

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

EBENSBURG AND CRESSON RAILROAD.—On and after Monday, May 16, 1864, trains on this road will run as follows:

LEAVE EBENSBURG.—At 7.00 A. M., connecting with Balt. Ex-press West and Thro' Accom East.

LEAVE CRESSON.—At 10.45 A. M., or on departure of Thro' Accommodation West.

BREATHINGS-OUT OF SLAUGHTER.

We have read the story of the muscular Milesian who was the possessor of a coat with tail appendages of prodigious length, the latter of which he was wont to drag saucily at his heels at fairs, and wakes, and the like, with the request that anybody as wants a wee bit o' an illegant bating manifest his desire by tramping on the same.

The coat-tails and the chip of the Democrat not having been disturbed, like a very Falstaff it waxes sanguinary and raucous thereat. It tells us what would have been the result had anybody presumed to have laid hand on it in anger.

CASUALTIES BY LIGHTNING.—A man named Milliron was struck by lightning at Altoona one day last week, and instantly killed. He was visiting a young lady acquaintance at the time of the occurrence.

DEMOCRATIC POLITICS.—Huntingdon county, we notice, has unanimously instructed her Congressional conferees in favor of R. L. Johnston, Esq., of Ebensburg.

ETCHINGS.—By an advertisement printed elsewhere in to-day's paper, it will be seen that Ebensburg borough is prepared to pay a local bounty of three hundred and ten dollars to volunteers crediting themselves to said borough under the draft.

THE COURT HOUSE.—The renovation of the Court House, to which the time and ingenuity of a corps of skilled artisans and the especial attention of our County Commissioners have been directed for the past two or three months, is now complete.

MARRIED: At Altoona, on the 17th inst., by Rev. A. H. Sembower, Mr. ROBERT H. SINGER, of Ebensburg, to Miss LUCY A. DAVIS, of Indiana county.

THE WISE MEN AT FAULT.—The Hollidaysburg Standard says the editor of The Alleghanian was born in Massachusetts, whereas the Johnstown Democrat, Lewistown Democrat, and other papers, assert he was born in Maine.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.

OUR QUOTA UNDER THE DRAFT—FATAL EXPERIMENT—THE RECRUITING OF NEGROES IN THE INSUBORDINATE DISTRICTS A FAILURE—PERSONAL, &c., &c.

JOHNSTOWN, August 22, 1864.

Exertions are being made here by the citizens to raise a bounty to fill our quota under the late call of the President.—About $8,000 have already been subscribed for that purpose, and it is thought if a sufficient sum can be raised, there will be no difficulty in securing the requisite number of men.

Three young boys undertook to run a train of coal-cars down the steep grade leading from the Cambria Iron Company's coal-mine to the Mill, a few days since.

Capt. James Quinn, agent for Cambria county to recruit in the insurrectionary districts, returned here from Tennessee last week, his mission having proved a failure.

Capt. S. B. Bathurst, of the 115th colored regiment, spent a few days in town last week. He has lately been promoted from a Sergeantcy in the 54th P. V. to the position he now holds, and is assigned to duty at Lexington, Ky.

A picnic for the benefit of the new Catholic church of this place is to come off in Morrell's Grove on Saturday next. It is contemplated making it a grand affair, and from a knowledge of the young ladies interested in getting it up, I am confident it will be all that can or ought to be desired.

ITEM.—Young man! if you intend enlisting in the army, and desire to credit yourself to a place where $310 local bounty is paid, enlist in Ebensburg borough. If you do not intend enlisting, but want to save $310 per year, buy your goods at J. M. Thompson's store, P. O. building, Ebensburg. Cheapest store in town, and largest and most varied assortment of goods.

BUY YOUR MATCHES NOW.—On the 1st of September, the law requires that a one cent stamp be placed on every bunch of matches in the possession of every manufacturer, or wholesale and retail dealer, consequently the price will go up $1.44 per gross. If you want to lay in a supply of the article, now is your time.

STAMP YOUR RECEIPTS.—The new stamp duties went into effect on the 1st inst. It concerns everybody to know that all receipts for amounts over twenty dollars, and all checks or drafts at sight, whatever the amount, must have a two cent stamp attached.

$410 BOUNTY!! EBENSBURG BOROUGH BOUNTY.....$310 GOVERNMENT BOUNTY..... 100.

The borough of Ebensburg is now ready to pay a Local Bounty of Three Hundred and Ten Dollars to each volunteer mustered into the United States' service, to the credit of said borough, under the President's call for 500,000 volunteers for one year's service.
