

ODDS & ENDS.

WIT AND WISDOM.—Patience is but lying to, and riding out the gale.
Cupid's arrows are not shot to much advantage from a bow-leg.
He who amends his faults puts himself under God's protection.
He can never speak well who knows not when to hold his peace.
He who hath servants hath enemies that he cannot well be without.
There have been many religions, but there is only one code of morals.
There is always the need for a man to go higher, if he has the capacity to do it.
If some people's consciences are not clear, it isn't for the want of straining.
A military definition of a kiss would be a report at headquarters.
In the game of mortality the last trick is the sexton's. He plays a spade.
A man who casts statues may be said to be the founder of an iron race.
If you cannot please without being false to yourself, you had better dispense.
People wish to be saved from the consequences of their vices, but not from their vices.
He is the happy man, not whom other men think happy, but who thinks himself to be so.
Yankee Notions says the language an Arabian child speaks before it cuts its teeth is gum-Arabic. Unquestionably.

Some years ago a countryman came into a lawyer's office in Court Square, and said to the lawyer:
"Squire, Nat Streeter shaved me dreadfully yesterday, and I want to come up with him."

"State your case," said D.
"Well, I asked him how much he would charge me for a horse to go to Dedham. He said three dollars. I took the horse and went. When I came back, I paid him three dollars, and he said he wanted another three dollars for coming back, and made me pay it."

D—gave him some legal advice, which the client immediately acted upon as follows: He went to Streeter and said:

"How much will you charge me for a horse to go to Salem?"
Streeter replied:
"Three dollars."

"Harness him up."
Client went to Salem, came back by railroad, and went to Streeter saying:
"Here's your money," paying him three dollars.

"Where's my horse?" says Streeter.
"He is at Salem," says the client. "I only hired him to go to Salem!"

Streeter, who was known as a practical joker, acknowledged the grain and paid the penalty.

The owner of a boat on the Niagara river tied up his vessel along shore with a hay rope. A bull belonging to his neighbor, jumped aboard the boat, and proceeded to satisfy his appetite from the hay. Eating off the rope, bull and boat went adrift. Being captain and all hands, and a poor sailor at that, he was unable to manage the lumberly craft, and away they went pell mell, down the rapids and over the falls. The owner of the bull brings suit against the owner of the boat for carrying off his bull, and the owner of the boat brings suit against the owner of the bull for carrying off his boat!

"My son, what did you bite your brother for? Now I shall have to whip you. Don't you remember the golden rule I taught you? If you wouldn't like to have your brother bite you, you shouldn't bite your brother."

"Ha, mother, get out with your whipping. Remember the golden rule yourself. If you wouldn't like me to whip you, 'taint right of you to whip me."

"Pa, what is a flection?"
"There is no such word as flection, my son," says the father, "what do you ask that for?"

"Why, Pa, Mr. Badger says that the French has been building forty-flections in Mexico."

"Charles," says the father, "you had better run home, you are too young to understand war matters."

"My lord," said the foreman of a Welsh jury, when giving in their verdict, "we find the man who stole the mare not guilty."

Law of Newspapers.
1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary, are considered as wishing to continue their subscription.
2. If subscribers order the discontinuance of their Periodicals, the Publisher may continue to send them until all arrearages are paid.
3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their periodicals from the offices to which they are directed, they are held responsible till they have settled the bill and ordered them discontinued.
4. If subscribers remove to other places without informing the publishers, and the papers are sent to the former direction, they are held responsible.
5. The Courts have decided, that refusal to take periodicals from the office or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

A CARD.—
WITNESS THE BIRTH,
LANCASTER T'p. July 30, 1860.
Messrs. EVANS AND WALTON: GENTLEMEN—
The small size No. 1 Salamander safe which I purchased from your agent, Mr. Adam B.
Bacry, in Lancaster City, on July 20th, 1859,
has been subjected to the very severe test
which it withstood in a most satisfactory manner. This safe, containing all my books, together with valuable papers belonging to myself and some to my neighbors and friends and representing a value of over Twenty Thousand Dollars, ($20,000) was in my Mill which was destroyed on the night of the 27th of July, 1860, and passed through the fiery ordeal unscathed. The safe was on the second floor and fell to the basement of the Mill, and was subjected for six hours to an intense heat among the ruins, which was greatly increased by the combustion of a large quantity of gale confined within the brick walls. After the fire the safe was opened and the books and papers taken out in a state of perfect preservation, the paper not even being discolored.
This fact was, however, to many bystanders
a better recommendation of your safe than could be expressed in any other words from
me. Yours respectfully, [seal] SAMUEL BANCE.

A large assortment of the above quality of Fire and Thief Proof Safes always on hand and for sale at as low rates as any other firm, at the office of EVANS & WALTON'S,
No. 16 South Fourth st., Philadelphia.
