

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

EBENSBURG AND CRESSON RAILROAD. On and after Monday, May 16, 1864, trains on this road will run as follows:

LEAVE EBENSBURG—At 7.00 A. M., connecting with Balt. Express West and Thro' Accom East. At 6.40 P. M., connecting with Mail Train and Fast Line West and Ex. East.

LEAVE CRESSON—At 10.45 A. M., on departure of Thro' Accommodation West. At 9.15 P. M., on departure of Fast Line West.

HOME AGAIN!—Co. A, 11th Penna. Reserves, the glorious remnant of a gallant organization, arrived here according to expectation on Wednesday evening last. They were met at the depot by a delegation consisting of at least three-fourths of all the people of town, and, preceded by a band of martial music, were escorted to the Town Hall, where a magnificent banquet had been spread for them by the ladies.

After full and entire justice had been done this feature, the "boys" were formally welcomed home in a neat speech by Mr. Samuel Singleton, wherein he referred in words of burning eloquence to the eminent services performed in the field by the division of which they composed part and parcel, eulogized those who had lived to return, and dropped a tear to the memory of the dead.

ETCHINGS.—We were favored with a most glorious three-hours' rain on Sunday—a rain which was badly needed—a rain we could not well have done without. For over a week preceding, not a drop of moisture had fallen. The consequence was, vegetation was parched, the earth became dry and unwholesome, dust congregated in the streets until its depth was almost unfathomable, and everything sublimely seemed to be going wrong.

The returning veterans are all in excellent health and spirits. They look not as if soldiering had disagreed with them, but rather as though it had done them much good, physically and otherwise. We may add that they unite, one and all, in the expression of the conviction that the rebellion must be put down, in the hope that it be put down speedily, and in the belief that Grant, as Lieutenant General of our armies, is the man above all others to put it down.

OUR BOYS.—Lieut. Charles A. Fagan, of Co. A, 11th Pa. Reserves, who has been missing ever since the battle of the Wilderness, has been heard from. He is a Lynchburg, Va., a prisoner in the hands of the rebels, and unhurt. Several other members of the company, whose names we did not learn, are keeping him company.

Joseph Owens, of Co. A, 11th Pa. Reserves, wounded in the hand in one of the Pennsylvania fights, is in hospital in Philadelphia and doing well.

Joseph Wherry, of Co. A, 55th Penna. Vols., wounded in one of Butler's James River battles, is also in hospital in Philadelphia.

Wm. Connell, of Co. E, 149th Penna. Vols., shot through the arm in the Wilderness, is at home here on furlough. He is doing well.

—Godey's Lady's Book for July has been received. It contains several fine steel engravings, a variety of wood cuts and fashion-plates, and the usual amount of reading matter, recipes, &c. All the ladies should take it!

NOT FULL!—It seems that, with regard to our quota, we of Ebensburg have been crowding before we were altogether out of the woods. We were flattering ourselves all along with the belief that we had had enough men sworn into the service to our credit to exempt us from draft until another call, and felt highly elated thereat; but it turns out this is not the case. Some error must have crept into the figures of the Board of Enrollment, for we are now assured that their former apportionment was incorrect, and that we have one or two additional men to furnish—possibly one, probably two. This is a plunge-bath to our joyful hopes and anticipations of immunity from the distasteful freaks of the "wheel of fate;" it precipitates us, who are "liable," from the seventh heaven of unconcern as to when the draft takes place, down to that level where a highly-developed feeling of anxiety is the prevailing characteristic. One man—who will he be? Two men—who will they be? Doubtful things are mighty uncertain, and the lightnings of conscription strike in out-of-the-way places—what is to prevent you, reader-at-home, from becoming the man, or you and yourself from being constituted the men! Alas, that the Board didn't leave the figures to stand as they stood before, that we might not only be able to boast of what we had done for the country in the way of promptly sending forth all the men required of us, but also be allowed to rest easy 'nights until the next call! It is too bad. We can only console ourselves with the reflection that the drawing for the deficiency will not occur for a couple of weeks, again which time the one or two men may be secured, sworn in, and placed to our credit, to the squaring of the books to date between the government and the bore.

