School directors and teachers are referred to fourth page. Butter is about as scarce here as honest Democratic politicians, and commands a premium equally steep with gold.

April is here, but instead of her accustomed flowers and showers, she is vouchsafing us cold blasts and blasted colds—in the head.

Campbell, of the Johnstown Democrat, has been made a member of the Dem. State Central Committee. He will doubtless be the bearer of burdens for that State body.

The house of Mr. William H. Lake, of Loreto, this county, was discovered to be on fire on Wednesday of last week. The flames were subdued, however, before any damage had been done excepting the destruction of a portion of the roof.

Mr. Legislator Pershing's bill increasing the pay of jurors in Cambria county to $1.50 per day, and of witnesses to $1.00 per day, has passed both houses of the Legislature, and is therefore a law.—This was a much needed amendment.

Our subscribers should preserve this number of our paper, containing, as it does, the General Bounty Bill, or bill authorizing counties, towns, cities, and townships to borrow money and levy taxes to pay bounties to volunteers.

The cattle in this section are dying off in great numbers, several farmers we know of having recently lost as many as ten to sixteen head inside a few days. The mortality is attributed to disease, but keeping in view the fact that last fall's grass and grain crop was totally inadequate to the demands of the bovine appetite for the winter, we think a dearth of provender would come nearer the mark.

Reader! have you been at Chan Roberts' jewelry store lately? If not, you are losing money day by day. He has just received from the cities a most magnificent assortment of watches, jewelry and knick-knackerie—magnificent beyond former experience. All these he will sell at the very lowest prices circumstances—such as the circumstance of "first cost," you know—will admit. Drop in and see him and them!

The Jakey sheet up-street declines entering into a "religious controversy" with us, and insists that "religion and politics should be kept separate and distinct." So we believe; we did not propose a religious controversy with it. Taking the Jakey at its own declaration, we submit it becomes incumbent on it, to be consistent, to henceforth expunge from its columns its accustomed silly abuse of the Puritans and "long-faced hypocrites of New England." Eh?

Capt. Rolla Evans, of Co. I, 20th Ills. Infantry, an Ebensburg'er by birth and "brought up," but for nine years past a resident of Bloomington, Illinois, has been here on a visit for several days.—We find him the same Rolla he used to be in days gone by—genial, whole-souled and good looking. He has already achieved an enviable reputation "out West," and we know the honors with which he has been invested are not unmerited or misplaced.

A couple of weeks ago, we took occasion to unmask the lie of the Dem. & Sent. wherein it asserted that the members of the Ebensburg "emergency" company, in their campaign last summer, proved themselves horse, hog and chicken thieves, instead of soldiers. We think we did so to the entire satisfaction of every unbiased mind. The D. & S., however, has as yet failed to retract its damaging calumny. We now demand that it do so, and that it tell its readers that the men composing that company comported themselves away from home in like manner as they comport themselves here—as honorable, honest, high-minded men. Will it comply?

AN ACT RELATING TO THE EB. & SUSQ. PLANK ROAD.—The following bill, of local interest, has been introduced into the House of Representatives:

Whereas, The Ebensburg & Susquehanna Plank Road has become unfit for travel, and there are no funds to keep it in repair; And Whereas, It is necessary and important to the inhabitants residing along and in the vicinity of the said road that it be kept in a condition to be traveled; therefore Sec 1. Be it enacted, &c., That it shall be the duty of the supervisors of each township through which the Ebensburg & Susquehanna Plank Road passes, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, forthwith to take charge of and put in good order and repair such part of said Plank Road as may be in their respective townships, and from time to time maintain and keep in order all parts of said road, in the same manner as if the same were a county road; and in case of a failure to do so, said supervisors shall be liable to all the provisions of law which relate to county roads.

