The subscription list of The Alleghanian has been increased thirty names within the past two weeks.

The Johnstown Democrat thinks we are in danger of falling into "gross darkness." Not any—we don't depend upon your farthing rush for mental illumination.

Capt. H. C. Beamer, of Duncanville, has been appointed Assistant Provost Marshal of Blair county, vice Col. John Piper, removed.

It is positively asserted the State militia of 1862 are now going to be paid off, and that instructions to that effect have been issued to paymasters.

Dr. Belford, the eminent dentist, is in town. Give him a call, ye who are the unfortunate possessors of defective molars or incisors.

Subscribers to The Alleghanian who may change their places of residence on the 1st of April should give us notice of such change, that their papers may be properly addressed to them.

A man named Peter Kinney has been arrested and lodged in the Huntingdon jail, charged with killing his wife on the night of St. Patrick's day. He lived on Broad Top.

The editor of the Dem. & Sent. was presented with a barrel of flour by some enterprising individual the other day.— Would have no objection to see the same trick attempted upon us!

The maple sugar season is here, and our farmers, those who are the enviable possessors of "camps," are busily engaged in turning out large quantities of the toothsome substance. It retails in our stores at fifteen cents per pound.

We inadvertently omitted mentioning last week that Lieut. J. Nix Kinkead, of Co. M, 12th Pa. Cavalry, was in town.— His regiment has re-enlisted for the war, and is home on a thirty days furlough. Nix is a tip-top fellow, and an honor to the town that raised him. We wish him all manner of success.

The Johnstown Democrat computes its friends in this county, in round numbers, at just "one thousand." Seeing that there are three thousand Democratic voters in the county, we are irresistibly led to the conclusion that our cotemporary is not so highly appreciated by the members of its own household as it might be!

Through an unfortunate blunder of the telegraph, the President was made to say in his late call for two hundred thousand men that the time for the payment of the Government bounties of $300 and $400 was extended to the fifteenth of April; whereas, by official notice received by the various Boards of Enrollment, it appears these bounties cease on the first of April to-morrow.

It is shrewdly supposed the equinoctial storm was around on Friday last. At least, on that day and during the succeeding night we were visited by the biggest and bluestriest snow-storm of the winter. The snow fell to the depth of fully one foot on the level and six feet in fence corners. It failed to remain with us any length of time, however, for as we write accurate inspection of our streets reveals the surface covering whatever save and excepting mud. [Wednesday morning:— can see it now! Snow fifteen inches in depth, and still falling. This latter must be the equinoctial storm.]

We believe we have not heretofore mentioned that Col. James M. Swank, formerly editor of the Johnstown Tribune, and for a year or two past a departmental editor at Washington city, has become the editor of the Pittsburgh Daily Gazette. Col. S. is an able and pleasing writer—in fact, when it comes to wielding the goosequill, he takes rank second in the State. Under his direction the Gazette will lose none of that brilliancy which has heretofore attended it.

Should the Col. become possessed of a desire to inflect upon us his views in exchange for our weekly, he is at liberty to follow the promptings of his heart. We will not feel aggrieved

A COMPLIMENT TO ONE WE KNOW.— A correspondent of the Sacramento (Cal.) Daily Union, giving an account of a "trip to Washoe," speaks thus flatteringly of Maj. Charles M'Dermitt, a former Ebensburg, and of Fort Churchill, Nevada Territory, the post under his command:

Fort Churchill is simply a military post, and no fort. It is eligibly situated on a wide gravelly slope near the Carson. Its large parade ground is inclosed on the west by the men's quarters and the bakeries; on the east by the Commissary and Quartermaster's and the hospital buildings; and on the north by the officers' quarters. The latter face the river and the cottonwoods. All the buildings are adobe, plastered upon the outside, and having projecting roofs, which form a veranda. The officers' quarters are one and a half stories in height. They are admirably arranged for convenience, but have never been perfectly finished throughout. As they are, they are the most comfortable quarters on this coast; and they would be, if finished, most elegant dwellings for any general or man of rank.