ETCHINGS.—We were favored with a most glorious three-hours' rain on Sunday—a rain which was badly needed—a rain we could not well have done without. For over a week preceding, not a drop of moisture had fallen. The consequence was, vegetation was parched, the earth became dry and unwholesome, dust congregated in the streets until its depth was almost unfathomable, and everything sublimely seemed to be going wrong. We heard several men say that if the drouth had continued a week longer, the crops must unquestionably have proved a total failure this fall. They would have been blasted, blistered, blotted out, burned up by the fervent rays of the sun. As this would have been a very bad old state of affairs, with gold at 196, we thank the Weather Clerk that he has thus happily dispelled both the drouth and contingent fears of "short commons" in prospective. The press, type and fixtures of the old Ebensburg Mountaineer printing establishment, which have been lying here unused for two or three years past, were boxed up last week and shipped to Philadelphia, to be sold as old metal. Persons desirous of securing a bargain in the real estate line are referred to the advertisement in another column of a "Farm for Sale" by Mr. James N. Evans. The drafted men of this county will report for examination at Ebensburg, commencing on Monday next. So we are informed by Commissioner Harr.

LIEUT.-COL. ROBT. A. M'COY.—This gallant officer, of the 11th Pa. Reserves, who was unable through press of regimental business to return home with Co. A on Wednesday night, arrived here Friday. He was met by a host of friends, who bestowed on him every manifestation of honor and applause. The record of Lieut.-Col. M'Co. is one of which any man might be proud. Starting out as Second Lieut. of Co. A, he was subsequently promoted to be Adjutant of the regiment, then to be Major, and then to be Lieut.-Col. and A. G. to Gen. Crawford, commanding the division. These several promotions, we may add, were not due to "good luck" or the efforts of influential friends, but to the high appreciation in which his military abilities were held by his comrades in arms. He fought valiantly and well in all the battles participated in by his regiment, and was once wounded and once taken prisoner. Returning home again, after a three years' absence where "dogged war bristles his angry crest," and with escutcheon bright and untarnished, may he reap the full measure of reward of his gallantry and devotion to country!

—The editors of the Chambersburg Repository intend publishing a weekly Union campaign paper, to be called the "Old Flag," commencing on the 21st prox. One copy, 50 cents, or ten for $4.50. It will be a good paper, and should be liberally patronized.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE. VARIOUS ITEMS OF A MILITARY CHARACTER—SOLDIER DEAD—AN UNFORTUNATE MISTAKE CORRECTED, &c., &c.

JOHNSTOWN, June 19, 1864. Correspondence of The Alleghanian.

Adj't. W. H. Rose, accompanied by private George Duncan, of the 54th Pa. Vols., arrived here last week, the former with a severe wound in the hip, received in the late skirmish at Piedmont. Capt. W. B. Bonaker, reported mortally wounded at New Market, also made his appearance here this morning. A bullet passed through his body, in the vicinity of the heart and close to the spinal column, but escaping the vital parts. He is already almost as good as new again. These officers bring the gratifying intelligence that Capt. Graham (reported killed) is also living, but a prisoner in the hands of the rebels. The loss of the 54th in the engagement is reported to be two killed and twenty-nine wounded.

Lieut.-Col. Linton, of the 54th, leaves for his regiment to-morrow. His wound is pretty well healed up, but the ball still remains in his thigh.

John M'Mansay, of the 54th, wounded in the arm at New Market, died in hospital at Cumberland last week. His body was brought to this place for interment.

A few weeks ago, I noticed in this correspondence the court-martial of William M'Lane, of the 54th P. V., for desertion, and stated that he had been found guilty and sent to the Tortugas. My information was derived from what I considered a reliable source; but I now learn from a member of his regiment that the court-martial acquitted him of the charge preferred, and returned him to the regiment. I am most happy to make this public correction of the mistake. MAY LEON.

"SEYUGLE."—By reference to an item on the outside of to-day's paper, it will be seen that a new word, of the "skedaddle" ilk, has been manufactured to order in the army—to wit, "seyugle." The chief charm about this new coinage is that it may be used for any word and in want of any word in the language. As such, it must needs prove wonderfully convenient. We bespeak for it popularity with the masses. Our first use of the word will be made by advising our readers to "seyugle" to James M. Thompson's cheap store, Ebensburg, and purchase some of those magnificent summer goods he has just received and is now opening.