Sec 2. That the said Ebensburg & Susquehanna Plank Road shall be considered a county road, free of all tolls, and should the said Ebensburg & Susquehanna Plank Road company hereafter claim the right to resume the control of said road, the said company shall first pay to the supervisors of the townships through which said plank road passes, for the use of each of said townships, all such sums of money and for all labor by each expended in keeping their respective parts of such road in repair and good order; and each of said supervisors shall keep an accurate account, in a book for that purpose, of all such expenditures in money and labor, and at the expiration of their respective terms of office, deliver the same to their respective successors in office: Provided, That the right of said company to resume the possession and control of said road shall be forfeited unless said right to resume is claimed within three years from the passage of this act.

It should pass forthwith.

OUR SOLDIERS.—Last week we announced the promotion of Major Robert A. McCoy to the Lieutenant Colonelcy of the 11th Pa. Reserves, vice Lieut.-Col. Porter, resigned. This week it gives us much pleasure to be able to announce the further promotions, in the same regiment, of Capt. James C. Burke, of Co. A, to be Major, and 1st Lieut. Dan D. Jones to be Captain of Co. A. These are good men and true, brave soldiers and patriots, and our citizens will rejoice to hear of their advancement.

John M'Brice and James B. Pyatte, of Co. A, have re-enlisted as veterans. Lieut. (now Captain) Dan D. Jones has been quite ill of late, but is now convalescing.

[We, in common with a majority of our readers, entertain a kindly interest in the welfare of Co. A.—cannot some of its members make it convenient to write us a letter weekly, with news of where they are, what they are doing, and how getting along?]

OUT OF THE WILDERNESS—NEARLY!—Our quota, if it is not quite filled, is the next thing to it. On Thursday evening last, when Government bounties ceased to be paid, we had had sixteen men, or precisely our quota under the two first calls, sworn in and credited to the borow. These, we may add, with the exception of two "veterans," were all new men, and comparative strangers to the pomp and circumstance of glorious war. Our quota under the last or two hundred thousand call has not been officially announced, but it will be about six or seven. Of this number, two have been sworn in and credited to the borough since Thursday, leaving four or five to be raised. We think no great difficulty will be experienced in securing this deficiency before a draft occurs. What has been done has been done through the instrumentality of a $200 bounty by the borough well and truly paid, in cash, to each and every of her recruits.

ANNOUNCEMENT.—In anticipation of that busy season known as "garden making time," James M. Thompson, at his new store, High street, has received a large lot of Gardening Tools—for sale cheap. He also keeps Bronchial Troches on hand—public speakers know what they are. A fine assortment of Balmorals just opened. To be received this week, a new lot of Hoop Skirts, of the latest styles.

SNOW-ON!—The snow we spoke of on going to press last week continued falling, Wednesday, until some twenty-two inches' depth of the article covered the ground. This was decidedly the deepest fall of the winter, and the sleighing as a consequence arose for the time being to the dignity popularly spoken of as "bully." To-day, however, it has almost totally disappeared, and mud reigns in stead.

ROBBERY.—On Tuesday night, three men, names unknown, residents of Carroll township, were committed to our county jail, charged with the crime of relieving the pocket-book of Mr. David Rowland, of Cambria township, of greenbacks to the amount of $80.

DIED: At his residence, Chest Springs, this county, on the 28th ult., Mr. DANIEL LITZINGER, aged about 50 years.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.

SOLDIER KILLED BY THE CARS—A FAMILY CIRCLE BROKEN—ANOTHER ROW—OUR QUOTA—RECRUITING, &c., &c., &c.

JOHNSTOWN, April 3, 1864.

Correspondence of The Alleghanian. A young soldier named James Swoeny, son of a widow who resides in Conemaugh borough, was killed at Somerville station, on the Camden & Amboy Railroad, on Monday night last, by falling from the cars while they were in motion. The deceased had been in the service nearly three years, having enlisted with the "Friend Rifles" of Pittsburg. His company was attached to Sickles' famous "Excelsior Brigade," and with it he participated in nearly all the battles of the war. A short time ago he re-enlisted, crediting himself to New York, and after a brief visit home was returning to that State to secure his bounty, when he met his death as above stated. A kind son, and a truly brave soldier, his death is generally lamented, and his afflicted mother receives the sympathy of all who know her. Another son, now the sole prop of her declining years, is a member of the 54th P. V. The body of the deceased will be brought here to-morrow evening for interment.

