

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

EBENSBURG AND CRESSON RAILROAD.
On and after Monday, November 16, 1863, trains on this road will run as follows:

LEAVE EBENSBURG—
At 7.20 A. M., connecting with Balt. Express West and Thro' Accom East.
At 7.15 P. M., connecting with Mail Train West and Thro' Express East.

LEAVE CRESSON—
At 10.45 A. M. or on departure of Thro' Accommodation West.
At 8.45 P. M., or on departure of Express East and Mail West.

THE HOUR—THE DUTY.—Now that Congress has extended the time for the payment of bounties to volunteers, would it not be the part of wisdom in Cambria county to make an effort to fill her quota under the President's call for five hundred thousand men? Volunteering seems to be going on rapidly all over the State excepting here. The indications are that, when a draft does occur, Cambria alone, of the four counties composing this Congressional district, will be drafted. This will be a pretty eminence, indeed, for the proud old Mountain County to attain!

There is no mistake in saying that hundreds of Cambrians are now enlisting. They are enlisting in other counties, however—counties where local bounties are paid. When a man concludes to volunteer, he were something more than human to refuse making the most out of his determination possible. We don't blame a man for giving Cambria the go-by, where he gets no bounty, and crediting himself to Chester county, where he gets a good bounty. The blame attaches to us rather than to him. And if we allow this system of depletion to continue, we will soon become depopulated of our fighting material, and left to the uncertain resort of going elsewhere for men where-with to fill our quota.

Cambria county is able to pay a bounty. She is able to pay a good bounty. If our County Commissioners will not do their duty and offer a county bounty of one or two hundred dollars to each man enlisting—and the indications are they will not—then the people should move in the matter. Let those liable to military duty call meetings in their respective sub-districts, raise whatever bounty they can, and secure their men—if they can. Failing to raise the bounty by subscription, this can most likely be done by the enactment of local taxation laws, which the Legislature will readily legalize.

Nearly six hundred men are required from Cambria county under all calls. Possibly, we have a credit on this number of one hundred—leaving five hundred yet to be raised. We are sure two hundred of our citizens—perhaps more—have enlisted since the promulgation of the order for the draft, who have, through mere lack of energy on our part, been credited elsewhere. With these credited to Cambria, our quota would now be half filled. In this connection, the following observation may not come amiss: Altho' the number to be drawn from in the county has been largely decreased of late, the number to be drawn remains the same as though no volunteering had occurred. Although two hundred men have gone out from our midst, our quota remains six hundred as before.

It is not too late yet to go to work. With rare kindness, and a disposition to give us still another chance, the authorities have again postponed the draft. Be sure that, although the draft be postponed time after time, Cambria county will ultimately be called upon to furnish, by draft, the precise number of men she may refuse to supply, on her quota, by volunteering. Remember this fact, and go to work at once!

OLD CLOTHES NOT REFUSED.—Says the Johnstown Democrat: "From the greatly diminished list of letters now published, compared with former lists, we would infer that the present Postmaster (of Johnstown) attends punctually to his duty."
From the present tone of the Democrat, compared with its tone as of yore, we would infer that journal is "hard up," financially speaking, and wants a share of the P. O. printing!

BURNED OUT.—We are sorry to learn that the dwelling house of Mr. Levi Beers, in White township, this county, together with its contents, was totally destroyed by fire on the 3d inst. Both Mr. Beers and wife were away at the time of the occurrence, the children only remaining at home. A short time before, Mr. B. had lost two of his children by disease. Truly, to him misfortunes have not come singly, but in regiments.

PERSONAL.—Among the strangers in attendance at Court this week, we notice Hon. A. C. Mullin, Private Secretary for Governor Curtin, who is revisiting the scenes of his former usefulness to recuperate and see his friends. He is looking "gay, smiling and young"—sure indications that the cares of State fail to weigh more heavily on him than they ought to do.

