

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

EBENSBURG AND CRESSON RAILROAD. On and after Monday, May 16, 1864, trains on this road will run as follows:

LEAVE EBENSBURG—At 7.00 A. M., connecting with Balt. Express West and Thro' Accom. East. At 6.40 P. M., connecting with Mail Train and East Line West and Ex. East.

LEAVE CRESSON—At 10.45 A. M., on departure of Thro' Accommodation West. At 9.15 P. M., on departure of East Line West.

ABOUT THE SANITARY COMMISSION.

The present seems a favorable moment to say a word in behalf of the Fair to be held in Philadelphia and Pittsburg shortly, for the benefit of the Sanitary Commission. With thirty thousand maimed and bleeding human beings dotting the fields of carnage in Virginia, and sending forth their piteous appeals for assistance ere they die, we think it a most favorable moment to breach the subject. Our readers, we are sure, have all heard of the Sanitary Commission, and are acquainted with its heaven-born aims and objects.

They know it to be an association of Christian philanthropists of the North, supported by voluntary contributions of money and material, having for its object the care and comfort of those of our soldiers who fall in battle or are prostrated by disease. They know that the Commission is recognized by the General Government as a most valuable auxiliary, and that its agents, carrying with them plentiful supplies of needful clothing and palatable food and delicacies, are permitted to penetrate wherever our armies go.

They know that the hospital and the battle-field are the peculiar scenes of their labors of love—that where pain and anguish wring the brow, and the strong man suddenly becomes as an infant, the Sanitary Commission agents are, to be looked upon by the sufferers in the light of ministering angels sent direct from heaven. They know, in short, that the Commission is indeed a Good Samaritan Commission, binding up the wounds of the afflicted, relieving the distressed, and pouring the balm of consolation into the ear of the dying, when no other human agency is near by to perform the kind offices.

Knowing thus much, and knowing moreover that the Commission does a work the which the Government, by the very nature of the thing, is impotent to carry out, we conceive it a work of supererogation to commend it and its objects to the thankful consideration of our readers. The Sanitary Commission, as we have remarked, is supported by voluntary contributions. Time after time the people of the North have responded to its appeals for money and material—responded nobly and willingly. There is no calculating the good these gifts, through the agency of the Commission, have accomplished. Hundreds of poor soldiers will tell you, however, that to the timely assistance thus freely rendered they owe their very existence—that without it they would now be mouldering beneath the sod. The Commission is again in need of contributions! There never is a time when it does not require assistance, but just now it stands peculiarly in need of it. The battles in Virginia, with their rich harvest of wounded, have entailed heavy expenses upon its exchequer. To meet these, something must be done, and quickly. What shall it be?

Without venturing to decide this question, but according our readers the privilege of exercising their own judgment thereon, we make the suggestion that to our mind a Fair, like the ones proposed to be held in Philadelphia and Pittsburg, affords about the most systematic method of arriving at the desired result that we have knowledge of. In proof of this we need only mention that the Fair held in New York city a few weeks since netted the Commission over one million dollars clear of expenses. The Executive Committees of both the Philadelphia and Pittsburg Fairs have issued circulars requesting contributions. The Pittsburg Fair—and we take it for granted that Cambria county, identified as she is with the western section of the State, will throw her influence in favor of that city—solicits donations of everything that can be eaten, worn, sold, or is curious to look at; of money and contributions of all kinds from farmers, merchants, manufacturers, mechanics, machinists, jewellers, clothiers, milliners, gardeners, booksellers, florists, nurserymen, &c.; and fine arts curiosities, specimens of natural history, relics, memorials, battle flags, &c., either as donations or on exhibition. Money to be sent to N. Holmes, Treasurer, and goods to F. R. Brunot, Sanitary Fair. Small packages may be sent by express. All freight settled in Pittsburg. The Fair opens on the 1st June—contributions should be sent in by the 24th instant, if possible.

The loyal people of Cambria county should not allow this opportunity to pass unheeded of befriending the soldier. He suffers and fights that we at home may bask in uninterrupted peace and prosperity. No effort we make in his behalf can fully repay him for trials and privations undergone. Cast your vote toward his support and encouragement! If you have a father, brother, son, or friend in the army, it may be he that will reap the fruits of your generosity.

