THE 55TH PA. VOLS. BAPTIZED IN BLOOD.—Heavy Loss in Killed and Wounded!—The 55th Pa. Vols., Col. Dick White, were fully engaged in the late battles along the James river, and lost heavily in officers and men.

Mr. William A. Leavy, of the 55th, writing under date "Near Port Walthall Junction, Va., May 18," to The Alleghanian, gives the following as the list of casualties in Co. A, recruited in Cambria county:

Capt. David W. Fox. Wounded and Caret For. Second Lieutenant John Lynch, kidneys; Corp. James G. Fagan, right leg slight;

Jeremiah Topper, thigh; Joseph Wherry, right arm and side.

Wounded and Captured. First Lieut. P. H. Hodge; Corp. Henry Bennett; Privates F. A. Conway; Elias Edmiston; William Howard; James Montgomery; John Orner; Michael Stanley; Michael Cawley.

Captured. Corps. Bernard M'Atamany; Richard P. M'Guire; Peter M'Guire; Privates Samuel Brandle; George Beierline; George Brown;

Philip Cramer; John Donaldson; Andrew Dougherty; Robert Dufar; Theodore P. Devlin; James Dasher; Patrick Daisy; John Flemer; John Fry; David Gibson; Samuel C. Hite; Jacob Hessel; Robert Kaylor; John Keating; Samuel Langham; John W. Long;

Felix J. M'Guire; John D. Moreland; Henry Martz; Michael M'Call; Nicholas Semore; Michael Stanton; John Varley; Paul Wisbe; James Wharton; John H. Witt.

Recapitulation. Killed, 1; Wounded, 20; Captured, 32.—Total loss, 53.

Mr. Leavy states that the above list is as reliable as it was possible to make it, under the circumstances, and his letter goes on to say:

"The regiment left camp on the morning of the 11th 1,100 strong, and returned on the 16th with 774. The great number of casualties is attributable to the fact that the regiment, advancing as skirmishers through a dense fog, were flanked by the enemy before our men were aware of the near proximity of a foe.

We were subjected to a sudden enfilading fire of artillery and infantry, and were forced back with the results stated. The right wing suffered more severely than the remainder of the regiment.

"Our forces retired to their line of intrenchments on the evening of the 16th, in good order, having accomplished at least a portion of the expedition, namely, the destroying Lee's communications south of Petersburg and between that place and Richmond. By this means all reinforcements are prevented from going forward to Lee.

"In the action of the 16th, we captured prisoners who had just arrived from Lee's army, going to show that part of that General's command has been withdrawn from Grant's front to check Gen. Butler's demonstrations on Richmond.

"In the fight, Col. White had command of the 1st Brigade 3d Division 10th Army Corps. He is either killed, or wounded and in the hands of the enemy."

It is announced in the daily papers of the 24th, on authority of rebel prints, that Col. Richard White, Capt. James Metzgar, Capt. David W. Fox, and Lieut. Pat O'Connell, all of the 55th, are now in prison in Richmond.

"Our friend, J. Alex. Moore, proprietor of the 'Mountain House,' was rather seriously injured on Tuesday, by being thrown from a horse. We commiserate him in his misfortune.

"Peter B. Cassidy, of this county, has been appointed Adjutant of the 188th Pa. Vols. His friends will be glad to hear of his promotion.

"Robert Davis, of the 12th Regular Infantry, a resident of this place, is reported killed in one of the recent battles in Virginia.

"Major Robert Litzinger has been appointed Post Master of Strongstown through, Indiana county.

THE 54TH REGIMENT P. V. CUT TO PIECES.—We learn from the Johnstown Tribune (extra) that the 54th Pa. Vols., Col. Jacob M. Campbell, composed part of Sigel's force when he met with his unfortunate repulse at New Market, in the Shenandoah Valley. The regiment was in the thickest of the fight, and suffered severely. The following is the list of casualties:

Lieut.-Col. John P. Linton, slightly wounded, but remains with regiment. Co. A.—Killed, James Allen, J. Clark, D. Findley, N. Griffith, H. Smith; Wounded, H. Carroll, Callahan, M'Clellan, H. Saively, James F. Howard, W. H. Lindsay, Charles E. Smith, Thomas Williams.