Mr. James E. Hartzell, of Pittsburg, is also on the sod. He is a witness on the "murder case"—one of the lucky ones who make five bits a day and mileage. On the principle that it is a neat thing to kill two birds with one stone, he is also special reporter for the Pittsburg Dispatch, and intends furnishing that paper with an accurate synopsis of all evidence which may be elicited in this most interesting trial.

Sergt. Charles A. Fagan, of Co. A, 11th Penna. Reserves, who came home on furlough about six weeks ago, and has been lying sick ever since, is, we are happy to see, going about again. He bids fair to be as "good as new" in a short time.

Mr. Clinton R. Jones, of West Va., with his family, has arrived here. He reports the new and flourishing State which he represents as all right, with the single exception that guerillas do much about there.

Col. John M. Bowman, of the Johnstown Tribune, is here, and has favored us with a couple of calls. He prints a bully paper, and is himself a bully fellow.

We see our friend Campbell, of the Johnstown Democrat, circulating around town. He should remember that our lathstring still hangs out.

Mr. Casper W. Easley, of Johnstown, is also located with us, pro tem. There may be better men where he comes from than "Cas," but—we can't see it.

Mr. Lloyd Christy, of Hollidaysburg, is a looker-on in Venice, seeing what is to be seen and hearing what is to be heard. Success to them all!

THE GREAT MURDER CASE.—The Moore-Marbourg homicide case has attracted an immense crowd here this week. Town absolutely overflows with strangers, who crowd the hotels and boarding houses to excess. The indictment in the prosecution was laid before the Grand Jury on Monday afternoon, and the same evening a "true bill" was returned. Tuesday morning the work of empanelling a jury was begun. The panel was soon exhausted, and at noon only seven jurors had been accepted. In the afternoon, however, the twelve men requisite were secured and sworn in, and the hearing of the evidence begun. This has continued thus far without interruption, and, as some one or two hundred witnesses have been subpoenaed, the probabilities are it will continue for a day or two longer.

In addition to District Attorney Noon, the counsel for the prosecution comprises Gen. Henry D. Foster, of Greensburg, and Messrs. Potts and Kopelin, of Johnstown; the defence has secured the services of Messrs. Johnston of Ebensburg, Pershing, McLaughlin and Elder, of Johnstown, Billings G. Childs, of Pittsburg, John Scott, of Huntingdon, and Wm. J. Baer, of Somerset.

We will give details in full next week.

DIED: At the house of Samuel Stiles, Ebensburg, on Saturday, 27th February, of scarlet fever, EDWIN KIMBALL, son of Luther and Maria Jane Stiles, of Blacklick township, Cambria county, aged 2 years and 7 days.

Weep not for those
Who sink within the arms of death
Ere yet the chilling wintry breath
Of sorrow o'er them blows,
But weep for them who here remain,
* The mournful heritors of pain.
Condemn'd to see each bright joy fade,
And mark grief's melancholy shade
Flung o'er Hope's fairest rose.

WITH AN ALCOHOLIC TWANG.—The Johnstown Democrat says a new mode of "exhausting a vessel" is to write for The Alleghanian. Our neighbor adheres to the old method. He exhausts a vessel by that species of legerdemain acquirable only through intimate acquaintance with pewter mugs, beer bottles, and bungs. At least so it is reported.

TRUE FOR YOU.—"Speaking of gas," says the Johnstown Democrat, "reminds us that we have been supplied with the genuine article."

A peep into the sanctum of the Democrat, during the working hours of its editors, is all that is necessary, we think, to fully verify this statement.

—An effort, which we think will be successful, is now being made to fill the quota of Ebensburg with volunteers.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.

JOHNSTOWN, March 7, 1864.

