WHO ARE THE SOLDIERS' FRIENDS?

It has been asserted, time and again, that the "Democratic" party favors the policy of allowing soldiers to vote—that the Democrats are par excellence the soldiers' friends. For several weeks past, we have combated this idea, and tried to impress upon our readers that, although apparently indifferent as to the result of the special election held on Tuesday, the Democracy were working secretly yet most energetically to defeat the amendment to the State Constitution enfranchising our country's brave defenders. To demonstrate that we knew whereof we affirmed, we submit the following appeal to the "Democrats and Conservative Men of Carrolltown Borough and Carroll Township," Cambria county, copies of which were liberally scattered throughout those sections just prior to the election:

PUBLIC NOTICE.—

An election will be held on Tuesday next, in every election district of Pennsylvania, for the purpose of amending the Constitution of said State. It is to be hoped that every Democrat and Conservative man in Carrolltown Borough and Carroll township will turn out to the polls on that day, and vote against the said amendments. A few moments' reflection will convince all persons of its importance. Ponder well, and think it over.

We have no doubt this is but a sample of posters distributed throughout all the backwoods districts of the county. It clearly and unmistakably sets forth the exact quantum of affection and respect entertained by the opposition for our "men in blue," and as a correct reflex of their feelings and sentiments in the premises, we hope they will not object to our thus placing the same on record. A decade of years hence, possibly, both they who gave the advice contained in the above, and those who suffered themselves to be governed by it, will be heartily ashamed of their action.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.

THE REBEL RAID, AND WHAT THEY DID ABOUT IT AT JOHNSTOWN—A BIG SCARE—NEWS CONCERNING THE 54TH P. V.—VARIETY.

JOHNSTOWN, August 1, 1864.

Correspondence of The Alleghanian. The excitement here on Sunday over an anticipated rebel raid hitherto was most intense; but it only culminated on Monday morning, about 10 o'clock, when our merchants commenced packing up their goods preparatory to a grand and general seeygle. Early Monday morning a proclamation was issued (by whom?) closing all places of business, and advising citizens to arm and prepare to defend their homes from the invaders. A call for a public meeting was also issued, and companies commenced being organized. The wildest excitement prevailed all through the day, and scouts were kept posted on all the roads leading to town to guard against surprise. Toward evening, the rebels coming not, the excitement calmed down—goods were unpacked, the defenders of their homes were mustered out of service, and matters and things became comparatively quiet once more. This morning the "great scare" is the one and only theme of conversation. The 54th P. V. were engaged in the late fight at Snicker's Gap, and also at Winchester. From a private letter just received, I learn that their loss was large. From 75 to 100 of the regiment are now in hospital at Frederick, Md., wounded. Col. Linton is also there, with a wound through the shoulder. His wound did not incapacitate him from duty, but several days after receiving it, his horse fell with him, when the hilt of his sword coming in contact with his shoulder, the latter was broken. He is getting along well. James Quinn, of this place, has been commissioned by Gov. Curtin an agent to recruit negroes for the U. S. service in the seceded States. A good appointment. A man named Delaney was drowned in the Stony Creek yesterday, while bathing. Passing beyond his depth, and being unable to swim, he sank before assistance could reach him. W. B. Lowman has been commissioned a recruiting officer here, with the rank of 1st Lieut.

One hundred per cent. of the foregoing names constitutes an excess over the true quotas of the sub-districts, drawn to cover exemptions.

ETCHINGS.—We are requested to announce that a "protracted meeting" will commence at the Disciples' Church, Ebensburg, on Saturday evening next. The Rev. Mr. Carlton, a minister from abroad, will officiate. We direct the attention of property-holders of Ebensburg to the ordinance of the Town Council requiring all worn-out pavements within said borough to be repaired or relaid inside of two months from July 25th. It is the intention to scrupulously enforce the provisions of this ordinance. The new station-house at Cresson, Penna. R. R., has been completed, and is now occupied by the agent. It is decidedly the neatest and most ornate structure of the kind along the route. Owing to the fact that our farmers, not satisfied with thirty cents per pound for the article, are holding back for a still further increase in price, butter is very scarce in our market. The consequence is, many of us are voluntary members of the "Anti-butter-eating society." We were visited by a most refreshing rain on Monday. Speaking with reference to vegetation, it was worth its weight in gold. A man named Reynolds was killed at Wilmore, this county, on Saturday morning last, by being run over by the Express west. He was standing on the track watching a train approaching from the west, when a train came up from the east, unknown to him, and ran over him. In anticipation of a rebel raid, the 1st N. J. artillery is now stationed at Altoona, Blair county. They ought to be at Chambersburg instead. See new advertisements in this paper.
