

ODDS & ENDS.

The editor of the Cleveland Herald formed one of a party of four traveling over the Pennsylvania Railroad.

"We yielded to the ruling as correct. Just then a gentleman bearing a handbox mounted the platform, and the key was turned in the lock without a question."

The following will interest house-keepers: "Hyson" means "before the rains" or "flourishing spring," that is, early in the spring; hence it is often called "Young Hyson."

General Hooker was serenaded at Washington, the other evening, and made the following characteristic speech: "I did not come here to make a speech, nor should you expect one."

The hat was passed around in a certain congregation for the purpose of taking up a collection. After it had made the circuit of the church, it was handed to the minister, who, by the way, had exchanged pulpits with the regular preacher, and he found not a penny in it.

One day as Rags, whose cup of poverty was dasked, lay snug in bed while his one shirt was washed, the dame appeared holding it to view, said, "If 'tis washed again 'twill wash in two!'"

An order has been issued directing that there shall be no more drafting under previous calls for troops. All deficiencies now outstanding shall be carried over to the draft to take place in September.

Gen. Sheridan has been appointed to supersede Gen. Hunter in the command of the troops on the Upper Potomac.