Co. B.—Killed, Lieut. Sylvester Colburn, Hiram Lohr, Edward Fleegle, William P. Knepper; Wounded, Abraham Faith, Jesse Linton, H. J. Penrod, John Wagner, William Wilson; Missing, Wesley Young.

Co. E.—Killed, Capt. P. Graham, Lieut. B. P. Anderson, William Crider, Michael Hagan, Thomas M'Clure, John M'Fadden, Peter Robinson; Wounded and left on the field, Sol Bagnel, Daniel Crider, Benjamin Davis, Edward Harbaugh, Joseph Rodgers; Wounded, John Depther, James Glass, John Glass, Ben Hummel, Thomas Johns, John Stacer, Nathaniel Teeters, Daniel Young, Robert Bennett, D. Goughnour, John Gore, Daniel Hill, William Holmes, John Jordan, John M'Manany, George Morris; Missing, John Murphy, Andrew Sims, William Thomas, Henry Weddel, Val Wolff, John Young.

Co. G.—Killed, Samuel Stout; Wounded, William Owens, Joshua Ringler, J. B. Atchison.

Co. H.—Capt. Geisinger, Peter Gearhart, Daniel Kellchen, Tobias Miller, Henry Oaks, Lewis Sourbrine; Wounded, Charles Gentry, Henry Flegel, James Gilmore, Edw. Reichart, George Williams, M. Gindelsperger, P. Gindelsperger, Abram Fry, Lieut. A. J. Kilpatrick.

Co. I.—Killed, Capt. William B. Bonaker, Robert Burke, J. Craig, Joseph Donahoe, George Hartz, Henry Hessel, John Kees, Robert Marlett, John Plummer; Wounded, Sergt. Hagan, Corp. Holsapple, Mark Burke, G. Penrod, Charles Cullen, Peter Cullen, Jacob D. George, John Morris, Lewis Nagle, Corp. Funk, Samuel J. Custer, John Brem, Charles Amser, Adam F. Brenner, Noah Fry, John Kahoe, Daniel Murphy, John M. Stull, Jacob Weaver.

Co. K.—Wounded, John Cairn, John Coffel, Kessler, Edward Krisler, Corp. Walter, a new recruit name not known, Henry Donstead, Edwin W. Miller.

The killed were all left on the field, and fell into the hands of the enemy; one hundred of the wounded were brought off with the regiment.

—Since the foregoing was put in type, we have received a note from Col. Campbell, enclosing copy of his official report of casualties in regiment, in which he says: "Only six hundred of my command were in the engagement, the balance being on special duty at the time. All the officers and men conducted themselves most gallantly, and are entitled to the gratitude of their countrymen."

LIST OF CASUALTIES IN CO. A, 11TH PA. RESERVES.—Through the kindness of Major James C. Burke, we are enabled to lay before our readers the following full list of casualties in the above company up to May 10th:

Killed: Capt. Dan. D. Jones, William J. Patterson.

Wounded: John Makin, Wm. Powell, Sergt. George W. Brown, Dallas Patrick, John M'Peely.

Prisoners: Lieut. Charles Fagan, Sergt. Luke, Sergt. Bolewine, Jacob S. Boring, William M'Creery, John Gillespie, Sam Books.

In a note accompanying the list, Major Burke writes: "All the men marked prisoners are undoubtedly wounded. We were surrounded, and had to cut our way out, and they were with us up to the last fire we received, when they all suddenly disappeared."

In addition to the foregoing casualties, Joseph Owens, of same company, was wounded slightly in the hand. He is now in hospital in Washington.

We have been shown a letter from Adj. Thomas D. Litzinger, of the 11th, of date 15th inst. He states that the regiment went into the fight with 348 men, and came out with only 118.