About two weeks ago, three children of a family named Fisher died of typhoid fever, within about twenty-four hours of each other. Last week, the remains of their mother was followed to the tomb.—Death is at all times an unwelcome visitant, but in this case the little family which she had reared, swept from her sight by the fell hand of disease, proved a blow too severe for the mother, and her spirit gave way beneath the bereavement. "Died of a broken heart" is the simple inscription her tombstone requires. None but a mother can realize the deep meaning conveyed in those brief words. The bereaved husband enters the army,—the refuge of the friendless and homeless,—doubtless to seek amid the red glare of battle a re-union with the loved ones gone before.

Another grand row came off last week at one of the low groceries in this place. A dance, patronized by all the profligates who could be gathered in the neighborhood, was in progress, when a dispute arose between a soldier and citizen. The former drew a revolver on the latter, when it was forcibly taken from him, and he afterward very badly used up. A continuation of the fight between the same parties occurred on Friday evening at a saloon on Main street, where the soldier was again worsted. His face was beaten almost to a jelly, and he otherwise badly injured. The notoriously quarrelsome disposition of the soldier is so well known that the verdict of all who are aware of the circumstances is, "served him right."

Our entire quota under the different calls of the President is now filled, and our city can congratulate herself on being clear of the draft. Forty-two men were required under the last call. Capt. M'Donald secured about thirty recruits for his company, in this neighborhood. They were forwarded to Hagerstown, the rendezvous of his regiment. Capt. Butland, late of Co. B, 133d nine months regiment, and E. M. Shrook, Major of same, procured about sixty recruits here for a new cavalry company, with the understanding that the former should be Captain and the latter First Lieutenant of the same. The Major started for Harrisburg the beginning of last week, with about thirty of the men, and a few days afterwards Capt. Butland started with a like number. Arriving in that city, he found that the Major had entered into a co-partnership arrangement with somebody else, and he was compelled to return with his men. If I understand the matter correctly, Major Shrook has acted a very small part in the transaction.

The Presbyterian church has been torn down, preparatory to erecting a new edifice on its site. As soon as I arrive at a knowledge of the plan, style, &c., of this and other new churches which are about being built, I will notice them at length. John W. Wehn, an old and well known merchant of this town, has removed to Philadelphia. He is engaged in the mercantile business on Market street.—While in Philadelphia recently, I had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Braoeken and Mr. Bell, both formerly of this place, and well known. Their friends will be glad to know that they are well, and doing well.

It is estimated that at least one fourth of our population changed residence on the 1st of April. Such a continuous string of wagons, loaded with household furniture, was never seen here before.

Yours, MAY LEON.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hooffland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I had not prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to use them. J. NEWTON BROWN. PHILADELPHIA, JUNE 23, 1861.

ATTENTION SOLDIERS!

Will build up the constitution, and give health and strength to an overtasked and diseased system. PHILADELPHIA, August 12, 1862.

Dr. C. M. JACKSON.—Dear Sir: While in Virginia, owing to the change of water, I was taken with a severe diarrhoea, which seemed incurable, and which greatly weakened me. When we reached Martinsburg, I feared that I should have to come home; but noticing some of your Bitters in the store of Mr. H. H. Price, in that town, I purchased a supply, and on taking it was speedily restored to health. The diarrhoea was quickly checked, and I experienced no return of it. A number of my comrades who suffered in the same manner and from the same cause, with whom I shared the Bitters, join me in this certificate. I expect to return to the seat of war with the Legion, and I shall certainly take a supply of the Bitters in my knapsack. I would not be without it for its weight in gold, particularly on going into a limestone region. Yours, truly, A. E. ALMEUS, Company H, Scott Legion.