The men's quarters, the bakery buildings, the general mess-room, and all about them, are as comfortable and as neat as any bachelor could desire. The hospital is a miracle of neatness and comfort; and of the Commissary and Quartermaster's offices it may be said that they are in as sound condition as perfect system and order can make them. The men and officers garrisoning Churchill have no right to complain of their accommodations.—nor to the command of Major Charles M'Dermitt for two years or more; and it is high praise of him to say that the post never was in so good condition, nor looked so well, since the days of the "Regulars," and in those days certainly no better.

The Major has not only proved himself a good officer, but he has, with an enlarged sense of the duties of a man, extended every aid to the poor worn immigrants passing the post. He has now and then captured and confined a "Secesh," it is true, but even they, I am sure, will have nothing to say against his humanity. The Pah Uthas venerate the Major, and he deserves their veneration. The Major is no Indian Agent, but he has done more than any one man to harmonize the conflicts between the white and the red races, and to preserve the peace essential to our prosperity. He has done more—he has, in his own person, redeemed the honor and the good faith of the whites to a great extent; and what honest man will not thank him for it, if he but knows how shamelessly that honor and faith have been compromised by too many white men. Such a man as the Major is worth all the Indian Agents ever upon this coast.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL.—The Pittsburgh M. E. Conference met at Barnesville, Belmont county, Ohio, on Wednesday, 23d inst., Bishop Levi Scott presiding.— It continued in session five days, transacting much important business. The following are the appointments made for this District for the ensuing year:

BLAIRSVILLE DISTRICT.—T. McLEARY, P. E. Blairsville, S. Y. Kennedy. Johnstown, C. H. Jackson. Indiana, M. W. Dallas. Greensburg and Pleasant Unity, W. Brown. Kittanning, A. H. Thomas. Dayton, A. Baker. Elderton, M. J. Montgomery, A. P. Leonard. Latrobe, J. S. Wakefield, J. Gray. Mt. Pleasant, E. Williams. West Newton, W. W. Roup. Mechanicsburg, P. G. Edwards, H. Long. New Florence, J. C. High. Burrell and Apollo, J. Shane, one to be supplied. Ligonier, W. A. Stewart. Saltsburg and Hopewell, S. T. Shaw. Marchand, N. G. Miller. Smithport, to be supplied. Ebensburg, J. S. Lemmon, one to be sup. H. Manzell, Missionary to India.

We are glad to see that Mr. Lemmon has been re-assigned to this place. An eloquent expounder of the word of God, and a valuable albeit unassuming citizen, he is justly popular with all classes.

ANOTHER STEP UPWARD.—Lieut. Col. Dan Porter, of the 11th Penna. Reserves, having resigned his commission in the regiment, we are gratified to learn that Major Robert A. McCoy has been promoted to the position: "Bob" is eminently qualified to fill this or any other office.— He has had a long apprenticeship in the art of war, and can set a squadron in the tented field with the best of them. Starting hence nearly three years ago as Second Lieutenant of the "Cambria Guards," he has subsequently filled the offices of First Lieutenant, Adjutant, and Major, with entire satisfaction not only to his superiors, but also to the rank and file. We hope good luck may continue to hit him!

SMASH UP.—On Friday night last, about 11 o'clock, two freight trains on the Penna. Railroad collided near Lilly's station, this county. A smash up of considerable magnitude was the result. We understand that no less than three engines and twelve cars were totally wrecked and ruined. No lives were lost, nor no personal injury was done the persons having the trains in charge, we believe.

MAGAZINES.—We have received God-ey's Lady's Book, Peterson's Magazine, the Continental Monthly, and the Knickerbocker, for April. They are all the most excellent numbers, and keep well up with the spirit of the times.

DREADFUL.—A few days since W. Roper, photographer, of Carrollville, Blair county, fell from Point Lookout, near Chattanooga, a distance of over a hundred feet, and was instantly killed.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE. JOHNSTOWN, March 29, 1864.

PAY-DAY AT "THE MILL," AND WHAT CAME OF IT.—WOOLLEN FACTORY TO BE ERECTED.—PERSONAL MENTION, &c., &c.

Correspondence of The Alleghanian.