COME DOWN!—What is the reason that butter continues to hold out at 30 cents per pound in our market, when in the large cities it is sold at a lower figure? The cities depend upon the rural districts for their supply of the article, and it is reversing the general order of things to allow it here to preponderate the price there. Seeing that butter is by no means scarce, we are irresistibly led to the conclusion that our farmers, becoming afflicted with an overpowering greed for gain, have entered into a combination to keep up the price. This is not as it should be. A shilling per pound was the price of butter in times of peace: the farmers ought certainly to be satisfied with fifteen or twenty cents as a war price. When it ascends above this, to become stationary, the provocation toward the organization of "anti-butter-eating societies" becomes very great.

SUMMER ARRANGEMENT.—A new schedule went into effect on the Penna. Railroad on Monday. Following is the time of departure of the several trains east and west from Cresson station:

Table with 2 columns: Train Name and Time. Includes West-Balt. Express, East-Through Express, etc.

Mails arrive here at 11.45 A. M.—depart at 7.00 A. M. Mails close at Ebensburg Post Office at 8.00 P. M. The new schedule of the Eb. & Cresson Branch RR. will be found at the head of this page.

WOUNDED.—In the list of wounded who have arrived at Washington city from "the front," we discover the name of Major James C. Burke, of the 11th Pa. Reserves. It is not stated how badly he is hurt. The Major was until quite recently Captain of Co. A, same regiment, from this place. He is a brave and determined officer, and has participated in all the battles fought by the Army of the Potomac up to the present time. This is his second wound, the first (a very severe one) having been received during the Seven Days Fight on the Peninsula.

DIED: On Thursday, 12th inst., of scarlet fever, MARY, daughter of Robert and Eliza Thomas, of Ebensburg, aged about 5 years. On Thursday, 12th inst., of inflammation of the lungs, Mrs. ELIZABETH, wife of Mr. William Davis, Ebensburg, aged 60 years. On Saturday, 14th, of scarlet fever, JENNIE, daughter of Robert and Eliza Thomas, aged about 2 years.

ANOTHER HERO FALLEN!—A dispatch has been received here announcing the death of Capt. Dan D. Jones, of Co. A, 11th Pa. Reserves. He was killed in one of the Spottsylvania battles, no other particulars being given. The deceased at the breaking out of the war was a resident of this place, and his parents yet live here. He was aged about 25 years. Another dispatch has been received stating that Lieut. Charles A. Fagan, of same company, is missing since the fights, and that John Patterson, private, was killed.

LOST, STRAYED, OR STOLEN!—Three papers necessary to the completion of our files, to wit, one number of Vol. 3 No. 49 and two of Vol. 3 No. 51, are missing from this establishment. Any of our subscribers who may have these numbers will confer a particular favor on us by sending them to us. We will willingly pay a dime apiece for them.

LICENSES GRANTED.—At the Argument Court held here on the 10th and 11th inst., tavern licenses were granted to the following named persons, to wit: George Gurley, Ebensburg; Gotlieb Lasinger, 2d ward, Johnstown; Richard Jelly, 2d ward, Johnstown; James Rodgers, 5th ward, Johnstown; Cyrus Hart, 4th ward, Johnstown; George M'Bride, Allegheny.

ETCHINGS.—Our thanks are due and are hereby tendered Conductor Scott, of the Branch, for a copy of the new railroad schedule.—We are glad to learn that Charles W. Wingard, Esq., now of Lock Haven, but formerly of Ebensburg, has been appointed paymaster in the army.—Did you ever know the Army of the Potomac to move, or attempt to move, that it didn't rain! Since the opening of the present campaign, and within a period of two weeks, we had six successive days of what is set down in the almanacs as "very wet weather."—We consider the Pittsburg Commercial about the best daily paper published in the Smoky City.—Subscribe for it, or buy it from the newsboys.—The peach crop in this section is a total failure. Hardly enough of the luscious fruit will come to perfection this fall to flavor the whisky used. Pity.—The Show was a pretty good thing. About the best feature connected with it was Mr. Richard Hemmings' tight rope performance. His tumbling and balancing were truly terrific, and we shudder when we think what might have been the result had it been Richard instead of the rope that was tight!—A. C. Mullin, Esq., of Harrisburg, was in town a couple of days during the present week. He was looking gay, genial, and generally good as usual.—The Democratic County Convention of this county is called to meet at Ebensburg on Monday, 30th inst.

