility for the prisoners to keep warm and comfortable of nights during the winter season.

THE RESULT.—Our borough election came off on Friday last. No particular excitement was manifest during the day, except in the West Ward, where the contest between the friends respectively of H. Kinkead and Thomas Callan, rival candidates for the office of Justice of the Peace, was carried on with all the enthusiasm characteristic of an election for President.

Justice of the Peace, Harrison Kinkead; Town Council, John Dougherty, Isaac Crawford, Frank Shoemaker, James S. Todd, George C. K. Zahn; Constable, William Mills, Jr.; Judge of Election, Michael Hasson; Inspectors, George W. Oatman, Robert Evans; Assessor, James Murray; Assistant Assessors, William Barnes, Daniel C. Zahn—all Democrats excepting the second-named Inspector.—They are all good men.

A POP-VISIT.—Lieut. Dan D. Jones, of Co. A, 11th Penna. Reserves, whose nuptials we chronicled elsewhere, was at home the beginning of the week for a couple of days. He looked as if neither sojering nor getting married particularly disagreed with him. Not content with having served three years in the army, he has re-enlisted for another term. We sincerely hope his future career may be pleasant and prosperous as his past. —Balm: the weather just now.

WASHINGTON TOWNSHIP ERECT!—A correspondent from Hemlock, this county, sends us the following items: "Old Washington township is pretty nearly redeemed from the lash of Slaveocracy. On last Friday the Union Republican Ticket was successfully elected. For Judge of Election, we elected Mr. Richard C. Trotter, a conservative Union Democrat, over the regular nominee of the Democracy; for Inspector, Mr. Jesse Woodcock, a sound Republican; and for Assessor, Mr. George Tiley, also a good Republican. This is glory enough for one day.

QUOTA OF THE COUNTY UNDER ALL CALLS.—Through the kindness of Commissioner-of-the-Draft Harr, we are enabled to give herewith the quotas of the several sub-districts of Cambria under the President's call for 500,000 men:

Table with 2 columns: District Name and Quota. Includes Allegheny, Carroll & Carroll, Borough, Susquehanna, Chest, Clearfield, Chest Springs bor., White, Washington and Summit bor., Munster, Croyle, Summerhill, etc.

Grand total, 589. In any sub-district where a draft has to be made, fifty per cent. will be added for exemptions.

CORRECTION.—In an item last week, we mentioned that a report was current here that a man had been killed, recently, in a brawl at Gallitzin, this county. The report was incorrect in one particular—the man was not killed, but badly injured. He was struck several times with a pick, knocked senseless for the time being, and otherwise badly used up. He is recovering, and will get well. Of the nature of this "discussum" and the names of the belligerents we are totally in the dark. The man who did the damage has enlisted in the army, thus atoning in a measure for past misdeeds.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge. Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to use them. PHILADELPHIA, JUNE 23, 1861.

ATTENTION SOLDIERS!

Will build up the constitution, and give health and strength to an overtaken and diseased system.

PHILADELPHIA, August 12, 1862. DR. C. M. JACKSON.—Dear Sir: While in Virginia, owing to the change of water, I was taken with a severe diarrhoea, which seemed incurable, and which greatly weakened me. When we reached Martinsburg, I feared that I should have to come home; but noticing some of your Bitters in the store of Mr. H. H. Price, in that town, I purchased a supply, and on taking it was speedily restored to health. The diarrhoea was quickly checked, and I experienced no return of it. A number of my comrades who suffered in the same manner and from the same cause, with whom I shared the Bitters, join me in this certificate. I expect to return to the seat of war with the Legion, and I shall certainly take a supply of the Bitters in my knapsack. I would not be without it for its weight in gold, particularly on going into a limestone region. Yours, truly, A. K. ALMEUS, Company H, 3d Legion.