George W. Brown, of same regiment, writes us that he is now in Mount Pleasant Hospital, Washington, and that he is wounded in left hip, not dangerously.

FALE IN FOR YOUR GREENBACKS!—Capt. Evans has received a letter from Paymaster Hewit wherein he states that he will be in Ebensburg to-day (Thursday), without fail, to pay the emergency militia company of 1862.

The weather for the past week has been warm and pleasant, and well calculated to develop vegetation.

CAMBRIA COUNTY AND THE DRAFT.—The following table will show at a glance the condition of Cambria county with regard to the draft. One column gives the number of men required from each delinquent sub-district after deducting credits to date; the other the sub-districts having quotas filled or a surplus. The figures are official, and may be relied upon as being correct:

Table with 3 columns: District Name, No. men required, Surplus. Includes Allegheny and Gallitain, Loretto, Carroll, Carrolltown, Susquehanna, Chest, Clearfield, Chest Springs, White, Washington & Summitville, Munster, Croyle, Summerhill, Wilmore, Richmond, Taylor, Conemaugh, Yoder, Johnstown, Cambria bor., Conemaugh, Millville, Cambria tp., Blacklick, Jackson, Ebensburg.

Total number deficient in county, 392 By reference to an advertisement in another column, it will be seen that the draft for this district will commence at Hollidaysburg on the 30th inst.

DO YOU SEE IT?—Belsano, although quite a flourishing little village, does not boast a post office within its corporate limits. Thanks to an edict of the P. O. department, that convenience was abolished several years ago, since which time the Belsanians have been obliged to rest content with a post office seven or eight miles distant as the medium thro' which to carry on their correspondence, trusting to the precarious possibility of persons traveling to and fro between the two points for "prompt delivery."

Hence, when the Johnstown Democrat charges it upon "Major Litzinger" that he was until lately Postmaster of Belsano, and that, in such capacity, he eminently failed to do his duty, it writes itself down either a malicious falsifier or an ignorant fool.—There could be no such thing as an incompetent Postmaster, you know, without the necessary adjunct of a Post Office wherein to make manifest those reprehensible qualities of which the Democrat complains.—In view of these undeniable facts, we think an apology is richly due Major Litzinger from our contemporary for its uncalled for and senseless attack.

LIST OF CAUSES.—Following is the trial list for a Court of Common Pleas to be held at Ebensburg, for Cambria county, commencing on Monday, 6th June, proximo:

Table with 2 columns: Plaintiff vs. Defendant. Includes M'Gonigles vs. Rodgers, Burgoon vs. Bingham, Burk vs. Crum, Duke vs. Jennings et ux, Christopher vs. Strittmatter, Bonser vs. Gates, Lloyd & Co. vs. Skelly.

SECOND WEEK. Myers vs. Hughes (feigned is.), Marlbough vs. Anderson, Stuart vs. Hayes, Eh. & Cres. RR. Co. vs. Noon's admsrs., Brendlinger vs. Yeagley, Jackson's heirs vs. Johnston, Weha & Ellis vs. Englebach, Collins vs. E. & C. RR. Co., Com'th. vs. Rhey, Bender vs. Trexler, Cushon vs. Heslop, Fry vs. Shاربough, Kemp vs. Griffith, Hoffman vs. Glessler et al, Tiernan's endorers vs. Hawes, M'Clerkey vs. Dignam, Clifford vs. Thompson, Kerrigan vs. Leff, Gates vs. Wolf & Welshorn, Clark's admsrs vs. M'Vicker, Johnston vs. Smith.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE. JOHNSTOWN, May 22, 1864.