NEW GOODS!—James M. Thompson, at his new store, in the P. O. building, Ebensburg, has just received another large and elaborate stock of Spring Goods, comprising all the latest styles and fancies. The ladies particularly are invited to drop in and see what is to be seen. No charge for showing goods.

MARRIED: On the 12th inst., in Ebensburg, by Rev. J. S. Lemmon, Mr. OLIVER REED and Miss LIZZIE ROLAND, both of Blacklick tp., this county.

DR. TOBIAS' VENETIAN LINIMENT.—A certain cure for pains in limbs and back, sore throat, croup, rheumatism, colic, &c. A perfect family medicine, and never fails.—Read! Read! Read! Livonia, Wayne co., Mich., June 16, '59. This is to certify that my wife was taken with Quinsy sore throat; it commenced to swell, and was so sore that she could not swallow, and coughed violently. I used your Liniment, and made a perfect cure in one week. I firmly believe that but for the Liniment she would have lost her life.

JOHN H. HARLAN. Price 25 and 50 cents. Sold by all druggists. Office 56 Cortlandt St., New-York. [May 12.]

DISSOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP.—The partnership heretofore existing under the firm of Green & Brother, is hereby dissolved. All persons having claims against the said firm of Green & Brother, will present them to the subscriber. ARTHUR W. GREEN. Chest Springs, May 12, 1864.

AUDITOR'S NOTICE.—The undersigned auditor, appointed by the Orphans' Court of Cambria county to distribute the money in the hands of Henry Scanlan, Esq., executor of the estate of Dr. Victor G. Tideman, dec'd., hereby gives notice that he will attend to the duties of the said appointment, at the office of Henry Scanlan, Esq., in the borough of Carrolltown, on Friday, the 27th day of May, inst., at one o'clock P. M., when and where all persons interested may attend. J. E. SCANLAN, Auditor. Ebensburg, May 9, 1864.

PROVOST MARSHAL'S OFFICE, 17th DISTRICT, PA., Holidays, May 16, 1864. NOTICE! From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge. Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he has derived himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others. I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Sioemeter, for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to use them. J. NEWTON BROWN. PHILAD'A., JUNE 23, 1861.

ATTENTION SOLDIERS! Will build up the constitution, and give health and strength to an overtaken and diseased system. PHILADELPHIA, August 12, 1862. DR. C. M. JACKSON—Dear Sir: While in Virginia, owing to the change of water, I was taken with a severe diarrhoea, which seemed incurable, and which greatly weakened me. When we reached Martinsburg, I feared that I should have to come home; but noticing some of your Bitters in the store of Mr. H. H. Price, in that town, I purchased a supply, and on taking it was speedily restored to health. The diarrhoea was quickly checked, and I experienced no return of it. A number of my comrades who suffered in the same manner and from the same cause, with whom I shared the Bitters, join me in this certificate. I expect to return to the seat of war with the Legion, and I shall certainly take a supply of the Bitters in my knapsack. I would not be without it for its weight in gold, particularly on going into a limestone region. Yours, truly, A. E. ALMEUS, Company D, Scott Legion.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS! See that the signature of "C. M. Jackson" is on the wrapper of each bottle. Price per bottle 75 cents Or half dozen for $4. Should your nearest Druggist not have the article, do not be put off by any of the intoxicating preparations that may be offered in its place, but send to us, and we will forward by express, securely packed.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT TO BLACKSMITHS. Four-fifths of time and hard labor saved by using ISAAC C. SINGER'S NEW AND COMPLETE TIRE AND BAND BENDER. Patented March 10, 1863. Its chief advantages are: 1st. Having strong gear wheels to obtain power, one man can operate it to bend cold wagon tire, any size under 1 by 4 inches. 2d. Having movable collars, to hold the bar square on the portable rollers, it takes all twist out of the bar, while bending in a regular circle. 3d. It can be shifted to bend to any desired circle, from one up to twelve feet, in one minute. 4th. Having a movable centre post, which can be quickly taken off, tires and bands are easily taken out. 5th. The upper ribbed roller will always draw the bar through. 6th. Being gauged and numbered, a card with directions accompanies it. The Machine in good (oil the journals) running order, bolted upon a strong piece of timber, without leg or crank, for $25, or with legs and crank for $30. All cash orders promptly attended to. State and County Rights for sale. ISAAC C. SINGER. Ebensburg, April 14, 1864-4f.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge. Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he has derived himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others. I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Sioemeter, for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the