Friday and Saturday last were the usual pay-days at the Mill. This occasion is generally observed by an extra number of drunks, with an occasional street fight. These periodical rows are of course an old song, but one so much out of the usual order transpired on Sunday, that I must chronicle it. Two female denizens of a den of iniquity in Conemaugh borough saw fit to quarrel that evening, for the reason that one accused the other of stealing a dollar from her, and buying whiskey with it. A war of words, with a perfect torrent of obscene abuse, was the initiative, when matters were brought to a crisis by one of these frail cyprians inserting her digits in the hair of the other. A regular rough and tumble street fight ensued, until from sheer exhaustion the parties separated. Is not this a sad commentary upon the morals of our city?

The erection of an extensive woollen factory upon the site known as "Murray's Grove" is in contemplation, and the plans, &c., are already prepared by the architect. I understand it is to be four stories high, and stock to the amount of $200,000 will be invested.

Rev. Ahrenfeldt, whilom pastor of the English Lutheran church, preached his farewell sermon to his congregation last Sabbath. He retires from the ministry to engage in business pursuits.

The children of the German Lutheran school give a concert to-night, at Kohler's hall, for the benefit of their school. It will be well attended.

A short time ago I spoke of the probable return of Co. M, 12th Pa. Cavalry.— Last week the members who re-enlisted, some fifty, arrived in town. Capt. Morgan M'Donald, who commands the company, did not get home until this evening. He informs me that he will receive a limited number of recruits, and, as a better or braver officer cannot be met with, I advise those who feel inclined to enlist, to do so with Capt. M'Donald. He bears the reputation of being a brilliant and dashing officer, and kind in the treatment of his subordinates.

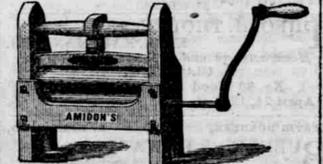

I also had the pleasure of meeting Lieuts. Kinkead, and Hite, of the same company. They look every inch the soldier. The weather for the past few days has been mild and ethereal-like, and the nights suggestive of "meet me by moonlight alone." Can you fancy anything more charming than a dreamy moonlight evening, a fair companion by your side, and—so forth! Yours, MAY LEON.

THE GREATEST DISCOVERY OF THE AGE.—Farmers, families and others can purchase no remedy equal to Dr. Tobias's Venetian Liniment, for dysentery, colic, cramp, chronic rheumatism, sore throats, toothache, sea sickness, cuts, burns, swellings, bruises, old sores, headache, mosquito bites, pains in the limbs, chest, back, &c. If it does not give relief the money will be refunded. All that is asked is a trial and use it according to the directions.

DR. TOBIAS'S DEAR SIR: I have used your Venetian Liniment in my family for a number of years, and believe it to be the best article for what it is recommended that I have ever used. For sudden attack of cramp it is invaluable. I have no hesitation in recommending it for all the uses it professes to cure. I have sold it for many years, and it gives entire satisfaction. CHAS. H. TRIMNER. Quakertown, N. J., May 8, 1858. Price 25 and 50 cents. Sold by all druggists. Office, 56 Cortlandt street, New-York.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others. I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to use them. J. NEWTON BROWN. PHILAD'A., June 23, 1861.

ATTENTION SOLDIERS!

Will build up the constitution, and give health and strength to an overtasked and diseased system.

PHILADELPHIA, August 12, 1862. DR. C. M. JACKSON.—Dear Sir: While in Virginia, owing to the change of water, I was taken with a severe diarrhoea, which seemed incurable, and which greatly weakened me. When we reached Martinsburg, I feared that I should have to come home; but noticing some of your Bitters in the store of Mr. H. H. Price, in that town, I purchased a supply, and on taking it was speedily restored to health. The diarrhoea was quickly checked, and I experienced no return of it. A number of my comrades who suffered in the same manner and from the same cause, with whom I shared the Bitters, join me in this certificate. I expect to return to the seat of war with the Legion, and I shall certainly take a supply of the Bitters in my knapsack. I would not be without it for its weight in gold, particularly on going into a limestone region. Yours, truly, A. E. ALMEUS, Company H, Scott Legion.