Dear Alleghanian:—Last week a telegram was received here by Sheriff Linton, from Lieut. Nix Kinkead, stating that the 54th Reg't. P. V.—four companies of which hail from this place—had been in an engagement near Strasburg, Va., and had been badly cut up. Among the casualties, he mentioned the names of Capt's. Bonaker, Graham, and Geisinger killed, and Lieut.-Col. Linton wounded. The most intense excitement was manifested by our citizens to learn the extent of the loss, and on Friday evening several copies of the Cumberland Union (Extra) were received, giving a list of the killed and wounded. The following embraces the total loss:

The above includes three Captains and two Lieutenants killed, and one Lieutenant wounded. Col. Linton received a severe flesh wound in the thigh, the ball from which has not yet been extracted. He arrived here this morning.

The 54th went into the fight 550 strong. It will be observed that the total loss is 174—a very large proportion in one Regiment.

An extensive robbery was perpetrated here last Friday morning. Two Germans came to this place from New York for the purpose of obtaining employment at the Rolling Mill. They began work about a week ago, boarding at a house near the Iron bridge. On Friday morning, they started to work, as usual, but one of them shortly returned to the house, upon pretence of being sick. He immediately went to the chest of his room-mate, and breaking it open, abstracted therefrom $1,400 in gold, a valuable gold watch, and a passport, and then left for parts unknown. The other party did not discover his loss until evening, when he immediately telegraphed in all directions, describing the robber, and offering a reward for his arrest. Lawyer Henning starts tonight for New York, in pursuit, as it is said the robber intends leaving the country.—The losing German is almost crazy over his loss.

William M'Lane, of this place, was tried in Wheeling, Va., a few weeks ago, for deserting from the 54th P. V., and sentenced to five years, at labor, in the Tortugas.

Joseph Moore, with his wife and son, departed for Iowa last week. A great deal of sympathy had been manifested in his behalf hereabout, but by this unlooked for act he deprives himself of a great portion of it.

A son of Peter Maltze, of Conemaugh bor., was kicked in the face by a circus horse, on Wednesday, and badly injured.

Irvin Rutledge, Esq., has commenced correcting the enrollment list in Johnstown, and Mr. Canan in Conemaugh borough.

Doran, the map man, has a new map of Johnstown in the hands of the lithographers. Perspective views of the new churches, Woolen Factory, &c., taken from designs, will embellish it.

The following are the appointments of teachers for our Union schools for the summer session: Room 1, Miss Sterling; 2, Miss Swank; 3, vacant; 4, Miss Ramsey; 5, Miss Strubel; 6, Miss Marshall; 7, Miss Dickey; 8, Miss Postlethwait; 9, Miss Wilcox; 10, Miss Flanagan.

Yours, MAY LEON.

TO YE GALLANT SOGER MAN.—Sojer of the "emergency" of 1862! after you have been paid off to-day by the Paymaster, do not fail to go to James M. Thompson's New Store, and secure some of the bargains he keeps constantly on hand for indiscriminate distribution. Still another lot of new goods of all sorts and sizes just received. For sale very cheap. Remember the place—P. O. building, Ebensburg.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to use them. J. NEWTON BROWN.

PHILAD'A., June 23, 1861.

ATTENTION SOLDIERS! Will build up the constitution, and give health and strength to an overtaken and diseased system.

PHILADELPHIA, August 12, 1862. Dr. C. M. JACKSON.—Dear Sir: While in Virginia, owing to the change of water, I was taken with a severe diarrhoea, which seemed incurable, and which greatly weakened me. When we reached Martinsburg, I feared that I should have to come home; but noticing some of your Bitters in the store of Mr. H. H. Price, in that town, I purchased a supply, and on taking it was speedily restored to health. The diarrhoea was quickly checked, and I experienced no return of it. A number of my comrades who suffered in the same manner and from the same cause, with whom I shared the Bitters, join me in this certificate. I expect to return to the seat of war with the Legion, and I shall certainly take a supply of the Bitters in my knapsack. I would not be without it for its weight in gold, particularly on going into a limestone region. Yours, truly, A. E. ALMEUS, Company H, Scott Legion.

Beware of Counterfeits! See that the signature of "C. M. Jackson" is on the wrapper of each bottle.

Price per bottle 75 cents Or half dozen for $4.