DR. TOBIAS' VENETIAN LINIMENT.—More testimony! This is to certify that for the last five years I have used in my family Dr. Tobias' celebrated Venetian Liniment, and in every instance have found it fully equal to his recommendations. I have found it to give almost instantaneous relief in cases of toothache, croup, bilious colic, sore throat, pain in the chest and back, and rheumatism, and I cheerfully recommended its trial to every one afflicted with any of the above-named diseases. JAMES H. WARNER, Hartford, Conn., Oct. 16th, 1861. Price 25 and 50 cents. Sold by all druggists. Office 56 Cortlandt St., New-York. [el2.]

LETTERS REMAINING UNCLAIMED IN THE POST OFFICE, At Ebensburg, State of Pennsylvania, June 1, 1864.

Catharine Dimond, Wm. Murphy, Thomas Davis, John E. Evans, Joseph Green 2, Philamena Hott, Wm Hancock, Miss M. A. S., Wm B. Hughes, Dr J W Hignut, Miss Hannah Mahan, Rev M Williams.

To obtain any of these letters, the applicant must call for "advertised letters," give the date of this list, and pay one cent for advertising.

If not called for within one month, they will be sent to the Dead Letter Office.

Free delivery of letters by carriers, at the residences of owners in cities and large towns, secured by observing the following rules: 1. Direct letters plainly to the street and number, as well as the post office and State.

2. Head letters with the writer's post office and State, street and number, sign them plainly with full name, and request that answers be directed accordingly. 3. Letters to strangers or transient visitors in a town or city, whose special address may be unknown, should be marked, in the lower left-hand corner, with the word "Transient."

4. Place the postage stamp on the upper right-hand corner, and leave space between the stamp and direction for post-marking without interfering with the writing. N.B.—A request for the return of a letter to the writer, if unclaimed within 30 days or less, written or printed with the writer's name, post office, and State, across the left-hand end of the envelope, on the face side, will be complied with at the usual prepaid rate of postage, payable when the letter is delivered to the writer.—Sec. 28, Law of 1863.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others. I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shocmaker, for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to use them. J. NEWTON BROWN. PHILA'DA., JUNE 23, 1861.

ATTENTION SOLDIERS!

Will build up the constitution, and give health and strength to an overtaken and diseased system.

PHILADELPHIA, August 12, 1862. Dr. C. M. JACKSON—Dear Sir: While in Virginia, owing to the change of water, I was taken with a severe diarrhoea, which seemed incurable, and which greatly weakened me. When we reached Martinsburg, I feared that I should have to come home; but noticing some of your Bitters in the store of Mr. H. H. Price, in that town, I purchased a supply, and on taking it was speedily restored to health. The diarrhoea was quickly checked, and I experienced no return of it. A number of my comrades who suffered in the same manner and from the same cause, with whom I shared the Bitters, join me in this certificate. I expect to return to the seat of war with the Legion, and I shall certainly take a supply of the Bitters in my knapsack. I would not be without it for its weight in gold, particularly on going into a limestone region. Yours, truly, A. E. ALMEUS, Company H, Scott Legion.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS!

HIGHLY IMPORTANT TO BLACKSMITHS.

Four-fifths of time and hard labor saved by using ISAAC C. SINGER'S NEW AND COMPLETE TIRE AND BAND BENDER.

Patented March 19, 1863. Its chief advantages are: 1st. Having strong gear wheels to obtain power, one man can operate it to bend cold wagon tire, any size under 1 by 4 inches.

2d. Having movable collars, to hold the bar square on the portable rollers, it takes all twist out of the bar, while bending in a regular circle.

3d. It can be shifted to bend to any desired circle, from one up to twelve feet, in one minute.

4th. Having a movable centre post, which can be quickly taken off, tires and bands are easily taken out.

5th. The upper ribbed roller will always draw the bar through.

6th. Being gauged and numbered, a card with directions accompanies it.

The Machine in good (oil the journals) running order, bolted upon a strong piece of timber, without leg or crank, for $25, or with legs and crank for $30.

All cash orders promptly attended to. State and County Rights for sale. ISAAC C. SINGER. Ebensburg, April 14, 1864-ly.