To the Editor of The Alleghanian:

A couple of fights occurred here last week, in one of which, a gentleman from the vicinity of Wilmore, having got on an over-load of the "ardent," found himself the principal in a street fight, and as a natural result, pretty badly abused. He was subsequently conveyed to the Mayor's office, where, paying a fine, and receiving a parting admonition to sin no more, he left, a "wiser if not a better man." The other occurred on Saturday evening, when constable Strayer, in attempting to arrest one of the Gates family for disorderly conduct, was assaulted and badly beaten by a couple of these hopeful scions of a quarrelsome sire. To do these men justice, however, they are very quiet and inoffensive young men when sober, but the very reverse when under the influence of liquor. I believe the parties were bound over to await trial for assaulting an officer.

Our city has been guilty of an operatic sensation. According to programme, a concert was given in the Lutheran Church on Saturday evening, consisting of vocal and instrumental selections from the popular operas of the day. Mr. and Mrs. Luckhardt, and their talented daughter, assisted by Miss Louisa Scriba, of Pittsburg, an amateur operatic performer of considerable reputation, sustained the principal parts. Miss Lina Luckhardt has already attained celebrity for her surprising musical talent, having been highly complimented by the Western press a short time since for the superior manner in which she acquitted herself at various private performances in Cincinnati. Although quite young, her gentle, unassuming demeanor and rare musical attainments have made her a general favorite wherever known. Her part was ably sustained through the entire performance. Miss Scriba is the possessor of a charming voice, at complete control, and it was a rare treat to hear her in the rapid and difficult changes pertaining to the peculiar style of operatic singing. Miss Scriba and Miss Luckhardt were several times encoored during their part of the performance. Mr. and Mrs. Luckhardt, with the powerful choir of the church, acquitted themselves to the satisfaction of all present. The concert, which was for the benefit of the school attached to the Lutheran church, will be repeated this evening.

Nearly every person will be out of town this week attending the trial of Joseph Moore for the murder of Jordan Marbourg. A great number of witnesses go up to day for the purpose of engaging lodging, as it is expected the hotels will not have sufficient accommodations for the persons interested in the case.

Rev. A. J. Hartsock, pastor of the U. B. Church, leaves this morning for the 110th P. V., he having been appointed Chaplain of that Regiment some time ago. He preached his farewell sermon to a crowded church last evening. Mr. H. takes with him the prayers and good wishes of the entire community.

Yours, MAY LEON.

WANTED TO KNOW.—If, as is reported, the editor of the Johnstown Democrat is a Campbell when in good humor, does it follow he is an Agitated bell after reading The Alleghanian?

SECURE THE SHADOW, ETC.—If any of our citizens, or any of the strangers in attendance at Court, desire to have a superior photograph or ambrotype of themselves taken, they should visit Ames' Gallery, on Centre street, one square north of the Diamond. He is admitted on all hands to be a superior artist, as good perhaps, as any outside the cities. His gallery being provided with a skylight, he is enabled to take pictures in all sorts of weather. Give him a call!

WHO DON'T WANT BARGAINS!—Strangers who have been attracted to Ebensburg to hear the evidence in the "Moore-Marbourg Murder Case," should not fail to call at James M. Thompson's New Store, P. His stock of Cigars and Tobacco is particularly fine.—Go and see!

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to use them.

ATTENTION SOLDIERS!

Will build up the constitution, and give health and strength to an overtasked and diseased system.

PHILADELPHIA, August 12, 1862.
Dr. C. M. JACKSON—Dear Sir: While in Virginia, owing to the change of water, I was taken with a severe diarrhoea, which seemed incurable, and which greatly weakened me. When we reached Martinsburg, I feared that I should have to come home; but noticing some of your Bitters in the store of Mr. H. H. Price, in that town, I purchased a supply, and on taking it was speedily restored to health. The diarrhoea was quickly checked, and I experienced no return of it. A number of my comrades who suffered in the same manner and from the same cause, with whom I shared the Bitters, join me in this certificate. I expect to return to the seat of war with the Legion, and I shall certainly take a supply of the Bitters in my knapsack. I would not be without it, as its weight in gold, particularly on going into a limestone region.
Yours, truly,
A. E. ALBRES,
Company 21, Scott Legion.
