PATRONIZE YOUR OWN MECHANICS.

Much of the prosperity of a village is dependent upon its mechanics. Many large and thriving towns have been built up almost entirely by the skill and enterprise of this class of citizens. It is to the interest of every community that mechanical industry be patronized to the fullest extent.

A good, worthy mechanic not worth a dollar is of more account to a town than a niggardly speculator with his thousands. The former is constantly adding to the wealth of the place, whereas the latter is impoverishing it.

It is coming!—As will be seen by reference to their flaming advertisement in another column, Gardner & Hemmings' Great American Circus will exhibit in this place on Tuesday, 17th inst.—next Tuesday.

REMEDY FOR THE POTATO DISEASE.—Now that the potato-planting season is at hand, it may not be uninteresting to our readers to know that a scientific Frenchman has discovered, or imagines he has discovered, a remedy for the potato disease.

POLITICAL.—Messrs. Michael Woods, Johnstown, James Meyers, Ebensburg, and George Bracken, Conemaugh, and George Hurley, Ebensburg, announce, through the Democratic prints, that they are candidates for the Sheriffalty of Cambria county, "subject to decision of Dem. Co. Convention."

CHANGE IN THE SCHOOL LAW.—The bill passed by the Legislature, last winter, appropriating the money applied to Common Schools in proportion to the number of scholars in attendance in each district, has been repealed.

"BLESS HIM, LET HIM GO!"—We learn from the Johnstown Democrat that Mr. S. B. McCormick, possibly better known as the "Six-dollar Dictionary man," has become one of the editors of the Pittsburg Post.

JOHNSTOWN, May 8, 1864.

Dear Alleghanian:—Mr. Joseph Moore, lately so prominent before the public, was robbed last week of the sum of $200.—This money was the proceeds of the sale of his furniture, &c. He had placed it in the side pocket of his coat, and on retiring to bed, at the Kernville Hotel, had hung the coat on the bed-post.

Emanuel Young, a butcher in Kernville, lost $90 one day last week. His impression is that he dropped it on the street.

Adam James, a young Welshman, who culled from this place in the 7th Pa. cavalry, was accidentally shot a few weeks ago, while with his regiment. He had leaned his gun against the fence, and while in the act of retaking it, the hammer caught, exploding the cap, and lodging the contents in his abdomen.

Jack Litzinger, of your town, met with a rather serious accident while at work in the Rolling Mill, last week. He was reaching through the machinery for some purpose, when his coat caught in the cogs of a wheel, and his arm being thereby drawn in, a large piece of flesh was severed from it.

I must again encroach upon your space to notice a couple of serenades, which came off at our front door during the balmy evenings of last week. The first was instrumental, and the four young gentlemen performers will please accept the thanks of "our house" for their excellent music.

As personal mention, I may notice that Chas. P. Murray has opened a shoe store in Masterson's old corner. Charlie is a clever fellow, and your readers who happen down this way should not fail to give him a call.

The ground adjoining the site of the new Woolen factory has been laid out in building lots, and the name of Town's-End given to the locality. This name is partly in compliment to A. J. Townsend, the heaviest stockholder in the factory, and partly that it will constitute the end of our town—for the present.

The Tribune, (Johnstown,) in an editorial last week, avers that "Shakespeare still lives." This is a mistake. Shakespeare is dead! With great expense, and after considerable research, I have succeeded in discovering an old body-servant of the renowned S., who is several centuries old, at least. He gives me the interesting information that he dandled the infant prodigy on his knee.

"Bless him, let him go!"—We learn from the Johnstown Democrat that Mr. S. B. McCormick, possibly better known as the "Six-dollar Dictionary man," has become one of the editors of the Pittsburg Post.

FALLING BACK!—The Johnny Rebs. under Lee, after much fume and brag, instead of standing up and fighting in an open field, appear to be falling back on the entrenchments at Richmond. Some people here recently undertook to buy Spring Goods at some other store than James M. Thompson's, Ebensburg, but a single experiment has proved to them also the necessity of "falling back" upon the P. O. emporium.

DR. TOBIAS'S VENETIAN LINIMENT.—A certain cure for pains in limbs and back, sore throat, croup, rheumatism, colic, &c. A perfect family medicine, and never fails!—Read! Read! Read!!! Livonia, Wayne co., Mich., June 16, '69. This is to certify that my wife was taken with Quinsy sore throat; it commenced to swell, and was so sore that she could not swallow, and coughed violently. I used your Liniment, and made a perfect cure in one week. I firmly believe that but for the Liniment she would have lost her life.

WILL EXHIBIT IN EBENSBURG, TUESDAY, MAY 17, 1864. JOHNSTOWN, WEDNESDAY, MAY 18.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to use them. J. NEWTON BROWN. PHILADELPHIA, JUNE 23, 1861.

PHILADELPHIA, August 12, 1862.

Dr. C. M. JACKSON—Dear Sir: While in Virginia, owing to the change of water, I was taken with a severe diarrhoea, which seemed incurable, and which greatly weakened me. When we reached Martinsburg, I feared that I should have to come home, but noticing some of your Bitters in the store of Mr. U. H. Price, in that town, I purchased a supply, and on taking it was speedily restored to health. The diarrhoea was quickly checked, and I experienced no return of it. A number of my comrades who suffered in the same manner and from the same cause, with whom I shared the Bitters, join me in this certificate. I expect to return to the seat of war with the Legion, and I shall certainly take a supply of the Bitters in my knapsack. I would not be without it for its weight in gold, particularly on going into a limestone region. Yours, truly, A. E. ALMEUS, Company H, Scott Legion.
